INTRODUCTION

There are two indexes. The first index in the front of the books is the person that died and it is under "Index of the deceased." The second is in the back of the book and is for everyone referred to in the obituary by name. In this index, names might include the deceased, family members, neighbors, ministers, even sometimes (if foul play was involved) the murderers.

Please note: This is not meant to replace looking up obituaries on the microfilm. If you are in a hurry or do not like using microfilm, this is a great reference. This is a tool to find your obituaries, death notices, dates, or family members – especially if you are not sure when they died. If you have time to further your research, look up the locations of where your ancestors lived or died. You might find references to every day things mentioned – sicknesses, births, weddings, accidents, etc. This will make your ancestor more interesting to you. You also might find additional death information that may have been inadvertently missed. A suggestion, also, might be to look in other DeKalb county papers close to the date of the obituary or death notice. You might find something additional, especially if it was a bigger newspaper or if your ancestor lived closer to that town, or a relative of theirs was a prominent figure in that town.

Sometimes deaths were not mentioned or reported at all. Pages of the paper might not have been microfilmed or articles may have been cut out of the newspaper. During certain time periods there may not have been a paper issued at Butler at all.

An apology is made if someone was missed. Mistakes are made, no matter how hard you try not to err. We are only human. Thank you and happy hunting!

YOUNG MAN KILLED Is Struck By Train on The New York Central

Jacob H. Lone, of Butler, aged 23 years, was instantly killed Monday morning at 8 o'clock on the New York Central lines, three and one-half miles east of Butler. It is believed that the deceased young man stepped in front of passenger train No. 636, east-bound, with suicidal intent.

The deceased for several days, had been employed by Showalter & Capp in cutting ice just at the north edge of Butler. He was supposed to report for work Monday but did not put in an appearance.

The engineer on Train No. 636 reports that Lone was walking east along the side of the track when he first noticed him. As the train came nearer to him, the engineer said that it seemed that he jumped onto the track. He immediately stopped the train. The body, badly mangled, was picked up several feet from where he was struck.

The body was left in charge of section men, who brought it to Butler, while the train proceeded on its way. The remains were taken to an undertaking parlor and it was several hours before they were identified. The Lone family only recently moved to Butler and but few citizens knew the young man and there were no papers or letters in his clothes which would indicate his identity.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lone and the family moved to Butler three months ago, locating at 305 Pearl street. Mr. Lone was employed at the Butler Company plant.

The report of his inquest into the death of the late Jacob H. Lone has been filed in the office of County Clerk W. W. Mountz by Coroner William E. Byers.

Henry W. Lone, upon being examined regarding his son, stated that Jacob has been away from home most of the time for five years. The family moved to Butler three months ago from the southern part of the state. Jacob came home three weeks ago. He enlisted in the army two different times during the war and his father learned that while he was in the army his mind became affected.

When his father left the house Monday morning, Jacob told him he would be down to the shop where the father is employed, in about an hour. However, he did not appear and later the father learned his son had been killed. Mr. Lone did not know any reason for his son committing suicide.

The coroner found that Lone went to a point three and a half miles east of Butler. The engineer on passenger train No. 636 on the New York Central noticed the man approaching the track a short distance ahead of the train. Lone crossed the track and then stepped back, throwing himself across the rails.

The coroner found cuts on Lone's neck from ear to ear and also a cut on each wrist. Mr. Byers believes Lone tried to commit suicide with a knife, but weakened. Then he decided to throw himself in front of the train. His body was cut in two. No one saw the accident excepting the engineer.

OBITUARY

Morison Brunstetter was born in Mahoning County, Ohio, Sept. 9, 1855 and went to his crowning Thursday afternoon, January 1, 1920, aged 64 years, 3 months and 23 days. He grew to manhood in the country where he was born.

On March 14, 1878, he was united in marriage with Miss Olive Bailey. To this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Jessie Croninger. The year 1885 he came to Butler and engaged for a time in the grocery business. But for more than a quarter of a century he had been actively engaged in the Basket Factory of this city. He held active membership with the Masonic and Odd Fellows fraternities and also was a member of the Maccabees, since his young manhood. He served the Masonic order as their secretary for nineteen years. He and his wife became members of the United Brethren church in Butler in 1890 and to the close of his life led that quiet and peaceful Christian life. Our brother's life, like all our lives, was fraught with many changes, touched at each and every turning point by the providence of the God he served.

We have each of us known so little about the plans and purposes of God in the unfolding of life and character, yet this life has been demonstrating for so many years the sublime definition of all life. For there seems to have radiated from the life of Brother Brunstetter as he has trod the rugged path of life to its finished goal, in the light and joy of an undiscovered land ahead, a manifesting in his quiet way in acts of kindness and charity, unknown to the world about him but blessed of God, that he was seeking a better country or the "Home of the Soul"—"The city that hath foundation whose builder and maker is God," whose walls are Jasper, whose gates are of pearl, whose streets are gold and whose inhabitants are the redeemed.

What was said of the late Dr. Gordon might truthfully be said of our departed Brother Brunstetter. The golden pen of action held in the firm grasp of an inspired purpose has for more than a half century been writing out in quiet deeds and lofty purposes his own character in letters of living light. He was greater in his sphere than one called to rule an empire. Our brother and friend has gone from us, but he shall live within our memory, choosing, I trust, his noble traits of character as a guiding star to our lives and be ready when our call shall come to go the way of all the earth and thus be prepared to meet our God in the judgment.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to publicly express our thanks and appreciation for the very kind assistance of our friends and neighbors during the sickness and death of our husband and father, also for the floral offerings.

Mrs. Olive Brunstetter.

Mrs. F. L. Croninger.

ISAAC BOWMAN DEAD

Isaac R. Bowman, 65 years old, formerly of Butler but recently an inmate of the DeKalb County infirmary, died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock at that institution after a short illness from a complication of diseases. He had been at the county farm only a short time, coming from the Old People's home at Avilla.

The deceased was a member of the K. of P. lodge at Danville, Ill., and the local order, hearing that he was at the county farm was making an effort to have him placed in a home somewhere. Appeal was sent to grand lodge of Illinois and also to Danville and the local lodge found that the lodge had paid for his keeping at the Avilla home for a long time but that he did not stay there.

He was a retired railroad engineer and his body was taken to the Clark funeral chapel in Auburn. The funeral was held from the home of his son, George Bowan in Butler Tuesday afternoon. He has another son in Detroit, Michigan.

JANUARY 16, 1920 FRIDAY

The deceased spent several months last Summer in Butler with his nephew, Geo. Beebe. About three months ago his health failed and he was taken to the home of his son, Elmer Taylor, of Toledo, Ohio, where he consulted a specialist and received medical attention. But he gradually grew worse and passed away January 8, at his son's home. He is survived by two sons, Elmer and Emmet of Toledo, Ohio.

Saturday morning the remains of John Taylor were brought to Butler via the New York Central, from Toledo, Ohio, and taken to the undertakers parlors. Later the body was taken to Angola, Ind., where funeral services were held from the M. E. Church at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Interment was at the Angola cemetery.

Mrs. Henry Bowman and Mrs. D. A. Shaw spent Saturday afternoon at Angola, where they attended the funeral of John Taylor.

JANUARY 23, 1920 FRIDAY

Miss Lena Moltz, Mrs. Carlotta Johnson, Bond Moltz of Milwaukee, Fred Moltz of Valparaiso, George and Robert Moltz of Auburn were called home Saturday by the death of their brother, Lee Moltz and family of North Liberty, Ind., were unable to attend the funeral as they were all ill with the Flu. The father, Chas. Moltz, who is in the Soldiers Home at Marion, was unable to attend as the home is under quarantine for small pox.

GEORGE FREED SUCCUMBS

George Freed died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Robinett early Monday morning. Mr. Freed has been a sufferer from cancer for the past few months and gradually grew worse until death relieved him of his sufferings. Deceased was past seventy-seven years of age; was a civil war veteran and a member of the local G. A. R. post. He leaves two sisters—Mrs. E. A. Richey and Mrs. D. C. Stuller, both of Hamilton, and one brother located in the west. The wife of Mr. Freed died last April and a son the past fall, making three deaths in the family in about nine months. Funeral services were held from the U. B. church Wednesday afternoon and interment was made in the Hamilton cemetery.—Hamilton News.

BRUCE MOLTZ

Passed Away Last Saturday
From Tuberculosis

Bruce Moltz died at eleven o'clock Saturday morning from tuberculosis. The young man passed away at his mother's home after an illness of more than a year.

Before he was stricken with the fatal malady he was employed in the paint department of a Detroit factory. For some months he was a patient at the Rockville sanitarium but the treatment there did not seem to be beneficial and he returned to his mother's home last fall.

Two brothers, Robert and George Moltz are employed in this city. The father, who is quite feeble, is in the soldiers' home at Marion. Besides the father and two brothers mentioned, he is survived by the mother, three brothers, Lee Moltz of North Liberty, Fred in Valparaiso and Bond Molts; two sisters, Miss Lena Moltz and Mrs. Carlotta Johnson.

He was a member of the Butler K. of P. lodge.

Bruce Kenneth Moltz was born in Butler, Ind., March 27, 1889, departed this life Jan. 17, 1920, age 30 years, 9 months and 20 days.

For the past two years he had been a constant sufferer. After he realized the seriousness of his condition he sought medical help from local physicians, also he spent nine months in a sanatorium hoping to regain his health but all that medical science could do availed nothing. He was a young man with an amiable disposition and made friends with a large circle of friends in and around Butler. Many express sorrow and to-day mourn that so young a life must permanently come to an end. In his demise he leaves a mother, a father, two sisters and five brothers. The sisters and brothers are as follows:

DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Death Calls Miss Laura Brunson After Short Illness

There comes a time in everyone's life, when their labors of this earth are ended and they are called to a better world where the only labor is a labor of love and where there is peace and contentment everlasting. Such a time came in the life of Miss Laura Brunson of this city Saturday morning; death being due to double pleural pneumonia. After a short period of suffering, the angel of death came down and carried her quietly to her haven of rest and her reward for a useful, well-spent life.

Laura Brunson was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Brunson and moved here from Newville with her parents two years ago, having accepted a position as teacher in the Butler public schools.

After a residence here of one year her parents decided to move back to Newville and thereafter Miss Brunson made her home with her sister, Mrs. Clayton Feters. She taught in the Butler schools two years and then accepted a position with the Montpelier public schools, which position she had filled since last fall, returning to her home here each Friday evening and leaving again each Monday morning.

Miss Brunson was prepared for her occupation as teacher by a grade school course in Newville, a high school course in Angola, and a normal course in Tri-State normal college, after which latter course she was awarded a life teacher's certificate.

She came home Friday, January 23, with a cold, but thinking it would soon be cured, she returned to her school the following Monday. However, the cold grew steadily worse and she was compelled again come home on Wednesday. Although every means was used to restore her to health again, she soon lapsed into unconsciousness and died Saturday, January 24, at 9:45 a. m.

The body was taken to Newville, where funeral services were held, interment being made in Newville cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

There is a reaper whose name is death

And with his sickle keen

He reaps the bearded grain

And the flowers that grow between.

A flower has been indeed taken from among us in the person of Laura Brunson.

Laura Brunson was born at Newville, July 1, 1896 and died in Butler at the home of her sister January 24, 1920. She leaves a mother, Clara Brunson, a father, Dr. Vincent Brunson, and a sister, Faith Feters and a brother-in-law Clayton Feters and a host of friends to mourn her sad departure.

As a child Laura was a lovable and obedient disposition, bright and intelligent. Her childhood motto was, 'We can make the world brighter with a smile,' and we who knew her as a grown up would say that those were still her sentiments. On Sunday morning when a little girl she would say, "There goes my Sunday school bell" as she heard it calling people to the morning services. She was baptized into Christ by Fred A. Thomas, 1906.

She was ever willing and capable of any service that she was asked to perform for the church. She was a faithful Christian girl until the end.

Laura attended school at Newville and graduated there in 1911. She then entered Angola High School, from which she graduated in 1915. She had attended Angola Tri State College until she had only six months more work there and she would have held a life certificate to teach. She was also an accomplished musician and an artist of ability. Through her music especially her life did shine, because she entered into it with so much zeal and earnestness that one hearing her play could not help but feel they knew her better.

JANUARY 30, 1920 FRIDAY

In her teaching career she was a most efficient instructor. But words cannot express what affection and grief struck the hearts of her little pupils on hearing of her sickness and death, for aside from being a capable instructor she was loved by every pupil and teacher who knew her.

Letters of respect and affection poured in to her from Richland township, where she had taught two years; from Montpelier, Ohio, where she was engaged when her sickness came upon her, and from the Butler children that she had instructed two years preceeding the present one. She endeavored to answer each little message of love and spoke of them all, mentioning lovingly their names.

Not only are the children mourners for Miss Laura Brunson but parents and co-workers feel beyond expression our loss, and we were pleased to learn that she remembered us all in her last hours.

Laura was also a member of the Newville Eastern Star Lodge, was chosen delegate to Indianapolis to Grand Chapter Lodge, another duty which she performed with credit to herself as well as to the lodge that had chosen her.

Now that she has passed beyond we have left the most loving thoughts of her, but hearts greivied at our own loss, and unbounded sympathy for her mother, father, sister, and friends and relatives who had a greater claim upon her than her co-workers.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks for the floral offerings and kind sympathy and help of our neighbors and friends during the brief illness and death of our daughter and sister.

Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Brunson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fetter.

DOTY

The funeral of John Wesley Doty was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Moore, in the north part of town Friday afternoon.

Mr. Doty was born in Bucyrus, Ohio, May 23, 1839 and departed this life January 21, 1920, aged 81 years, 6 months and 29 days.

At the age of 7 years he came with his widowed mother to Williams County, Ohio, and there grew to manhood. At the age of 23 years he entered the service of his country, serving 3 years and was honorably discharged on account of being wounded at the battle of Chickamauga. After his return from the war he came to DeKalb County, Ind., and was married to Amanda McCoy, Feb. 7, 1867. There were five children born to this union, 3 boys and 2 girls. The wife and mother and the youngest daughter preceded him in death.

Mrs. Doty died in Feb., 1903, and the daughter in September, 1917.

Mr. Doty lived a good life before the world, but was never identified with any church. He was a member of the G. A. R. Post at Hudson, Ind. He came to Butler last spring and the last few months of his life were spent in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Moore.

The services were conducted by the pastor and choir of the United Brethren Church.

FUNK

Mary-Imogene, little daughter of Ervin and Flora Funk, was born February 7, 1919, and departed this life January 23, 1920.

This little bud was plucked from the garden of earth after a brief stay of 11 months and 15 days, to be transplanted in the garden of God where all the children gather.

We know so little about our Heavenly Father's dealings with his children here; but when we shall see Him face to face and He shall give back to us our "loved and lost" what a beautiful gift of our Father he has kept reserved in heaven for us, only to await our coming. One brother remains, Mandell Eugene.

The funeral services were held in the United Brethren Church. The body was brought from Montpelier, Ohio, and taken direct to the church at 10:30 Monday morning. The pastor of the church officiated at the funeral and interment was in the Butler cemetery.

"I spoke to my God
As I knelt in prayer
And I said: 'Thy care
Is our guard and guide.
Is she 'neath the sod
Whom they say has died?'
And the answer came as a trumpet calls,
She abides with me in the heavenly halls."

MILO HUSSELMAN

Died Tuesday Morning After a Short Illness

Milo Husselman, for many years a prominent character about Butler, died Tuesday morning after a short illness.

He had been rapidly failing in health but had been able to be at his office regularly. About 1 o'clock Tuesday morning he was suddenly taken with high blood pressure and died about 3 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Mary Bratton.

He had been justice of the peace for some years and maintained an office with attorney W. P. Endicott.

He was one of Butler's former saloon keepers and called his place, at one time, "Hogan's Alley" from which he was familiarly known as "Hogan".

He was a man of more than ordinary education and ability and was friendly with everybody. His mother, Mrs. J. Husselman, and a sister, Miss Dorothy Husselman, live at Auburn.

The funeral was held at the U. B. church at 1:30 Thursday afternoon. Interment at Auburn.

AWAY

Paralysis claimed the life of Arthur Knapp, of Butler, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock after an illness of six months. Mr. Knapp for twenty-eight years was an employe of the Butler Basket Co. and was 64 years of age at the time of his death. He was born in Williams county, Ohio, and was the son of Eli and Jane Knapp.

In the year 1880 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Esterday. They came to Butler thirty years ago. He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu Turner of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Hazel Beckwith of St. Joe; and one son, Fred Knapp of Butler. Two brothers and three sisters also survive.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Church of God in Butler.

Arthur Knapp was born in Williams County, Ohio, Jan. 5, 1856, and departed this life Feb. 13, 1920, at the age of 64 years, 1 month and 8 days.

August 28, 1881 he was married to Elizabeth Easterday. To this union were born three children, Mrs. Lulu Turner of Cleveland, O., Fred Knapp of Butler, Ind., and Mrs. Beckwith of St. Joe, Ind.

He has been a resident of Butler for the past thirty years.

Mr. Knapp was a good citizen, kind, sober and industrious, spending twenty-eight years in the employ of the Butler Basket Co.

He was a good husband and a kind and indulgent parent. He leaves to mourn his departure a wife, three children, two brothers, three sisters and six grandchildren.

Day after day we saw him fade

And gently sink away.

Though often in our hearts we prayed,

That he might longer stay.

We loved him, yes no tongue can tell

How much we loved him or how well.

But Jesus loved too and thought it best

To take him to Himself to rest.

OBITUARY RECORD GINDER

Elsie Viola (Oberholtzer) Ginder, the only daughter of William and Harriet M. Oberholtzer, was born May 12, 1900.

Dowered with a happy, overflowing disposition, her life glided along through childhood's happy estate into the merry days of youth, where high hopes, aspirations and dreams abound, until one of all the world wooed her hand and won.

She was united in marriage to Clyde O. Ginder, May 1, 1917. What greater wealth than two united hearts, happy and content? God alone could add to such treasure and in due time a daughter, Deloris, was given into the happy arms of this devoted husband and wife.

In the home a sweet caressing influence was always floating from her soul like perfume from the rose. Loving, unselfish, patient and kind, ready to sacrifice self for the happiness of all, and with it all a heart into which God had put the gold of precious graces, radiating blessing.

After a very brief illness the sweet spirit of this little mother peacefully glided away into the eternities to the God who gave it and the solo of life was overpowered by the hallelujah chorus of heaven. The crystal river was lost in the crystal sea. The soul had gone to its crowning.

She fell asleep at the late home near Butler, February 21, 1920. Age 19, years, 9 months and 9 days.

She is survived by the heart-broken husband, the little daughter, Deloris, the father and mother and many other relatives and friends.

STEPHEN DIXON WILL

The last will of the late Stephen Dixon, who died at Angola February 21, has been probated in the DeKalb circuit court.

Mr. Dixon provided that his debts be paid and that a monument be erected to the memory of himself and of his wife on his burial lot at Hamilton, the cost to be not less than $400.

To a daughter, Olive Dixon Showalter, Mr. Dixon bequeathed $200, this to be in full payment of services she rendered her parents during their last sickness. Should she file any claim against the estate or institute any proceedings to contest the will she forfeits all right to the bequest.

To a daughter, Lettie Dixon McKee, of Ashley, Mr. Dixon left $250, with provision similar to that for the daughter named above. Mr. Dixon states that he makes no further provisions for his daughters as he considers this a fair distribution of his property.

To his two sons, Cyrus A. Dixon and James Warren Dixon, Mr. Dixon left the remainder of his estate, to be divided equally between them.

Cyrus A. Dixon is nominated by his father as executor of the will. The instrument was signed May 22, 1913, in the presence of Clyde C. Carlin and Eva M. Blass.

Cyrus Dixon qualified to serve as executor by giving $2,500 bond, with Samuel Wolfe and Fred Gingerich as security. The heirs are the four children named in the will. Mrs. Showalter lives at Toledo, Cyrus Dixon at Angola and Lettie McKee at Ashley.

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the underlying mechanisms of the observed phenomena. It highlights the need for a comprehensive approach that integrates various disciplines to address the complexity of the problem.

2. The second part of the paper focuses on the methodology used in the study. It describes the experimental setup, data collection procedures, and the statistical models employed to analyze the results.

3. The third part of the paper presents the results of the study. It shows that the proposed model accurately predicts the observed outcomes, providing strong evidence for its validity.

4. The fourth part of the paper discusses the implications of the findings. It suggests that the results have significant implications for the field and may lead to new discoveries and applications.

5. The fifth part of the paper concludes the study and provides a summary of the key findings. It also identifies areas for future research and suggests potential directions for further investigation.

6. The sixth part of the paper discusses the limitations of the study. It acknowledges that the current study has some limitations, such as the sample size and the scope of the investigation, and suggests ways to address these limitations in future research.

7. The seventh part of the paper provides a detailed discussion of the theoretical background and the conceptual framework of the study. It explains the relationship between the variables and the underlying theory.

8. The eighth part of the paper presents a detailed analysis of the data, including the results of the statistical tests and the interpretation of the findings. It shows that the data support the proposed model and the hypotheses.

9. The ninth part of the paper discusses the practical applications of the study. It suggests that the findings can be used to inform policy-making and to develop new interventions or programs.

10. The tenth part of the paper provides a final summary and a conclusion. It reiterates the main findings and the significance of the study, and expresses the hope that the research will contribute to the advancement of the field.

OBITUARY RECORD OTIS

Elizabeth J. Covell, daughter of Lyman G. and Maria H. Covell, was born in Pleasant Twp., Steuben County, Indiana, Jan. 24, 1846 and died at her home in Butler, Indiana, March 6, 1920, aged 74 years, 1 month and 12 days. She was married to S. W. Otis, May 16, 1867, who died in Butler Aug. 2, 1899. No children came to bless the home, but their home was always open to other children who needed their care, as many people know, and they always helped those in distress when able to do so. Mrs. Otis was a devout spiritualist in religious belief, believing steadfastly in God and humanity. For many years she had been a member of the Eastern Star order of this city. She was the last of a family of seven children, four of whom died in infancy.

She leaves to mourn her death a large circle of relatives and friends, who will miss her as the days go by.

FIREMAN KILLED

W. A. Spencer, a locomotive fireman employed by the Baltimore & Ohio and living in Garrett, met his death in an unusual manner Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock when he was struck by the bridge over the St. Joe river, in the east part of DeKalb county. His body was hurled into the stream and has not been recovered.

Spencer was working on an east bound freight train, Bert Shaffer, also of Garrett, being the engineer. For a reason unknown to the engineer, Spencer had stepped on to the tank step, on the north side of the engine. The engineer noticed him there and shouted to him to "look out for the bridge."

Before Spencer had a chance to save himself, he was struck by the bridge and thrown into the river. It is evident that he was killed instantly upon striking the bridge as a portion of his brains was found on the structure.

MARCH 12, 1920 FRIDAY

A work crew has been dragging the river and blasting the ice in search of the body, but at last report it had not been found. <sup>See above</sup>

FROM W. A. CRAUN

MARCH 19, 1920 FRIDAY

When we first came here we had some fine sport fishing and made some good catches of trout, sheep-head and red fish in the bayous that extend out from the bay, and groups in the Gulf of Mexico, also in Boga Seiga Bay, where David Riser was fishing when he died. Boga Seiga Bay is about ten miles west of the city, separated from the Gulf by Passe-Grille Island, and Mr. Riser had a rowboat on the Bay and made trips there every day to fish. There is an electric line from the city to the bay and he would go out in the morning and back at night, and Dave and a friend of his bought a motor to run his rowboat and had just placed it in position and Dave was working the engine while his friend did the steering when the friend noticed Mr. Riser lay over on his side and he was dead by the time he got to him. He got him to shore and sent for the undertaker. The body has been placed in a vault here and Mrs. Riser will return with the body as soon as the weather moderates in the north.

MARCH 19, 1920 FRIDAY

EMANUEL EASTERDAY

Died Suddenly Sunday Morning At Newville

Organic heart trouble was the cause of the death of Emanuel Esterday, who died at Newville Sunday, according to Coroner William E. Byers' report of his inquest, filed in the office of County Clerk W. W. Mountz.

Mrs. Mary Easterday was the only witness at the inquest. She stated that her husband had been complaining for some time of not feeling well. On Saturday he was as well as usual. He awakened Mrs. Easterday during the night, but did not complain. Just before 5 o'clock Sunday morning both were awake and he talked to his wife.

Suddenly Mr. Easterday began to shake and complain of his heart. In less than five minutes he was dead. His wife thought he just had a bad spell, as he had a few spells before. She called a doctor, but the latter found Mr. Easterday had expired.

OBITUARY

LANE

Alfred E. Lane is taken from our midst. The Creator and Finisher of all things has seen fit to call him from us.

He was born in Ashburnham, Massachusetts, April 4, 1871.

Until he was 6 years of age we know nothing of his life, for he was an orphan in the "Boston Wanderer's Home." At this age he with 21 other orphans was brought to Waterloo, Ind., to find homes. Mr. Jacob A. Miller of Auburn, Ind., went to Waterloo to get one of these children. Alfred ran to him and said "Won't you be my papa?" Who could resist such pleading words of an orphan child?

Mr. Miller took him as his boy. Alfred was with him until he was of age to marry. In 1899 he was united in marriage to Vina E. Keck. They resided at Garrett Indiana until February, 1908, when they removed to Butler, Ind., his home at the time of his death.

The children born to this union were: Claude Andrew, Harold Eugene, Grace Bernice, Abigail Fay, Dorothy Blanche, who died at the age of 22 months, Arden Wesley, and Ruby Pearl.

The writer of this sketch knew him only as his brother and loved him as a brother.

During the years he was with Pa Miller he was a dutiful son. He became a loving husband and a fatherly father. He suffered much from affliction in the last years of his life, yet he bore the pain and smiled it away, keeping faithfully at his work.

On the 18th of March he was compelled to cease his labor because of pain. In the night he was stricken with apoplexy and died at 1:30 a. m. March 19, 1920, at the age of 48 years, 11 months

He leaves a wife, 6 children, his foster father, Mr. Miller, a brother, Claude Miller, a sister Mrs. B. C. Thomas of Ft. Wayne, to mourn their loss. Besides these, many friends share their grief and will miss him and his jollity in the rounds of life.

MARCH 26, 1920 FRIDAY

A very sudden death occurred at Newville Sunday morning. Mr. Immanuel Easterday, whose home was at the Wyatt place passed away without a moment's warning. Mr. and Mrs. Easterday had not yet got up when Mr. Easterday complained that his heart was acting queer, after turning over a couple of times he turned on his back and expired without a struggle. Mr. Easterday has been complaining of heart trouble at various times. They moved to Newville from Waterloo last fall and the neighbors were looking forward to the friendship of good citizens, as they were ever ready to lend a helping hand in time of sickness and trouble. He leaves a wife and we are not informed as to his other relatives.

MAY

Edward May was born in Eislingen, Germany January 23, 1846. Died at his home in Butler, Ind., March 31, 1920, aged 74 years 2 months and 6 days.

He served his mother country three and one-half years as a soldier. He was loyal to the mother country and no less loyal to the country of his adoption. After this service as a soldier, he was united in marriage to Lisette Shott in 1871. To this union was born four children, two daughters and two sons, one daughter and one son died in infancy and were buried in the mother country to await the great reunion. The wife of his choice, one daughter and a son remaining, Mrs. Dietz of Hillsdale and Gottleb of Washington state, also three grandchildren and many other kindred and friends to mourn their loss.

In the year 1872 he became a Christian. After removing to Butler, Ind., 1872 he united with the Lutheran Church of this place and was a faithful member until his death. Brother and Sister May are of the few who believed that it was the duty of the Christian to give one-tenth of their income to the Lord and they carried this out in their lives.

Soon after coming to Butler he opened a tailor shop and followed this occupation until a few days ago. In his chosen craft he was a workman of high quality as hundreds would testify whom he clothed. He was of a gentle disposition, a good citizen and neighbor, a good husband and a loving father, and to his townsmen practiced many virtues. If there were any mistakes in his life, let the mantle of charity hide them.

Funeral was conducted at the Lutheran Church. Interment in the Butler cemetery.

The Church has lost a faithful and godly member, the K. of P. fraternity a worthy member and Brother, the town a good citizen. He will be missed for his place will be vacant.

APRIL 9, 1920 FRIDAY

OBERLIN

Catharine Bearer Oberlin, daughter of George and Julie Bearer, was born in DeKalb Co., Ind., Aug. 9, 1849.

On Dec. 12, 1869 she was united in Marriage to John J. Oberlin. To this union were born eight children.

She, with her husband united with the United Brethren Church in the year 1882, under the pastorate of Rev. C. A. Bell.

Almost her entire life was spent in this county. For the past four years she has been a constant sufferer but bore it all with patience and Christian fortitude. She was one of those characters who thought of others and their comforts before her own. She was faithful as a companion, a kind and loving mother, and her kindness and fidelity will long be cherished by the neighbors and friends with whom she mingled in life. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband and all the children save one daughter, Grace, who preceded her in death, on Aug. 2, 1916.

Her life closed peacefully with the full assurance of faith in her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, saying to those about her a few days previous to her going that all was well and she was ready to depart and be at rest. She left for her home on the other side of the river, on April 11, 1920, being 70 years, 8 months and 2 days of age.

MRS. MARY E. GREENWALT

Funeral services of Mrs. Mary E. Greenwalt of Butler, widow of the late Samuel Greenwalt, who died Friday from a complication of diseases, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the United Brethren church at Butler, Rev. Stanley, pastor of the church, officiating.

Nineteen years ago Mrs. Greenwalt was injured when she was hit by a New York Central train and she has been crippled ever since and it is thought that the injury sustained at that time was partly responsible for her death.

She was born November 4th, 1860, in Stafford township, DeKalb County and spent her entire life in the county. June 16th, 1881, she was married to Samuel Greenwalt. She was a devoted member of the United Brethren church.

She is survived by a son, Earl, who made a home for her in Butler. Her aged mother, Mrs. Nancy Kepler, is also living, being over 80 years old, residing at Hamilton. She is also survived by two half sisters, Mrs. Dela Munaw of Butler and Mrs. E. Miller of near Hamilton, and two half brothers, Charles and George Kepler, of Butler.

APRIL 23, 1920 FRIDAY

Mary Elizabeth Dickerhoff Greenwald, daughter of Andrew and Nancy Dickerhoff, was born in Stafford township, DeKalb County, Ind., Nov. 4, 1860. Died at her home on East Main Street, Butler, Ind., April 16, 1920, age 59 years, 5 months and 12 days.

Her father died when she was four weeks old and at the age of thirteen she went to live with her uncle, Jacob Dickerhoff, at Comet, Ohio, where she remained until her marriage to Amandus Greenwald, June 16, 1881. To this union were born three children. The husband and two daughters, Dela, age two and Lottie, a year old, have preceded her in death.

JOHN W. BROWN

One of Butler's Oldest Citizens
Passes Away.

John Brown, 74 years old, one of the older and best known residents of Butler died Monday morning after an illness of eight days from paralysis. He was stricken while in Edgerton, Ohio, visiting relatives and was brought home April 28, and has been in a serious condition since that time.

Mr. Brown was a charter member of Meade Post, G. A. R., and was a prominent member of Forest Chapter, F. & A. M., No. 123 of Butler. He was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, September 27, 1846, and had resided in DeKalb county for the past 72 years. At the age of two years he left Ohio with his parents and they journeyed westward and settled near Butler.

He attended school at Big Run school house and later when a lad, helped his father clear the land. He was one of the early settlers of that vicinity. By trade he was a farmer, leading the simple life of the soil until the black cloud of war was seen on the horizon of the country and then he forsook the plow for the gun and enlisted March 13th, 1864, at the age of 18 years. He served in the 44th company, Indiana Volunteer Infantry and was discharged September 14th, 1865 at Nashville, Tenn., serving until the end of the war. While in the service he was wounded in the left knee which caused him trouble all of his life.

He was married June 24, 1872 Irene Farley, a sister of Frank Farley of Auburn, and they resided on the old Shull farm until he was forced to give up the farm

JOHN BROWN

John Brown was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, on September 2, 1845, and died at his home at 214 West Oak street, Monday, May 3, 1920, age 74 years, 8 months, 5 days.

When a child of two years old he came to Indiana with his parents, Joseph and Nancy Brown, locating on a farm two miles east of Butler, not an acre of which was cleared. The trip was made in a covered wagon, over almost impassable roads. He attended school at Big Run school house, which was located on the corner of his father's farm. As he grew older he helped his father clear the land. When 18 years old, March 13, 1864 he enlisted in the 44th Indiana Regiment Volunteer Infantry, Co. F, serving until the end of the war, receiving an honorable discharge September 14, 1865, at Nashville, Tenn. While in the service he received injuries to his left knee, which bothered him throughout life, causing him intense suffering, which he bore with great fortitude, always cheerful and happy. On June 30, 1872 he was married to Miss Irene Farley, at Butler, Ind., and they went to housekeeping on what is now known as the Shull farm two miles east of Butler, afterwards building a home on his father's farm where they resided until his crippled limb compelled him to give up farming. For many years he engaged in the harness-maker's trade. He was an active member of Meade Post, G. A. R., of which he was a charter member. He was also a member of the F. and A. M. order, Forest Chapter 123.

During the first two days of his last sickness in his rational moments he realized the seriousness of his affliction and would say "I am ready to go."

Goodness, honorable intentions, splendid citizenship and absolute loyalty and fidelity to his home, country and its flag, were characteristic of his life. He was a kind and loving husband and father and in his demise he leaves a wife, daughter and one brother with other relatives and friends to mourn.

Taps

"Good night, old friend, kind heart, good night.
Lights out—the shadows fall,
Across the silent camping ground
Rings out the bugle call;
In mournful cadence on the breeze
Soft, in the waning light,
'Tis echoed through the whispering trees;
The soldier's last good night,
Lights out, Good Night."

SIMON ABRAHAM JOHNSON

Simon Abraham Johnson, was born on a farm near Monterey, Fulton County, Indiana, on April 22nd, 1862 and passed away at the Sacred Heart Hospital, Garrett, Indiana, on Wednesday morning June 16th at 9 o'clock, aged 58 years, 1 month and 25 days.

Mr. Johnson has been in failing health for a number of years, but his condition was not considered serious until on Sunday, June 13, when upon advise of his physician he was taken to the hospital where ulcers of the stomach were found with other complications which resulted in his death about three days later.

Mr. Johnson was the son of George and Ellen Johnson and was one of a family of 9 children, one sister Mel Carr and one brother, Finley Johnson having preceded him in death.

He grew to manhood in Fulton county Ind., where he engaged in farming, which calling he followed through life.

On April 2, 1890, he was united in marriage to Miss May Wideman of Fulton county, Ind. To this union were born 8 children as follows, Adella Deems of Butler, Ind., Mary Stroh of Pleasant Lake Ind., Elbert, Naomi and Ruth of Detroit Mich., Earnest and Grace Johnson at home and one daughter, Florence, who died October 8, 1904 at the age of about two months.

The deceased was converted to Jesus Christ about 28 years ago and united with a Free Methodist church at Knox, Ind. He was a local minister of that denomination and well and favorably known in this vicinity.

While his residence in Pleasant Lake had been but of few months, yet those who had formed his acquaintance speak well of him. He was a man who had many friends where ever he went and in his passing this little village loses a good citizen. He was a kind and loving husband and father and in his demise he leaves a widow and 7 children and 5 grand children. One grandchild, Windel Stroh, having died in infancy. One brother, Alfred Johnson of Monterey, Ind., and five sisters Nan McCoy of Kewanna, Emma Davis of Culver, Ind., Libbie Duff of Monterey, Ind., Belle Decker of Lost Springs, Wyo. ### WESLEY WYCKOFF MEETS DEATH.

At the Reynolds Crossing East of Butler on Saturday Evening

Wesley Wyckoff met sudden death between four and five o'clock Saturday evening when he was struck by the east bound Twentieth Century Limited train on the New York Central Ry. at the Reynolds Crossing east of Butler.

Mr. Wyckoff was alone in the buggy. He had been to Butler doing some trading and was on his way home at the time. He was hard of hearing and evidently never saw or heard the speeding train.

The horse and buggy were hit with terrific force by the powerful locomotive. Mr. Wyckoff's body was thrown for seventy feet. The horse was wedged in the cow catcher so tightly that it was necessary to call the New York Central section men from Butler to remove the carcass from the engine.

Mr. Wyckoff's body was horribly mangled. His head and face were cut and mashed beyond recognition. The body was so badly mangled that the casket was not opened.

The Reynolds Crossing is a dangerous one and many persons have met death at this point. Sometime ago the railroad erected bells at the crossing but it is supposed that Mr. Wyckoff did not hear the alarm. It is believed that the bells were in working order as a short time before a funeral party had passed over the crossing and they rang at that time as a train was approaching.

The remains were removed to the Phelps morgue and prepared for burial. The Twentieth Century stopped within a quarter of a mile from the crossing after hitting the horse and buggy and Mr. Wyckoff. The train was delayed some time before the section men could remove the carcass of the horse from the engine.

The deceased has had two other narrow escapes from death previous to the fatal accident of Saturday night. Several years ago while driving a bobsled he just got across the tracks when a train passed. The train hit the rear of the bobsled and took off the rear bobs.

Another time he drove onto the tracks in the path of a train and would have been killed if his horse, the same one killed Saturday, had not become frightened and ran down another track from which the train was approaching. The deceased was 76 years old.

Mr. Wyckoff was born in Carroll county, Ohio, October 15, 1843. He was the son of Peter and Mary Wyckoff and came to DeKalb county 67 years ago settling in Stafford township. He had always followed the vocation of a farmer. Mr. Wyckoff was married in 1870 and he is survived by a wife and two daughters.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Fred Thomas, pastor of the Newville Christian church officiating. Burial was made in the Butler cemetery.

SAYS RAILWAY NOT TO BLAME

For Death of Wesley Wyckoff as Signals were Properly Given

That the New York Central railroad was in no way to blame for the death of Wesley Wyckoff is the verdict of William E. Byers of Waterloo, coroner of DeKalb county, filed in the office of W. W. Mountz, county clerk.

Coroner Byers says that Mr. Wyckoff met his death by being accidentally struck by a railroad train. The coroner also states that there was nothing to obstruct the view of the railroad crossing.

There was but one witness to the accident, M. J. McClelland, who lives near the crossing. Mr. McClelland testified at the inquest that he was working on his automobile in the front yard of his home which is about 150 feet from where the accident took place.

He said that he heard the Twentieth Century train whistle for the crossing and then the engine gave two short whistles. He said that attracted his attention and that when he looked toward the crossing, he saw the horse and buggy on the tracks and saw the train hit them.

Mr. McClelland testified at the inquest that he was sure that the train blew the proper crossing whistle. He also said that the big crossing bell used as a warning of approaching trains at the crossing, started ringing before he heard the train whistle.

fluenza in the winter. He returned home several weeks ago and apparently had practically recovered.

On Friday Mr. Hood and wife decided that they would attend the meeting of the Waterloo High school alumni association. They went to the New York Central station preparatory to taking the train to Waterloo.

Mr. Hood complained of not feeling well on reaching the station and said that he believed that he would stay at home. He insisted that his wife go and she finally decided that she would attend. By noon Mr. Hood was in a serious condition and his wife called home. By 2 o'clock he went into convulsions and in the evening a specialist was called from Fort-Wayne. An operation was performed but Mr. Hood rapidly failed until death came about noon Saturday. He suffered greatly and five men were required Friday night to hold him in his bed.

Mr. Hood owned and operated the Crystal theatre.

Fred Walter Hood was born Apr. 4, 1880 and departed this life June 26, 1920 bringing his age to 40 years 2 months and 22 days.

His place of birth was Butler, Ind. At the age of 3 years moved to Waterloo, then to Auburn, where he grew to manhood.

During his business career he has resided in Wabash, Columbia City, Waterloo and Auburn, coming to Butler 6 years ago where he has since continued to reside.

Nov. 30, 1909 he was united in marriage to Hortense Meek by the Rev. G. F. Zuber. To this union was born one daughter, Hortense. The departed was a genial, whole-hearted public spirited man whose friendship was much prized by the many who esteemed it a privilege to know him.

MRS. VAL BROWN KILLED

Struck by N. Y. Central Train on Crossing in Waterloo

Mrs. Val Brown, aged twenty-seven years, wife of V. N. E. Brown, a former Butler boy, the son of Mort Brown, an electrical contractor of Waterloo was fatally injured Friday afternoon at 4:55 o'clock when the automobile she was driving was struck by New York Central passenger train No. 23 at the Washington street crossing in Waterloo.

Mrs. Brown's baby Ruth, aged one year and five months, and Maxine McEntarfer, aged four years, escaped death in an extraordinary manner.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Edward McEntarfer had accompanied Mrs. Lloyd Leas to Auburn in the latter's automobile and the women bought flowers for Mrs. Fern Grueter, a member of their club. After they returned to Waterloo, Mrs. Brown went from her home on Washington street to the business district of the town on an errand. She took along her baby and Mrs. McEntarfers's little daughter.

The children were sitting on the seat besides Mrs. Brown in Mr. Brown's Ford roadster. Driving south on Washington street on her way home, Mrs.

Brown's view of the railroad was obstructed by buildings and trees. She evidently was upon the first track before she saw the passenger train approaching from the east. The McEntarfer girl, warned of the danger, jumped from the car and ran to safety. She says that the engine of the automobile had stopped.

It is not known whether Mrs. Brown was attempting to start her car, or was trying to get out of it, when the train struck the machine. It is probable that Mrs. Brown threw the baby to safety beside the track or that the child was hurled from the automobile when the locomotive hit it. The baby was only slightly hurt.

The train struck the front part of the automobile. The rear of the car was thrown against the train and the machine turned over, demolished. It alighted upside down only a few feet away. Mrs. Brown was pinned under the machine. M. A. Miser, employed at the Standard Oil Co. station near the crossing, was the first to reach the crossing and he found Mrs. Brown. Ralph Clark, who lives nearby found the baby.

Mrs. Brown was removed to Dr. E. A. Ish's office and the baby to Dr. J. C. Fretz's office. Then Mrs. Brown was placed in the Byers and Childs ambulance and taken to the Sacred Heart hospital in Garrett. Mr. Brown and the baby were taken to the hospital in Dr. Fretz's automobile.

It was found that Mrs. Brown's skull had been fractured in front and also on the side and there was small chance for her recovery. There was also a compound fracture of the left forearm and a fracture of the left shoulder blade and she was badly bruised about the body. Dr. J. F. and J. W. Thomson of Garrett and Dr. Ish of Waterloo performed an

OBITUARY

Emily Murphy, daughter of Joshua and Tacy Murphy, was born in Wayne County, Indiana October 30, 1841, departed this life at her home in Denver, Indiana July 6, 1920; aged 78 years, 8 months and 6 days.

In the year 1842 she came to Miami County where she has since resided.

She was united in marraige to David R. Fetrow on October 30, 1859 and to this union two two daughters and four sons were born, namely, Martha Ann, who still resides at home; Oliver of Macy, Ind.; Laura Fuller of Butler Ind.; Ira of Holt Mich.; Oscar who preceeded her to the other shore at the age of six years; and Thomas Harvey of Onward Ind.

She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, three sons, two daughters, fourteen grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren four brothers, Milton, Amos, Oliver and Nelson; and a host of other relatives and friends. One grandson, Raymond, son of Thomas Harvey, preceeded her to the spiritual world some time ago.

She was ever a faithful wife, a devoted mother, and a true friend and neighbor, honored and respected by all. None ever entered her home without a warm welcome nor left without feeling the warmth of a genuine hospitality. Her life was a rare jewel, her spirit as gold refined in the

REUBEN SAWVEL

Passed Away Last Thursday

Night at His Home

Reuben Sawvel, a lifelong resident of DeKalb county and a former county treasurer, died at his home in Franklin township four miles northwest of Butler Thursday night at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sawvel had been in ill health for a number of years and it is believed his death was due to rheumatism and cancer. He returned recently from the sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich.

Rueben Sawvel, son of Jacob and Sarah Sawvell, was born in Stark County, Ohio February 11 1847. In the autumn of the same year, the parents with a family of seven children moved to DeKalb County, Indiana and settled on a heavily timbered tract of land on Section 24, Smithfield Twp. Reuben Sawvel passed into the great beyond at 11 o'clock Thursday evening July 22nd at his home in Franklin Twp.

There lives to survive him two brothers, one sister, a wife and several nephews and neices in Indiana and Michigan.

He was united in marriage to Miss Laura Phillips, December 24 1874. Through these years of wedded life Mrs Sawvel shared his joys and sorrows. After all what can be greater than to be a helpmate to another.

Mr. Sawvel was a very thoughtful man. A thinker of more than usual ability. His philosophical turn of mind enabled him to see the different sides of difficult questions. His well matured thoughts rendered him a counselor and a valuable citizen in any community. He was honorable in all his dealings. If ever he wronged a fellow man he always restored to that one full measure in return. Thus correcting his errors according to the injunction of the Scriptures. No man ever lost any value in dealing with Reuben Sawvel. Would that more people were like him in that respect. The world would soon improve and become better.

Many a man has been helped by acts and words done and said by Reuben Sawvel. There is an old saying that he who serves man well serves God well.

Mr. Sawvel was not what might be called a public man, that is he did not participate in public affairs to any considerable extent.

He lived more within himself than most people do. He held a firm and lasting faith in God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The writer of this held a conversation with him not a week ago and he very definitely stated that he felt sure he would be saved. He said this with calm and quiet assurance and tear bedimmed eyes. His spirit was undoubtedly working with the one who can give assurance. I am fully convinced in my own mind that he is saved. The good faithful wife has lost a devoted husband. He has gone to his rest. The unfortunate have lost a helper in time of need. The community has lost a friend. The loss will be more fully felt as time goes on. He always had a warm heart for the unfortunate and downtrodden.

RUEBEN SAWVEL LEFT A WILL DISTRIBUTING HIS ESTATE TO MANY RELATIVES

Rueben Sawvel's will was probated Monday in the DeKalb Circuit Court. It is estimated that the estate amounts to about $40,000.

Wayland Mutzfeld is made the executor. After providing for the payment of his debts,

To his widow, Mr. Sawvel devised, in lieu of her statutory rights or otherwise in the real estate and personal property, during her natural life, the farm in the southeast quarter of section 2 in Franklin township and all the personal property on the farm, except as disposed of above and excepting moneys, bonds, deposits, notes and other evidences of indebtedness due him. The executor is directed to pay from the estate from time to time such sums as the widow may need for her support.

The executor is instructed to take charge of all the money, notes, bonds and deposits, sell all the property that is necessary except the farm and the personal property thereon, and make a proper investment of the proceeds. After the death of the widow the executor is also to dispose of the farm and convert it into cash.

Then John Sawvel, a nephew, 43 is to be given 3-27 of the estate; Roy Sawvel, son of Sherman Sawvel, is to have 1-72 of the estate; Arthur Sawvel, son of Arthur is to have 1-72 of the estate; Bertha Sawvel, daughter of Sherman Sawvel, is to get 2-72.

The executor is to turn over to Wayland Mutzfeld as trustee, for a sister of the testator, Mary Rager 3-72 of the estate, to be used for her support during life, and after her death to be divided among the other heirs in equal shares.

Wayland Mutzfeld is named executor of the will which was signed July, 9, 1920 with W. P. Endicott and C. W. Campbell as witnesses.

On July 21, Mr. Sawvel placed a codicil on the will in which he provided that his automobile instead of going to Wayland Mutzfeld, should be sold and become a part of the proceeds of the estate.

The phonograph, Mr. Sawvel provided, should be the property of his wife instead of being given to Laure Wile.

FROM RUEBEN SAWVEL
The day after our proposed College Corner reunion, we received the following letter from Rueben Sawvel, which was intended to have been read at the reunion. We intended to publish this last week but had mislaid it.

Battle Creek, Mich.

• July 3-1920

Being unable to attend this reunion, I feel that it would be an unkindness to my friends who are assembled here today not to write a few lines that would express a little of my thought as I recall the past 41 years ago I taught my first term of school at the Corners and taught again the following winter. Altogether the school enrolled some 40 pupils. Of all this number there may be but few if any present today. Then followed subsequent terms, six in all. Many of the pupils living in this vicinity or near here who no doubt are present. To them I will say that it is a pleasure to recall those days on account of your kindness to me—you made the teacher's work lighter by being orderly, studious and attentive in recitations. All this was for your advancement and it made the teacher's work lighter and more pleasant. No disorderly scenes occurred to mar the good feeling that prevailed and I realize that all these years you have been my friends. I will not forget too that I owe a debt of gratitude to the parents—the patrons of the school for their kindness by so often employing me, knowing that I was struggling to lift the mortgage on the farm. But few of those patrons are present. The grim reaper has visited every house and only a few of the patrons of the school and the pioneers who smoothed out the rough places are left.

Reuben Sawvel

At the close of the letter, Mr. Sawvel added a postscript in which he said, "I have felt so depressed and bad that I did not attempt to write, so the letter is late."

HUNG HERSELF

Using a strip of a petticoat as a noose, Mrs. Zoe Washburn of Franklin township, hung herself on a tree a short distance from her home Saturday morning. Mrs. Washburn was the wife of Warren Washburn, a well known DeKalb county farmer.

Mrs. Washburn first attempted to end her life by hanging herself in the woodshed at the rear of the Washburn home. Her husband, however, noticed that she was absent from the house and finding the door of the woodshed locked, he surmised that something was wrong. He forced open the door and found Mrs. Washburn in the act of taking her life. She had a rope around her neck.

She ran from him and went into a cornfield near the house. Mr. Washburn lost sight of her because of the high corn. She made her way to the woods on the George Shoner farm nearby and here successfully accomplished her purpose. She took off her petticoat and tearing a strip from it tied one end around the limb of a tree and another about her neck. She stood on a fence near the edge of the woods and then jumped off. She was found shortly after.

LIFE STORY OF MRS. REV. S. M. FIRESTONE

Clara A. Hammond, daughter of James Alexander Spears and Eleanor Hammond, was born Sept. 15, 1875, near Hamilton, De Kalb county, Indiana, departed this life, August 21, 1920, Fresno, Coshocton county, Ohio. On January 1, 1900 she was united in marriage, by the late Rev. Geo. C. Ulmer to Samuel M. Firestone then a farmer in the same community near Butler. In 1904 they went to Kansas to engage in general farming and cattle raising. By chance, however, in a year or so, Mr. Firestone went on the Railroad and was engaged as section and construction gang foreman on the Union Pacific, Rock Island, Pacific Electric and Santa Fe systems for nearly 8 years. During this time they homesteaded in Colorado, Mrs. Firestone and their only child Marie staying on the claim 11 miles from the Railroad while Mr. Firestone went away to work. She sojourned with her husband to Southern California from one early fall till the next Fourth of July. From there they went to the Rio Grande valley living in and near Albuquerque, New Mexico for about a year.

Clara joined the church at the age of 12, but sought the Lord at each meeting thereafter for a real experience. She finally was converted just two weeks before her marriage. Several years after in Kansas she sought and obtained the experience of entire sanctification as a definite work of grace, while her testimonies were always modest, she consistently and tenaciously clung to the truth and her stand through life. This notation may be read on the fly leaf of her bible: Dec. 15, 1899, justified; Nov. 26, 1906 sanctified.—Clara.

Directly and indirectly through her, the Lord called her husband into the ministry. So from New Mexico, they emigrated to Asbury College, Wilmore Kentucky where he took a course, graduating in 1915. During this school career, she took in over $400.00 sewing and tailoring to help defray expenses.

In the spring of 1915, they started out on an evangelistic tour in Kentucky, she singing and otherwise working in the meetings. Her husband Rev. S. M. Firestone joined the Kentucky Conference and was appointed to London, Kentucky, county seat of Laurel county, as their first charge. His next appointment was at Louisa, Kentucky, another county seat in the northeastern part of the state; but instead of going there he was transferred by Bishop Anderson to the North East Ohio Conference, a conference in which they have labored since.

Mrs. Firestone felt called to preach the Gospel in song, honestly endeavored singing in the Spirit and was generally effective in so doing. Next to her last solo sung at the Richmond reunion, one week before her death, was entitled, "We are going to live forever." This same song was sung by Robert and Mrs. Hamilton at her funeral. She attended the reunion on Saturday, accompanied Rev. Firestone at three of the preaching points on Sunday, sang a solo at the evening service, and took seriously ill thereafter. At least on two occasions, she had very sacred visions, one concerning the departure of her father and another seeing and hearing the heavenly throng sing "Sweeping through the gates of the New Jerusalem,

washed in the blood of the Lamb"

Mrs. Firestone had been somewhat of a sufferer. When a girl about 15 she was attacked with a severe case of measles; later on just after her marriage she was quite low with scarlet fever; and still later on came near death's door by an eight week's siege of typhoid. She was afflicted with that dread disease, diabetes, probably since 1915, certainly so since being at St. Luke's Hospital for three weeks about three years ago, where they starved her entirely sugar free and instructed her especially as to diatetics. From that time various physicians have given her most courteous attention, and during her last illness, she was attended well and had able council, and every possible assistance was rendered but she finally lapsed into a diabetic coma and peacefully passed away.

A funeral service was held at Fresno Ohio, which was conducted by the District Superintendent Rev. George W. Orcutt of Wooster Ohio, assisted by seven ministers, including Rev. M. B. Mead, who preached the funeral sermon.

The funeral was largely attended with an overflowing congregation, delegations being present from each out point on the Fresno Charge, besides one from Wilmore, Ohio, a former charge of Rev. Mr. Firestone. Two sisters Mrs. Alice Aldrich and Mrs. C. E. Everhart were in attendance at the funeral.

Many tributes in the form of floral offerings were sent by individuals, societies and the Fresno community.

There are left to mourn the loss of this precious wife and mother, a sorrowing husband, a daughter Marie, three sisters, namely, Mrs. Alice Aldrich, Hamilton, Ind Mrs. C. E. Everhart, Bryan, O., and Mrs. Noah Modery, Edgerton, O., two brothers George and Jesse Hammond of Hamilton, other relatives and friends.

A funeral service was held in the M. E. Church at Hamilton, Ind at 2:30 conducted by Rev. H. R. Carson of Atlanta, Ind. assisted by Rev. Thomas Davies of Swayzee, Ind.

ONCE MORE
(A Tribute to the late Reuben Sawvel.)
Once more we part with one so dear,
Once more we bow our heads with grief.
Once more hot tears flow down our cheeks,
Once more the Reaper has gleaned a Golden Sheaf.
Once more a form no more we see,
A form of goodness, kindness, full of love.
But the angels softly whispered,
"Come up higher, come above."
Once more we miss a pleasant face,
A face we loved so well.
More each day we miss his footsteps,
Footsteps well from others we could tell.
Once more we wake at early dawn,
And grope to find the light.
But our hearts are crushed with sorrow,
Alas! all day it's dark, it's night.
Once more a gentle voice is hushed,
A voice so soft, so sweet and low.
Like divine music to our ear,
We hear it still wher'er we go.
Once more we miss a warm hand clasp,
Again we see a vacant chair.
But in our sorrow and our grief,
We go to Him who cares.
Once more for grace, for strength, to bear it all,
Once more our loss is Heaven's gain,
Once more God's will not ours be done,
Once more with hopes to meet again.

THREE PEOPLE KILLED

Another Bad Crossing Accident on N. Y. Central

About 4:50 p. m. Wednesday evening at the Arford crossing east of Butler, three lives were instantly lost.

The 20th Century Limited going east struck a large Buick car in which there were three people and killed them all instantly, badly mangled their bodies and demolished the car.

The remains were brought to the Phelps undertaking rooms and from papers found it was learned that the parties were Mr. G. E. McRae and wife and daughter of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. The man and woman are people about 45 or 50 years old and their daughter about 17. The daughter was driving the car at the time of the accident.

Mr. McRae was a member of the Edmonton Realty Co. of which the name of N. E. McCutchen appeared and so a telegram was sent to him. He replied that a telegram was sent to Mr. McRae's brother and instructions would follow.

It is evident that the people were well to do and no doubt the remains will be shipped to their home.

Sept. 3, 1920 FRIDAY

William Winebrenner of Auburn, 27 years old and deaf and dumb made good a threat to end his life Thursday night when he walked in front of a south bound freight car on the Fort Wayne & Northwestern interurban at 9:44 and was ground to pieces. The car struck him at the Tenth street crossing and it was not until the heavy car had reached Eleventh street that it could be stopped.

CAMPBELL

Lemuel Luther Campbell was born near Butler, Indiana, August the 16th 1863. He was the son of William and Catherine Campbell, pioneers of De Kalb County.

He was united in marriage to Agness Lower at Waterlooc, Indiana, Dec. 31st 1891. To this union one child, Jesse LeRoy, was born.

Mr. Campbell was a well rounded man and while no words of ours can add peace to his ashes or sweetness to his sleep yet we beg to place on record our tribute of affection and esteem.

He so blended graces and, good qualities, so combined the traits and characteristics which distinguish men to be worthy of Anthony's compliment to Brutus "This was a man"

He was a man of surpassing geniality, a boon companion, a true father who found his inspiration at his friends and approached the ideal in his domestic life. Fortune so smiled upon his home that he was removed from anxious care.

With him citizenship was a sacred trust and he exercised the most conscientious care in the discharge of his responsibilities toward his fellow man. He was honest with himself and with others.

Towards the close of life he sought and found pardon at the hands of his Lord. To know Christ is worth all the wealth of the world, at the moment when the life forces begin to slip away like sand thru the fingers.

After a long illness, during which he seemed to be the incarnation of the word of Luke, "In patience possess ye your souls." Mr. Campbell fell asleep at his late home west of Butler, at the age of 57 yrs. and 11 days. He is survived by the widow his only son LeRoy, two brothers James and George both of Butler, and one sister Mrs. Hattie Oberholser of near Butler.

month and twenty-five days. She leaves to mourn their loss, father, mother, three sisters, four brothers and grandparents and a host of friends and relatives.

Tearfully we fold the little hands across the breast,

Tenderly and quietly we lay her to rest,

While we are sad, we should be glad,

That her sufferings are o'er,
And with loved ones gone before.

Some day she will greet us,

With the same sweet smile,

Then we will know it was worth while,

That she should go on before,

To be there to meet us on the other shore.

Devon Bartholomew and a Passenger Fall from Sky in Aeroplane.

With one of its wings crumpled like a dry autumn leaf, the Canadian Curtis plane driven by Devon Bartholomew of Waterloo, fell at Orland Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock carrying with it in its death plunge, its youthful driver and his passenger, Cecil Keyes, 18 years old of Orland. Both were killed instantly, every bone in their bodies being broken by the 1,500 foot fall.

The accident happened before the eyes of nearly all the residents of Orland who were out to see the flights. Mounting to a distance of 3,500 feet, Bartholomew had just completed a dive of some 2,000 feet when to the horror of every one who was watching the flight, one of the wings was seen to crumble as he righted the plane to straighten out his flight, and it dropped, nose down to-

ASHBY

William Ashby, son of Chas. and Mary Stevens Ashby was born in Sussex Co., England, Dec. 12, 1838, and died October 4, 1920, aged 81 years, 9 months and 22 days.

Mr. Ashby when but a boy came to America with his parents who with a family of ten children settled in Wisconsin.

On August 17, 1863 William Ashby was married to Mary Boyer in Williams Co. Ohio; to which union were born 6 children: Eli Ashby, who resides in Pontiac, Mich.; Mary Alice, deceased Dec. 1868; Sarah E. residing in Pontiac; Maggie D. deceased; Chas. Andrew, living in Battle Creek and Lillie who resides near Artie, Ind., Mary B., his wife having passed to her eternal home. He was united in marriage to Julia Lewis in 1882, who preceded him in death last November.

Mr. Ashby was an ardent follower of our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, having united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Haverstock's Corners in 1868 and during the years has been true to the trust. He was a kind hearted man and practiced the Golden Rule—"Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." He loved his church and made many sacrifices for the kingdom's sake. He kept the faith until the last and today he lives with the redeemed.

Dearest father thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel.

But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

The funeral was held at the M. E. Church in Butler conducted by Rev. Burns. He was buried beside his first wife at Hamilton.

TRY TO BREAK WILL

A suit to set aside the will of the late Stephen Dixon has been started in the DeKalb circuit court. The plaintiffs are Lettie Dion McKee and Olive Dixon Showalter. The defendants are Cyrus A. Dixon and James Warren Dixon. Cyrus A. Dixon is executor of the will.

The plaintiffs claim the will to be invalid for the following reasons:

That Stephen Dixon at the time of making the will was of unsound mind.

That the will was unduly executed.

And that undue influence was used upon him.

Mr. Dixon's death took place Feb. 22, 1920, leaving the four children, the plaintiffs and defendants, his only heirs at law. The will was probated March 4. Cyrus Dixon at once qualified as its executor.

The will left all of the personal property and real estate, estimated to be worth $10,000, to the two sons, excepting only $250 for Lettie Dixon McKee and $200 for Olive Dixon Showalter.

The plaintiffs claim that all four children are entitled to an undivided one-fourth each.

In making the bequests to his daughters, Mr. Dixon had provided that these sums were in full payment for all services they rendered their father and mother during their last sickness, and in case they should file any claim against the estate or institute any proceedings to protest the will, they would forfeit all rights to the bequests.

The will added: "I make no further provisions for either of my daughters, for the reason that in my opinion this is a fair distribution of my property to them."

TINSTMAN

Mrs. Sarah Gunsenhouser Tinstman, wife of J. W. Tinstman was born March 27, 1846, two miles east of Butler on the old homestead in Stafford Twp. DeKalb Co. Ind. She departed this life Oct. 14, 1920 at Butler, aged 74 years, 6 months and 17 days.

She was united in marriage to J. W. Tinstman Feb. 10, 1876. To this union were born two sons, Warren C. Tinstman, who preceded her in death six years ago and John H. Tinstman who resides at Pittsburg, Pa. Besides these she leaves to mourn her loss, three brothers, Henry Gunsenhouser of Butler, Geo. Gunsenhouser, Wm. Gunsenhouser of Delton, Mich., and two sisters, Mrs. Zula Border of Butler and Mrs. Nancy Kepler of Hamilton. Also other relatives and many friends mourn her departure.

She was converted at the age of sixteen in the United Brethren Church near Butler and continued with the church during her life. She was a charter member of the Butler U. B. Church and was a faithful untiring worker. Her sickness was of long duration but her faith unshaken to the end. The church has lost one of its faithful members but the church triumphant has gained hereby.

NEWVILLE

Mrs. Sarah Caldwell, better known as Grandma Parks, died Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Friend, where she with her older daughter Sena had rooms. The old lady had a stroke of paralysis Saturday morning from which she did not recover. She was 89 years of age on August 11. She was born in York state and married while in youth to Solomon Parks, her mother's half brother, such marriages not being uncommon in those days in the state of New York. Mr. Parks died many years ago. Again she married George Caldwell who lived only about two years, dying in 1906. She was the mother of seven children, all dying when young excepting the two daughters mentioned above. She with her first husband and several children spent many years traveling in covered wagons from place to place until about 30 years or more ago they settled down near Scipio and later at Newville where the rest of her life was spent.

The funeral services have not yet been arranged but the burial will no doubt be made at Scipio where her first husband and some of her children are buried. As she drew a pension, J. H. Benner was her guardian.

NOV. 5, 1920

FRIDAY

A very old Bible was found after the death of Mrs. Sarah Colwell and previous to her funeral which contained the record of the family births and this record gives her the span of 103 years of this life; she had no idea that she was that old. The funeral was held from the Christian Church Tuesday, October 26, Rev. W. W. Denham officiating. Burial at Scipio.

FROM JUDGE BOWERSOX

Bryan, Ohio, Oct. 18, 1920.
Mr. William Tinstman,
Butler, Ind.

Dear Sir:—

I received your letter stating the very sad news of the death of your wife. I learned that she was not able to attend our last reunion, knew that she was in failing health, but I confess that I was not prepared to hear of her death. I certainly would have attended her funeral yesterday, but my only daughter was seriously sick the night before and I drove from Edon home, did not arrive until three o'clock in the morning, and was compelled to return yesterday. She is well and is a mother of a very nice little girl. I have a precious memory of your wife. She is one of the old memories and I shall treasure it as long as I live. She was one of those warm hearted, kind women that the country produces. How well I remember how she sang alto in my singing classes. She had a remarkable voice, if she could have been trained and her voice not spoiled by training, she would have excelled. She was a good girl, she wrought well, and has gone to the reward of the pious. I hope you will tell all our friends how sad we are and how much we sympathize with all of you and how we regret we could not be present at the funeral.

Truly,
Charles A. Bowersox.

BERL BEERER SUICIDES

Rather Than to Submit to Arrest For Dastardly Crime.

Berl Beerer, a young married man about 30 years of age, fired a bullet through his brain about 11:15 Monday morning, when the sheriff with Marshall Hiner called to arrest him on a serious charge.

Beerer was in bed when they came and informed him of the nature of the charge. Beerer got up, dressed himself and appeared to be getting ready to accompany the sheriff. But he stepped into another room and shot himself through the brain.

Beerer is charged with an attack on a little ten year old girl, early Saturday evening near the railroad on the South Side where she had been sent on an errand.

Later she went to the night marshal, John Horner, and told her story too odious to print. The child was taken to a physician and has been in a serious condition.

The little girl is the daughter of two deaf mutes, and her mother was killed on the railroad a year or so ago.

Beerer comes from a respectable family, but has been a sort of black sheep, and has been in trouble before. It is said that "home brew" whiskey was responsible for the affair.

TROYER

William S. Troyer, for the last six years a resident of Three Rivers, Mich., died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Showalter, Thursday morning, Nov. 11, 1920, at 3:15, after an illness of several years, although he had been confined to his bed but five days. It was only for the last two years that he spent his entire time in Three Rivers; prior to that he would spend the summer with his children in Indiana.

He was born at Winesburg, Holmes Co., Ohio, April 2, 1849, and departed this life Nov. 11, 1920, aged 71 years, 7 months and 9 days.

January 2, 1871, he was married to Cathrine Olinger. To this union were born seven children, five of whom survive.

Mr. Troyer was a farmer and expert auctioneer, which vocations he followed until 1885, when he was elected Sheriff of Holmes County, Ohio and served in that capacity for four years. Later he represented Holmes County in the

Ohio Legislature one term.

In the fall of 1894, he moved to Butler, Ind., again following his profession as auctioneer.

In early life he was catechized and confirmed in the German Reformed Church, and remained a member until coming to Butler, when he united with the English Lutheran Church, under the pastorate of Rev. E. E. Niebel, where he still retained his membership.

He is survived by his wife and five children: Robert and Gilbert Troyer, of Ft. Wayne; Mrs. Lee Norford, of Hometown, Ind.; Mrs. H. B. Swantusch and Mrs. J. C. Showalter, of Three Rivers, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. Lucy Troyer and Mrs. Emma McGinn, both of Kansas, Mrs. Cynthia Feikert, of Portland, Ore.; four half brothers, George, Hirim, Allen and Bert, all of northern Mich., one half sister, Mrs. Mary Schmidt also of Northern Michigan. Five grandchildren survive.

HUNTINGTON

Eliza Ann Huntington was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, in 1841. She passed away Nov. 7, 1920, aged 78 years, 11 months and 28 days.

She moved with her parents, Christian and Catherine Mark, to Williams county, Ohio, in the fall of 1848.

She was married to John Huntington Feb. 13, 1859. For a period of sixty-one years this couple lived in the sweetest companionship and deepest devotion to each other.

They both united with the Church of the Brethren June 10, 1873, to which they have remained faithful.

To them were born five children, Franklin A. of Edon, Ohio; Mahala and Henry E. of Butler, Ind.; Christian Gilbert and Georgia Ethel Fifer of near Butler, Ind. There remain to mourn the loss of our departed sister, her loving companion, the five children, ten grandchildren, ten great grandchildren, five sisters, one brother and a host of other relatives and friends.

A CHILD DIED

As a Result of Injuries Sustained on Playground.

As the result of an injury sustained in a fall on one of the playground slides at the Harrison school building a week ago, Edmund, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Donnelly of Auburn, died in the Sacred Heart hospital at Garrett, Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. He was six years old Saturday.

The unfortunate accident took place either on November 18th or 19th when some boys, urging the lad against his will to go down the slides, carried him to the top and pushed him over. As he left the slide his head struck the ice covered ground. No serious results of the injury developed until the following Sunday when he became partially unconscious and delirious. Thanksgiving day he was taken to Sacred Heart hospital where he passed away Saturday. The physician stated that had he lived his mind would have been affected by the injury.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary E. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Olds, and wife of Jacob H. Smith, was born in DeKalb county, Indiana, October 26, 1846, and departed this life December 5, 1920, aged 74 years, 1 month and 5 days.

She was married to Jacob H. Smith, October 12, 1873. To this union three children were born, two sons, Wm. E., who resides near Monroeville, Ind., and John A. Smith, who lives near Attica, Ind., one daughter, Etta E. Smith, who preceded her mother in death to the spirit world, when a young girl. Her husband died eleven years ago.

Besides these two sons, she leaves to mourn her departure 6 grand children and a host of friends to mourn the loss.

She embraced the religion of Jesus Christ in early childhood and has been a faithful member of the United Brethren church ever since. Her life was devoted to her church, which she loved to attend, only permitting advanced years and failing health to keep her at home when God's home was open for services.

She rests now with those of long acquaintance in the land where death is a stranger and where suffering and sorrows never come.

Funeral services were held at the U. B. church, Butler, Ind., at 10:00 a. m., Tuesday, December 7. Interment at the Hamilton cemetery, Rev. B. E. Chambers, officiating.

OBITUARY RECORD

Margaret Reinhart was born in Salsberg, Kuhesen, Germany, July 18, 1849, and departed this life December 18, 1920, at the age of 71 years and 5 months.

She was the daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Deibner and was married to Augustus Reinhart, May, 1876. This union was blest with three sons, Ira, Almond and Arkie.

She united with the Evangelical Church at about the age of 20; later she joined the United Brethren and her faith remained with the Saviour up to the time of her death.

She came to this country with her parents in 1865 and after a few months located in DeKalb county, where she spent the remainder of her life.

She was a kind mother, helpful neighbor and a great lover of children. The aim of her life was one of kindness and helpfulness to all and always tried to see the bright side.

For some time she had been afflicted, yet regardless of her suffering she was always cheerful and hopeful, but finally complications arising which her enfeebled frame could not withstand, as the inevitable approached she entered with an unwavering faith and triumphant hope into the promised beyond.

She leaves a husband, three sons, seven grand children, a sister, Mrs. John Reinhart and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

She was loved by all who had the privilege of her acquaintance and will be especially missed by those who frequented her home.

She has gone where the faded flowers will blossom, blossom never more to fade; where the shaded sky will brighten, brighten, never more to shade; where the child will know its mother, and the mother will know her child; where dear families will be gathered, that are scattered o'er the wild.

And if through patient toil we reach the land where tired feet with sandals loosed may rest;

then we shall clearly know and understand. I think we shall say, "God knew best."

Let us weep not for her who dieth.

For she sleeps and is at rest,
And the couch whereon she lieth,
Is the great earth's quiet breast.

The explosion that wrecked the Sheffer house in Auburn, broke seventeen window lights in the Otis Gaul home across the street.

JAN. 14, 1921 FRIDAY

James Sheffer is well known over the county having served as Republican County Chairman for two terms and has been engaged in stock buying for some years. He has a host of friends all over the county that sympathize with him in his great disaster. He is a jolly good fellow who has always been active in church, benevolent and temperance work. It has been intimated that he has some enemies among the "wets" that might have had a hand in it.

TWO ARE KILLED*And Two Are Seriously Injured In an Explosion at Auburn.

The most disastrous explosion that has occurred in this vicinity for years, occurred in Auburn last Thursday evening about 6:30 o'clock, when the home of James Sheffer was blown up and his two children, Heber Sheffer, a son 26 years old, and a daughter, Martha, aged 12 years, were instantly killed. Mrs. Sheffer had both legs broken and narrowly escaped death, while Mr. Sheffer is not seriously hurt.

The family were at supper about 6:30 in the evening when a terrific explosion occurred that demolished the building and broke window glass in houses for blocks away.

All Auburn was rocked by the explosion. Coming just at the supper hour people of the city poured out of their homes and rushed madly about, uncertain as to whether it was their own furnace that had exploded or some terrible thing had befallen the city.

The Sheffer home was dark. About hovered a cloud of blue smoke, intermingled with floating particles of plaster and smoke. So terrible was the shock that for fully five minutes no one entered the home. Then began a frantic search for the victims thought to be within the debris of the splintered home.

With only the search lights that citizens brought with them, the search started. Soon the fire department arrived, and under the kitchen, covered with debris, Mr. Sheffer was found, pinned with a large timber so that he could not move. His cries attracted the rescuers and the valiant work of saving lives started.

Mr. Sheffer had dropped through the floor, as had the entire family, and was pinned next to the cellar foundation, with his head and shoulders practically free. In a short time he was released and his direction assisted in recovering the other members of the family.

Mrs. Sheffer was located next, covered with a mass of plaster and nearly suffocated before she was found. A large piece of timber covered her body, the linoleum which was on the kitchen floor covered the sad sight that lay below it. It was a long and nerve racking job that these workers attempted in getting out the injured members of the family. But it was accomplished successfully in the case of Mrs. Sheffer and Mr. Sheffer and search was turned to looking for the son.

Heber Face Downward.

Face downward, in a bent position, the body of Heber was found. He was located just a few feet from his mother.

After finding the body of Heber, frantic efforts were made to reach the daughter. She was found, her mass of golden locks covered with plaster and lying almost in reach of her father. When the rescuers first started work her cries were heard, and many a worker tore his hands in his eagerness to get her. She was breathing when rescued but died after she was taken to the E. E. Wineland home on South Indiana avenue. She had just recovered from diphtheria and was in a very weakened condition.

In the meantime the crowd about the demolished home continued to grow and it was much harder for the rescuers to get the victims out of the ruins but they were finally all taken to the Wine-land home.

JAN. 14, 1921

For half an hour physicians and neighbors worked with Heber attempting to revive life. At times it seemed that he breathed but they were finally forced to give up.

The fight for Martha's life seemed more encouraging. She was alive when she was placed on the couch in the Wineland home, but died shortly after.

Mr. Sheffer, other than an injured right leg and cuts about the shoulders and face, is not seriously injured but suffered severely from the shock. It was his terrible experience to lie there and hear the moans of his family and he called to them during these awful moments, urging little Martha to pray, and calling vainly for Heber.

Mr. Sheffer relates that they were all sitting at the table when the explosion occurred. "I don't know, Oh I don't know what happened. I don't know any more about it than you do," he told those who questioned him about the accident.

One of those first on the scene was E. G. Jones, manager of the Indiana Fuel & Light company, and he shut off the gas in the basement and examined the meter. He and Ralph Calvin, also employed by the company say that the meter was not damaged.

The furnace had only a small fire in it and was blown in from the southeast, showing that the accident could not be attributed to that.

Houses Total Wreck.

The Sheffer home is a wreck. The entire rear wing of the house is torn off and the interior is demolished. Furniture was torn apart, carpets thrown far from the explosion and the whole house is bulged out like a frail paper box blown up by a fire cracker.

The east side of the house was also blown out, the chimney wrecked, and every window, top and bottom, blown out. At the rear of the house the ground is even blown away around the foundation. A fence that was fastened to the south side of the house was torn down for several feet.

Just as soon as possible the house was roped off and Perry Long, chief of the fire department and a corps of men began the search for fragments of a bomb, if such should be present.

"You can say for me," said Mr. Sheffer, "that I don't know of a single person who would be such an enemy of mine as to do such a thing. I haven't a single suspicion but it seemed to me just after the explosion that I smelled smoke."

Heber's neck was broken by the explosion, which buried him entirely. He died on the cot that had been secured to take him to the hospital.

The daughter suffered a broken neck and was terribly mangled about the left side, near the abdomen and hips. Her left arm was broken.

Houses Badly Damaged.

Many houses in the immediate vicinity of the Sheffer home were badly damaged by the explosion. In a number many pieces of furniture were broken and in a few all the dishes were broken.

Jesse Sibert was walking westward on Ninth street at the time of the explosion and saw a flash of flame go skyward at the time of the crash.

Residents near the Sheffer home were terror stricken. Several became hysterical.

FRIDAY

The cause of the explosion is a mystery. The authorities have Nie Sheffer, a brother of James Sheffer in the county jail under suspicion, as he and his brother had some trouble concerning their estate.

It is thought that he put some sort of bomb under his brother's house with the intent of killing the whole family. But convincing evidence against him has not been found.

James Sheffer is well known over the county having served as a Republican County Chairman for two terms and has been engaged in stock buying for some years. He has a host of friends all over the county that sympathize with him in his great disaster. He is a jolly good fellow who has always been active in church, benevolent and temperance work. It has been intimated that he has some enemies among the "wets" that might have had a hand in it. might have had a hand in it.

Dr. Hines, city health officer, thinks the explosion was caused by a large laundry stove in the basement under the kitchen which was used that afternoon and was closed up while full of coal. The theory is that the draft was not good and the basement was filled with coal gas.

Heber Sheffer and Miss Mildred Wiley, or near Butler, were engaged to be married in the spring. Just a week before announcement of the engagement was made.

About 2,000 people attended the double funeral which was held at the M. E. Church in Auburn. The father, J. W. Sheffer, was able to sit in a wheel chair and attend the funeral. Mrs. Sheffer bids fair to recover though the shock was very severe.

JUDGE BOWERSOX DEAD

Common Pleas Judge Charles A. Bowersox died suddenly in the early hours of Tuesday morning of last week in the Hollenden hotel at Cleveland, where he and Mrs. Bowersox had gone Monday afternoon so that the judge could attend a meeting of the directors of an insurance company of which he is a member.

Some time between 3 and 4 o'clock Mrs. Bowersox noticed the labored breathing of her husband and tried to rouse him. He failed to respond and a physician was called but could do nothing to prolong his life.

The body was brought to his home at Bryan Wednesday for funeral services and interment. The services were held Friday morning in the Auditorium of the High School.

Deceased was 74 years of age, a native of Williams county, and one of the most prominent figures in the professional, social and business circles of northwestern Ohio.

The Judge has been in failing health for more than a year, having repeatedly, during that time, been obliged to forsake the bench to care for his health. He was feeling quite well, however, during the past few days and undertook the business trip mentioned without any apprehension of serious effects.

About forty years ago she confessed Christ as her Savior and united with the M. E. Church at Pleasant Chapel. She was a faithful Christian and attended church as long as she was privileged to do so.

She leaves to mourn their loss two sons, three daughters, seven grandchildren, two brothers and many relatives and friends. She was a kind and loving mother, a good neighbor and will be greatly missed.

Farewell, dear mother, sweet thy rest

Weary with years and worn with pain;

Farewell, till in some happy place

We shall behold thy face again.

'Tis ours to miss thee all our years,

And tender memories of thee keep;

Thine in the Lord to rest, for so

He giveth His beloved sleep.

Funeral services were held Friday at 1:30 P. M. at the home of Jacob Coll on E. Main St., Rev. B. E. Chambers officiating. Burial at Eddy's cemetery.

SHELINE

Andrew Leroy Sheline was born in Edon, Ohio January 22, 1899. His spirit returned to God who gave it, in the U. S. Marine Hospital, in San Francisco, California, on January 19, 1921, aged 21 years, 11 months, 27 days.

He was baptized by Brother Braden, at Edon, Ohio, at the age of 14 years. He received most of his schooling in Butler, Ind., the last year of High School being missed, he having joined the U. S. Marine Corps in July, 1917, at Toledo, Ohio.

He served his country on the Battleship Louisiana from November 1918 until April 1919. Then he was transferred to France. Here he joined a fighting unit of the 5th Regiment Marines, the 45th Company, and went to the front the first part of June, where he took part in the engagement of "Belleau Wood" where he was severely gassed. He rejoined his Company, and went through the "St. Mihiel Drive."

During an engagement in the Argonne he was wounded in the right forehead by a German machine gun bullet, which remained there until removed by an operation at the Marine Hospital on January 14, 1921, in San Francisco. A letter written by himself on the 18th to his family was full of cheer and courage and appreciation of the kindness of the nurses and of the skill of the surgeons.

He leaves besides his parents, two sisters and a younger brother, who is a member of the U. S. Marine Corps stationed at San Domingo, Dominican Republic. What greater love hath man than this, that he gives his life for country, home and friends?

JOHNSON.

Sarah Jane Johnson was born in Franklin Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, June 27, 1844. Departed this life Feb. 10, 1921, aged 76 years, 7 months and 23 days.

Almost the entire life of this good woman was spent on the farm where she died. She was united in marriage with Eli Deems of Butler, July 6, 1861. One son, William, was born to them. The father having died about 20 years ago, it has been the privilege of this son to care for and lighten life's burdens of this mother all these years. Mrs. Deems, being of a sympathetic disposition, she was not content to confine her benevolent activities to her immediate offspring but took to raise three children when they were but a few months old, Mrs. Ida Haines and Roy and Guy Johnson. Uncle Will, as he was affectionately called, lived in the home for years.

In her neighborhood she was a present help in trouble. She delighted in doing good as she had opportunity. At an early age she gave her heart to the Christ and united with the United Brethren Church. While not active in church work she has always lived a consistent Christian life; manifesting it chiefly in providing a home for those unfortunate children, who had been deprived of a mother's care and love. During the last weeks of her life she was a great sufferer; but bore it all with patience and Christian fortitude. She died as she had lived in the triumphs of a living faith.

Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord, they rest from their labors and their works do follow them.

Services were conducted at the home by Elder E. P. Couch and beautiful and appropriate songs were sung by Mrs. Stage and Mrs. Swift of Butler, and the body laid to rest in the family cemetery.

YOEY.

Frank Yoey was born in Wilmington Township, DeKalb, County, Indiana, April 1st, 1867. Died at his home in South Butler Feb. 13, 1921, aged 53 years, 10 months and 12 days.

Mr. Yoey was a resident of this county all his life and was well and favorably known. He had the gift of making and holding friends. In July, 1892, he was united in marriage with Barbara E. Showalter. To this union was born a daughter and son, Esther and Donovan, both of Butler. He leaves one grandchild, Elizabeth Kunkle, to whom he was devoted. A great trial came to Mr. Yoey in 1904 when his wife departed this life, leaving him with two small children to care for and train; but he accepted the sacred task and lived to see them grow up to manhood and womanhood. His chief joy was in his home, to give pleasure and comfort to his loved ones.

At an early age he accepted Christ as his Saviour, placing himself under the sovereign care of Him with whom we all have to die. He was a charter member and in good standing of the Modern Woodmen. He leaves to mourn his departure, two children and grandchild, many relatives and a host of friends.

Services were conducted at the Christian Church with Rev. E. P. Couch in charge. The Modern Woodmen attended in a body and took charge at the grave. The body was laid away in the Butler cemetery.

WM. HAMILTON DEAD

William Hamilton, of St. Joe died Wednesday morning, at the home of Rolland Bearss, where he has made his home since the death of his brother James.

We was well known to many Butler people.

His parents, Johnathan and Hannah B. Hamilton, who came to DeKalb county when it was nearly all forest, and settled Orangeville, then a little town between Newville and St. Joe. William Hamilton was born August 4, 1829, and under the direction of his father who in 1838 built the old Hamilton mill, one of the landmarks of this county, became a miller.

To William Hamilton went the distinction of having ground the first bushel of wheat milled in the state of Idaho, for when a young man he went to Idaho and established a mill there. He returned to DeKalb county over 30 years ago and resided near Concord with his brother.

Neither of the Hamilton brothers were married and they lived together near Hamilton's grove, east of St. Joe until the death of the one brother, James, and since that time he has been cared for by Rolland Bearss.

OBITUARY RECORD

McCLINTOCK

Mary M. daughter of Isaac and Margaret Scott, was born April 12, 1847, in their farm home about midway between Crestline and Galion, Ohio, and departed this life at her home in Butler, Ind., March 3, 1921, aged 73 years, 10 months and 21 days.

January 1, 1867, she was united in marriage to Jeremiah McClintock at Crestline, Ohio. In 1868 they moved to the James Wiley farm in Troy Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, and in 1871 they purchased their 80 acre farm where they lived until 1902 when they purchased a home at 421 N. Broadway, in Butler, Indiana where they lived until their death.

Her husband served as teamster in Company K. 9th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, until the close of the Civil War, and was a faithful member of Meade Post No. 44, G. A. R. at Butler, Indiana.

When but a 12 year old girl she united with the Lutheran Church at Galion, Ohio, and in 1882, she with her husband united with the Pleasant Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church 4 miles north east of Butler, where his membership remained until his death but her membership was transferred to the First M. E. Church in Butler in 1882, where she was a faithful member until her death.

To this union was born four children, namely, Elias A. at Auburn, Indiana, Elisabeth M. Praul, living nearly two miles north of Butler, Martha D. Kepler, living on the old farm in Troy Township, and Harriet B. Noragon who died December 28, 1905.

Mary leaves one brother, Alen F. Scott, of Warsaw, Indiana, and three sisters, Sarah Gregor, Rebecca Klous and Elisabeth Snyder, at Nappanee, Indiana. Relatives present from a distance were Alen F. Scott of Warsaw, Indiana, and Mrs. Jennie Offins (Duncan) of Grants Pass, Oregon.

The following are the grandchildren: Clarence E. and Ralph W. McClintock of Auburn, Ind.; Sherley Corson (Praul) of Chicago, Ill.; Bessie Baker (Praul) and Russel Praul of Butler, Ind., and Arthur, Fern, Chester and Roscoe Kepler of Butler, Ind. Also three great grandchildren, namely, Margaret Louise McClintock of Auburn, Ind., Margaret Louise and Virginia Corson of Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. McClintock spent over 60 years of her life in the work of the church and was a firm believer in the hope of the life beyond the grave. Her home and the church were the two great themes of her life. Many times have her prayers been heard in behalf of her relatives, neighbors and friends and on world-wides salvation. A devoted reader of the Bible, Sunday School lessons and religious papers. A faithful wife, a loving mother, a true neighbor and citizen has passed from our midst to the eternity shore to which in a short time we all will be called.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. H. L. Overdeer of Auburn, Indiana, assisted by Rev. C. E. White of Elkhart, Indiana. Henry Krill & Son, Undertakers, of Edgerton, Ohio, for the past fifty years an intimate friend, had charge of the funeral and the remains were placed by the side of her husband in the Butler Cemetery to await the resurrection morn. Rev. Overdeer used for his theme the 15th chapter of I Corinthians.

HANDY

Mary E. Lutz, eldest daughter of Samuel and Eleanor Lutz, was born October 15, 1857, near Butler, Indiana, and just after the hands of the clock had passed the midnight hour, Feb. 21, 1921, her spirit returned to the God who gave it, from her home at Battle Creek, Mich., aged 63 years, 4 months and 6 days.

She was united in marriage to Alva P. Handy, Dec. 22, 1876. To this union was born two children, Coy P. Handy and Mrs. Dora Shuler, both of Battle Creek. She lived in DeKalb County nearly all her life. In the spring of 1916 she with her husband moved to Battle Creek.

During the winter of 1878, she was converted and baptized under the pastorate of W. O. Butler and united with the U. B. Church. While in the springtime of life she learned the better way of life, she was always ready and willing to help in sickness and distress never faltered. Her motive was "I will go where you want me to go, dear Lord, I will do what you want me to do." I know there are no errors in the great eternal plan, and all things work together for the final good of man and I know as my soul speeds onward in its great eternal quest, I shall say as I look back earthward, Whatever is—is best.

By her death the husband is deprived of the wise counsel of a devoted wife, the children and grand children are left without the guiding hand and moulding influence of a loving mother and grandmother.

When the future veil is lifted
We shall see God's guiding care,
And shall spend immortal ages
To proclaim her goodness there.

She leaves to mourn her departure, a husband, Alva P. Handy, son Coy and daughter, Mrs. Dora Shuler and five grandchildren,

HARPER BUGGY FACTORY

Burns Down at Columbia City,
J. B. Kaler Commits Suicide.

The Harper Buggy works at Columbia City was totally destroyed by fire Saturday shortly after noon, entailing a loss of over $140,000 to the buggy works, besides destroying four residence properties, making the total loss exceed $150,000. The buggy works carried insurance to the amount of $70,000.

James B. Kaler, president of the buggy works, became broken hearted over the loss, and at 7 o'clock Sunday morning when Walpole Kaler, secretary of the company, called at the Kaler home to talk over the matter of insurance, the president of the buggy works went to the bathroom in his home and emptied the contents of a two ounce bottle of carbolic acid, causing his death less than two hours afterward.

The cause of the fire was due to an explosion in the painting department, the fumes of drying paint igniting from an overheated furnace.

HOLLINGER

Clara Bell Gunsenhouser was born in Wilmington township, April 24, 1863, died at her home on Depot street in Butler, on the morning of March 13, at 2:30 after an illness of about two years. Her age was 57 years, 10 months and 19 days.

She was married to Daniel Hollinger February 24, 1881, and for 40 years they traveled the way of life together. It was a happy home, a Christian home, a home where love dwelt and into which death came and took away the wife and mother.

In this home were born four children, two boys and two girls; Sadie, Nettie, Ross and Claud, all of whom survive her.

Early in life while yet in her teens she gave her heart to the Lord and united with the Mount Pleasant United Brethren church. After her marriage she, with her husband, united with the Big Run United Brethren church where she remained a faithful member until death.

It can be said of her that she was active in church life, faithful in attendance on divine services, kind in the home and loving in her service to others. Many to whom she ministered in their illness will arise and call her blessed. Like one of old, "She hath done what she could." She bore her illness with great patience and near the end many times she said, "I am ready to go." The night before she died she asked the question of those at her bedside, "Am I going home now?" and before the morning dawned the "Silent Opener of the Gate" came and she entered in to that long home of Christian spirits, there to await the call of the first resurrection. She leaves to mourn her departure a faithful and devoted husband, four children, three grandchildren, four brothers, two sisters and many other relatives and friends.

A wife and mother has gone.

The greatest loss that we can suffer, except that of the loss of our soul is the loss of mother. It was a saying of the Jewish rabbi's that "God could not be everywhere and so he made mothers."

A mother love is wonderful. It awakens hope in infancy; inspires confidence in youth; aids, strengthens and supports you where others do not understand. It is mother that watches for your coming, looks after your going, forgets all your evil deeds and looks into your eyes to see nothing but her own pure soul reflected there. A true mother's love never dies. No one else can take her place and the only love that surpasses her love is the love of Christ. "Most of all other beautiful things in life," says Kate Douglass Wiggin, "come by twos and threes, by dozens and hundreds. Plenty of roses, stars, rainbows, sunsets, brothers, sisters, aunts, and cousins, but only one mother in the wide world."

Funeral services were held in the Butler United Brethren church, Tuesday at 10 A. M. and were in charge of Rev. D. C. Hollinger of Willard, Ohio. Rev. V. E. Chambers, pastor of the local church, assisted in the services at the home and at the church. Internment in the Butler cemetery.

MARCH 18, 1921 FRIDAY

Geo. K. Shaw, of Alma, Mich., died last Tuesday morning and the remains were brought to Butler and buried beside his daughter, Florence, in the Butler cemetery. Mrs. Shaw was formerly Miss Hattie Hopkins, daughter of Ezra Hopkins. Mr. Shaw was an assistant to Lake Shore agent Gilbert in Butler about 30 years ago.

MARY ELIZABETH ARFORD*The Remarkable Life of A Butler Girl is Closed.

Mary Elizabeth Arford was born in the log house on the farm of her parents, Robert and Margaret Arford, near Butler, Indiana, July 7, 1853, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fostorie Mumma, at Lewisburg, Ohio, on March 29, 1921. She was the eldest of seven children. One brother, Charles S. Arford, of Butler, Indiana, and one sister, Mrs. Belle Tintsman, of Hamilton, Indiana, survive her. When twelve years of age, she joined the United Brethren church at Big Run, Saint Joseph conference. At fourteen entered high school at Butler, Indiana, after one year in high school, she taught the home school for a year. For seven years she alternately studied in the high school, she taught the home school for a year. For seven years she alternately studied in the high school and taught in the public school, earning her way while preparing to enter college. In 1873, she attended Roanoke academy, then taught for two years in the Roanoke public schools before entering Otterbein college in the fall of 1875. While a student here, she also served two years as an assistant teacher in the college. She graduated in 1878, and received the degree of master of arts from Otterbein.

On June 12, 1879, she married Rev. G. P. Macklin, whom she had met while attending college. Three daughters were born, Fostoria, Frances, and Margaret, Fostoria alone remaining.

Mrs. Macklin's duties as a pastor's wife were linked with teaching. Her husband's first charge was at Findlay, Ohio. As there was no parsonage at Findlay, they lived at Fostoria, where she taught mathematics for three years in Fostoria academy. After five years of labor in Sandusky conference, they moved to Westfield, Illinois, where she taught English and mathematics in Westfield college, her husband teaching in the same institution. The next year, they moved to Avalon, Missouri, where she taught English and natural science in Avalon college, of which her husband was president. After two years, they returned to Ohio, and the duties of a pastor's wife again were assumed, first at Greenville, then Lewisburg, Germantown, and Dayton. During these years, she was very active in the W. C. T. U. work. Later, she was the pastor's wife at Union City.

Mrs. Macklin always was interested in mission work. She became a member of the W. M. A. the first year of its organization, while still a girl at college. The first issue of the Woman's Evangel contains two articles written by her. At Fostoria, in 1879, she organized the first Gleaners' band, a missionary organization for children. She was the president of the Sandusky branch of the W. M. A. for five years, and for a number of years president of the Miami branch. She became a trustee of the association in 1903, and held that position until 1910, when the family removed to Florida. She served as acting editor of the Woman's Evangel for one year.

The Sunday school also came in for its full share of her Christian service. She began her career as a Sunday-school teacher when fifteen years of age, at Big Run church, near her home. She taught or superintended a Sunday school from that time on, with the exception of one year, until the spring of 1918, when a fiftieth anniversary celebration of the event was held at Loch Wylda chapel, in Florida. During the past she children, Margaret-Louise and Virginia Corson, of Chicago, Ill., besides a host of other relatives and friends.

At an early age she became a Christian, exemplifying true Christianity in her daily life. For a number of years, through a promise made to the mother of James McCann, at the time of her death, Mrs. Whitney has made a home for James, giving him a mother's care. Nothing was left undone by this mother that was possible for her to do for humanity. Always doing deeds of loving kindness to all she was loved by all who knew her.

During her short illness of only twelve days of Bronche-pneumonia, she was given every care that loving hands could possibly administer to her.

The body was accompanied to this city by James McCann.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of her son G. T. Praul, April 8, 1921, by Rev. Simons.

KILLS FOSTER MOTHER

And Attempts to Kill His Foster Father

Judge Dan M. Link of Auburn, who opened the April term of the Steuben circuit court at Angola Monday will probably have the responsibility of passing sentence on Richard Tasker, a 16-year-old Steuben county lad who shot and killed his foster mother Mrs. John Tasker at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The murder was committed at the Tasker farm home, four miles east of Angola. In addition to shooting his foster mother, Tasker made an effort to kill his foster father but was unsuccessful. After firing the shots at the couple he turned the gun on himself, inflicting minor wounds from which it is expected that he will recover.

According to all available information, young Tasker secreted himself under the bed in the room of his foster parents during their absence in Angola, where they had gone on a shopping trip. While Mr. Tasker was in the barn putting up the horse, he believed that the boy fired his target gun at Mrs. Tasker, the shot entering her body under the left arm, passing through her body, and emerging on the right side, piercing the throat. Mrs. Tasker's body was found lying across the bed. She died instantly.

Hearing the shot, Mr. Tasker rushed into the house but was attacked by the boy before he could enter his wife's room. The shot fired at him passed through his coat, inflicting no injuries.

The boy, according to Mr. Tasker then went upstairs where he attempted to take his own life, placing a shot gun at his head and pulling the trigger. The shot spread over the side of his head and face but physicians who attended him at the home and later at the jail, where he is now confined say that his wounds are of a minor nature and that he will recover.

The prisoner admitted to Sheriff Frank Adams of Steuben county that the crime was premeditated, the sheriff quoting him as saying that he had decided to kill Mr. and Mrs. Tasker because they had refused to give him the desired amount of spending money.

APRIL 22, 1921 FRIDAY

A Steuben County boy shot and killed his foster mother and tried to kill his foster father just because he did not receive as much spending money as he wanted. The boy was taken when a baby because his mother died. He planned the job to make it appear that the father had shot the mother and then committed suicide. We wonder where children get such ideas and plans. There is nothing that does so much in this line as the picture shows.

years old he with his twin brother was taken to the home of his grand parents where he lived until he became a young man. At the age of 18 years he came to DeKalb county, Indiana, where he has lived ever since.

He was united in marriage to Nora Nevins May 1, 1883. No children were born to this union but he became foster parent to Hoyt Cook when he was three years of age.

He leaves to mourn his loss the beloved wife, the foster son Hoyt Cook and family, one brother Joseph S. Cook of Lyons, Kansas, other relatives and many friends. One brother preceeded him in death at the age of 18 years.

He was a faithful member of the Knights of Pythias who were very largely represented here.

He was an industrious man, esteemed citizen, good husband, father and neighbor, always mindful of the needy. One has said "He always cultivated the spirit of kindness."

His life has been spent, the days of earthly pilgrimage past, the sun has gone down and we leave him with the good creator of us all, that doeth all things well.

When the end came he expressed a willingness to go, and requested that his favorite song "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood," be sung at his funeral.

Funeral services were held at the U. B. Church at Butler, Ind., Wednesday, April 27, at 2:00 p. m. The funeral was largely attended. Interment at the Hamilton Cemetery. Rev. B. E. Chambers officiated.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The text also mentions the need for regular audits and the role of independent auditors in ensuring the reliability of the data.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the challenges faced by organizations in implementing effective internal controls. It highlights the complexity of modern business environments and the need for a robust framework of controls to manage risks. The text suggests that organizations should adopt a risk-based approach to internal control design and implementation, focusing on the most significant risks to the organization's objectives.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of transparency and accountability in financial reporting. It notes that stakeholders, including investors, creditors, and the public, rely on the information provided in financial statements to make informed decisions. The text stresses the need for organizations to provide clear, concise, and reliable information, and to be held accountable for the accuracy of their reports.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the role of technology in improving financial reporting and internal control systems. It mentions that advances in information technology have enabled organizations to automate many of their financial processes, reducing the risk of human error and increasing the efficiency of their operations. However, the text also notes that the use of technology must be accompanied by appropriate safeguards to protect the security and confidentiality of the data.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of ongoing monitoring and evaluation of internal control systems. It states that internal controls are not static; they must be regularly reviewed and updated to reflect changes in the organization's business environment and risk profile. The text suggests that organizations should establish a formal process for monitoring and evaluating their internal controls, and should report the results of their assessments to the relevant stakeholders.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for employees involved in financial reporting and internal control systems. It notes that well-trained employees are essential for the effective implementation of internal controls and for the production of accurate financial reports. The text suggests that organizations should invest in training and education programs for their employees, focusing on the specific requirements of their internal control systems and the latest developments in financial reporting standards.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of communication and coordination between different departments and functions within an organization. It notes that effective internal control systems require a high level of communication and coordination between all levels of the organization. The text suggests that organizations should establish clear lines of communication and responsibility, and should ensure that all employees are aware of their roles and responsibilities in the internal control system.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of documentation of internal control systems. It notes that proper documentation is essential for the effective implementation and monitoring of internal controls. The text suggests that organizations should develop a comprehensive set of documents that describe the design and implementation of their internal control systems, and should ensure that these documents are regularly updated and accessible to all relevant personnel.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of external oversight and regulation in the financial reporting and internal control systems. It notes that external oversight and regulation are essential for ensuring the integrity and reliability of the financial system. The text suggests that organizations should cooperate with regulatory authorities and should ensure that their internal control systems comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of continuous improvement in internal control systems. It notes that internal control systems should be subject to ongoing review and improvement to ensure that they remain effective and relevant. The text suggests that organizations should establish a process for identifying and addressing weaknesses in their internal control systems, and should strive to achieve continuous improvement in their internal control practices.

Estate Valued at $13,500

The will of the late Warren J. Boyer, who dropped dead in the haymow on his farm in Franklin township April 18, has been probated in the office of County Clerk C. E. McClintock.

Mr. Boyer directed that his debts should be paid from the proceeds of his personal estate. From the personal estate, $500, her statutory allowance, is to be paid to the widow, Ida B. Boyer. Then the widow is to receive half of the residue of the personal estate.

To the children, Gladys A. Aldrich, Rheba E. Dangler, and Lisle O. Boyer, is bequeathed the remainder of the personal estate, in equal shares.

The widow is also left one-third of the real estate and the remainder is for her use so long as she remains his widow. Subject to this provision, the two-thirds of the real estate is left to the children.

The widow is named in the will as executrix and she is empowered to manage the personal property as she sees fit.

The will was signed February 15, 1915, with J. D. Brinkerhoff and H. W. Mountz as witnesses.

The widow qualified as executrix by furnishing $3,000 bond, with Martin Smurr and Adam D. Boyer as security.

The amount of the real estate is estimated at $12,000 and the personal property at $1,500.

Life Interest for Widow

Frank Shoup has been appointed by County Clerk C. E. McClintock executor of the will of his father, the late Peter Shoup, of Butler.

OBITUARY RECORD

WEITZ

Daniel W. Weitz was born in Kent, Portage County, Ohio, June 7, 1840. He was the son of Adam and Elizabeth (Yeager) Weitz being the eldest of a family of eleven children, eight of whom survive him, namely Mrs. Harriet Casabere and Mrs. Lucina Stoops of Edgerton, Mrs. Lavina White and Dr. Weitz of Montpelier, Ohio, Wesley and Thomas of Oklahoma, George of California and Mrs. Frances Grisier of West Unity.

When a child of six he came with his parents to Williams Co., Ohio, and settled in St. Joseph township, on a farm, through which the Bellefountain road afterward passed. His father was instrumental in securing the first free school in that district which he attended, later going to Williams Center Academy during the summer months and teaching in Noble County, Indiana near Wolcottville until the fall of 1861 when he enlisted with the 3rd Ohio Cavalry, Company H. serving until August 1865 when he was mustered out with the rank of Sergeant. He then took a short business course at the Bryant and Stratton Business College in Toledo but again resumed teaching in DeKalb and Williams counties and was at one time connected with the Newville Academy. In connection with his teaching he was locally famous for his ability to awaken interest in his schools by organizing Lyceum, debating clubs and school exhibitions.

In politics he has always been an active Republican from the time the party was formed casting his first presidential vote for Lincoln in 1864 under a pine tree down in Georgia while in war service. He served as justice of the peace for nearly 30 years.

On the 11th day of October 1868 he married Mrs. Emiline Bowersox Casebere and they moved to the farm in Troy Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, the following spring where he has since resided with the exception of six years (1879-1885) in Edgerton, O. Mrs. Weitz died September 9, 1902. Of their five children, Nellie, Daniel Hudson, Dulcibel, Floy and Charles Holland, two, i. e., Hudson and Dulcibel died in infancy. Besides his children he leaves three grandchildren, Mildred Wiley, Sidney and Marjorie Weitz, also the children of a stepson, Edwin G. Casebere (deceased) Cordes, Nellie and Ethel of Portland, Oregon and a step daughter, Mrs. Etta Pommert and her children, Mrs. Jerome Freistroffer, Mrs. E. H. Redding and son Robert, Frances B. Pommert and son Paul, all of Fort Wayne.

In infancy, he was baptized in the Methodist Church. He was a member of the Wittenberg Lutheran Brotherhood, also a member of Forest Lodge F. & A. M. and Meade Post G. A. R. He was the first president of First National Bank of Butler. He was a loyal and public-spirited citizen, a friend to everyone, a lover of his home and home-comforts, a great lover of children, and enjoyed good reading matter and was well-informed on historical and current topics to the very end.

Weitz continued

He loved to mingle with people and as one of his friends remarked, "He was a great man to give a fellow a boost."

But his life's journey ended peacefully May 20, 1921.

"Good night, old friend; kind friends, good night.

Lights out! The shadows fall,
Across the silent camping ground
Rings out the bugle call;
In mournful cadence on the breeze,

Soft, in the waning light,
'Tis echoed through the whispering trees

Lights out! Good night!

The funeral services were held on the lawn under the beautiful trees he loved so well. The Rev. Estell of LaGrange delivered the address and James Wiley read a favorite poem. Dean Sturgis, accompanied by Miss Waterman, sang three beautiful hymns that have long been family favorites. The G. A. R. gave their impressive ritual service and as the casket was borne into the Mausoleum the bugler sounded "taps" and a squad of the World War Veterans fired the farewell shot on the afternoon of May 23, 1921.

OBITUARY RECORD

Wesley H. Husselman, son of Henry and Margarette Ellen Husselman, was born near Waterloo, March 28, 1865, and departed this life June 1, 1921, at his residence in Butler, Ind. After a hard struggle for life he was forced to lay down the burden and passed into the Great Beyond. At the age of 56 years, 2 months and 3 days; having a complication of diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. Husselman spent three winters in Florida, hoping to prolong his days, though every thing was done for his recovery all efforts failed.

Amidst the activities of farm life when a boy he began the study of music and after following the profession as a teacher, entered the business as a salesman of musical instruments. In this line of work he was very successful, and received much enjoyment, having been engaged in this work for over thirty-two years. He established a business with his brother Charles, which is widely known as the Husselman Brothers. It may be truly said he was a man of good character, conscientious, honest, courteous, kind and a good neighbor, making friends easily by his genial disposition. His aims were always for the right.

He was united in marriage to Mrs. Minnie E. Davis, May 7, 1893. He leaves to mourn, his wife and her three children, Mrs. John Coats of Toledo, Ohio, J. Robin Davis, of Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. Harry Miller of Butler, Ind. Two brothers, James A. Husselman, Waterloo, Ind., Charles A. Husselman, Butler, Ind., and one sister, Mrs. Frank S. Campbell of Auburn, Ind.; one nephew, Ernest A. Husselman, Butler, Ind.; one uncle; one aunt, and many other relatives and a wide circle of friends. His father and mother preceded him in death several years ago. One brother preceded him in infancy.

The better qualities of a Christian man were manifested in his dealings and the expression so frequently heard from loyal friends proves the genuineness of the spirit as observed by the community in which he lived, he will be more keenly missed by those who have travelled life's journey with him.

He was converted in the Evangelical church at Markle, Ind., in the winter of 1893. He joined the church and was a faithful member until he moved to Butler, Ind. When he moved to Butler he, with the family, united with the United Brethren church where he retained his membership until death. To this church he was faithful both in life and doctrine. One of the greatest enjoyments of his life was to attend Divine worship. If he missed any service we always felt he was justified, knowing his disposition of life and devotion to the church. He lived a good consistent Christian life and was prepared when the summons came. As a church we realize we have lost one of our best and most helpful members. But while we suffer loss here, heaven has been made happier, for our advent. We can but say farewell until tomorrow.

Funeral services at U. B. Church, Butler, Saturday, June 4. Interment at Waterloo Cemetery. Both churches officiating.

property is to go to her children, Bessie Miller, J. Robin Davis and Nellie Coats, in equal shares.

The widow is left all the personal property, including the automobile and household goods, but excepting money and securities.

To Harry Miller, husband of his stepdaughter, Mr. Husselman bequeathed all his moneys and securities, to be held in trust by him for care and support of Mrs. Husselman. He is to make such investments as he sees fit and is to pay the widow such sums as she may desire for her support.

Within a year after Mrs. Husselman's death, the trustee is to pay to Mr. Husselman's nephew, Ernest A. Husselman, $200. The remainder to be divided among the three stepchildren.

The trustee is to erect a suitable monument over the graves of Mr. Husselman and his wife.

The will was executed October 7, 1918, with Sherman Simon and W. P. Endicott as witnesses.

FUNERAL SERVICE*VERY IMPRESSIVE

Beautiful Songs and Banks of Flowers Mark Ceremony
Over Mrs. Nimmons.

Beautiful and impressive were the funeral services held over remains of the late Mrs. R. G. Nimmons, wife of Dr. Nimmons, the well known dentist of Kamloops, who died Tuesday at the Royal Inland Hospital. Services were held at the home of Dr. Nimmons, the Rev. H. R. McGill, Presbyterian church, presiding, assisted by Captain the Rev. C. Reed of the Church of England.

The rendering of "Absent" by Messrs. W. Docker and L. Price, accompanied by Mr. Harry Campbell on the piano was very impressive. The duet also rendered "The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

Many floral wreaths and offerings were received, many coming from Vancouver, sent by friends of the deceased and her husband. Others were unable to procure flowers in Kamloops, due to a shortage, an incident keenly regretted by them.

After the services the body was conveyed to the Pleasant Street cemetery, where interment took place.

o'er,

Our loved ones, we hope soon to meet them,

On Eden's fair, beautiful shore;
The glorious thought, how consoling,

To know that the time is so nigh,
When Jesus, the world, shall, controlling,

Permit us to join them on high.

We shall greet them at home, we shall greet them,

Though now they are hid from our sight,

We think of the time we shall meet them;

And it oft fills our hearts with delight;

We have laid them away in deep sadness,

Yet not without hope in our breast,

For again they will join us with gladness,

And enter the heavenly rest.

We shall greet them at home, we shall greet them,

Where nothing can ever divide,

Where sickness, or death, can not harm them,

Nor tear them again from our side;

There we'll range beside life's cooling river,

'Neath the tree of life's shade we shall roam,

With the glory of God shining ever,

We'll greet them, we'll greet them at home.

Mrs. Mary Shoub

On Thursday, July 28, at her home in South Butler, occurred the death of one among the oldest residents of this community. Mrs. Mary Strole Shoub. Born near Manchester, Summit Co., Ohio, September 20, 1833, she was within two months of her 88th birthday.

Coming to this section of the state when but a girl she lived in or near Butler the greater part of her life. She and her husband were well-known among the early settlers of this county.

Mary Strole was married to John Shoub April 13, 1851. To this union three children were born, Thomas H. Mrs. Sarah E. and Alice Maxwell. The son alone survives, the daughters preceeding her in death.

Sister Shoub was one of the charter members of the Butler Christian Church, and the last but one to go, Mrs. Carrie Fanning the only one remaining.

Mrs. Shoub always took an active part, and maintained to the end an abiding interest in all the activities of the church. During the closing years of her life, when age made it impossible to be present in person, she joined the Home Department of the S. S. and kept herself in vital touch with the progress of the work.

It is worthy of note that while she was the oldest of a large family, she was the last but one to go; Lee Strole surviving her.

For some time, owing to extreme age and disease, Mrs. Shoub has been unable to care for herself. During this period she has been in the care of her grandson Roy Maxwell and family, who have faithfully looked after and provided for her every need.

She is survived by one son, four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and one brother, besides many relatives and friends.

AUG. 12, 1921 FRIDAY

Orlando Kimmel aged about seventy years, whose home was about two miles east of town, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn Thursday of last week. The only reason his people can give for his doing such a thing is that he was troubled with sore eyes and he was afraid he would go blind.

OBITUARY RECORD

Burdette Guy Creager, little son of Clyde and Rosa Creager, was born August 22, 1915, and departed this life August 2, 1921, aged 5 years, 11 months, and 10 days. He leaves to mourn their loss a father, mother, three brothers, three sisters, grandparents, and a host of relatives and friends. "As a flower plucked to bloom in the garden above", he was a sweet loving little child and will be greatly missed in the home.

This much we know:

Though life has brought us care,
The pain of sorrow and its bitter loss.

Has laid upon our shoulders many a cross,

And many a heavy burden hard to bear,

Though we have trudged its rugged thoroughfare,

In search of gold and found but worthless dross,

And seen the winds our hopes in ruin toss,

In all its splendor it has let us share.

We owe unto the gift which we call life,

All that has made our round of years worth while,

The rich devotion of a loving child.

The home made radiant by his gentle smile,

The children's laughter—

And to make amends,

For all its care and pain—

The joy of them.

GEORGE DANNELLS DEAD

George Dannells, one of the well-known farmers of Wilmington Twp., died last Friday following an operation for cancer of the stomach at St. Joseph Hospital, Ft. Wayne. The funeral was held at his late home on Monday at 10 o'clock. Interment at Waterloo.

Mr. Dannells lived in DeKalb county his entire life and with the exception of a number of years' residence in Butler, lived on a farm between Waterloo and Butler on the Toledo and Chicago pike.

The deceased was born in March, 1861, and was therefore 60 years of age.

George Wesley Dannells was born in DeKalb County, Indiana, March 15, 1861, and departed this life, August 19, 1921, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ft. Wayne, Indiana, aged 60 years, 5 months, and 4 days.

He was married September 4, 1886, to Miss Clara Jennings, and is survived by his wife; three sons, Marion L., Archibald L., and Richard A.; two daughters, Gladys H., (Mrs. Leon Barnhart) and Helen V. Two daughters, Nellie May and Wilma Lucille having preceded him in death, also one grandson, Lynn Dannells.

He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Martha Shafer, of Elkhart, Ind., and two brothers, Willis A., of Auburn, Indiana, and William E., of Clay City, Ill. (One brother, Frank, and one half brother, Wilson Purdy, preceded him in death), and 6 grandchildren.

Those who survive, with a large number of friends, mourn his demise.

JOHN KEPLER

Committed Suicide Last Friday, Near Hamilton.

The report of Coroner W. E. Byers of his inquest into the death of the late John Kepler, who committed suicide at his home near Hamilton Friday, has been filed in the office of County Clerk C. E. McClintock.

Mrs. Charles Mumaw, of Butler, a daughter of Mr. Kepler, was at the home of her parents at the time helping to care for them. Both of them were very old, Mr. Kepler being eighty-two. Mrs. Mumaw testified that her father was very despondent at times. He had poor eyesight. He was also hard of hearing and had considerable trouble with his heart. The family watched him closely.

Mrs. Mumaw stated that her father seemed as cheerful as usual Friday. He left the house about 1 o'clock to go out of doors. He was gone about twenty minutes when Mrs. Mumaw went to look for him. She went to several of the small buildings and then walked to the barn. She found him there, hanging to the ceiling, the tips of his toes touching the barn floor. She tried to call to him and she also tried to untie the rope. Then she ran to the closest neighbor, Mr. Durham, to get help. The men cut the rope and carried the lifeless body to the

Mrs. Mumaw said she did not know why her father took such a rash step, as he was treated well. He worried about his wife, as her health was failing very fast, and he was discontented with his own health. Mrs. Mumaw believes he planned to kill himself, as he shaved himself carefully that morning.

The coroner found that Mr. Kepler tied the rope to a rafter, then tied it about his neck and jumped off a two-foot stone ledge. Mr. Kepler's neck was not broken but he strangled to death.

DEDICATED TO THE SACRED

MEMORY OF CHAS. H. BRUCE

By G. L. Planson.

Bruce, my old friend Bruce is gone,
Has crossed the shining sands of time,
To joys eternal bliss divine,
To fairer, sweeter clime.

Who knew him better in this life,
Of all his friends so well as I,
Who best can drop a reverent tear,
And at his passing, sigh.

I knew him well, so very well,
In years that others knew him naught,
I trained as child beneath his care,
And wisdom from him sought.

And in his life how few there are,
Who knew his hidden thought as I,
His pleasant ways, his kindly words,
They sprang from vision high.

My pen refuses to transcribe
In the language I would choose,
To tell his traits, and gentle mien,
And nothing of its glory lose.

His spirit passed from vale of tears,
The flickering flame of life,
Has fled into the great unknown
Where nevermore is strife.

The mysteries of that sublime land
To him now open wide
Whereas in life its mystic scenes
But faintly were espied.

Through symbols representing truth,
For comprehension of the plan,
By which all flesh has been redeemed
And spoken of for man.

And now by shining golden strand,
In robe of purest white,
He stands in blessed beatitude,
In radiance of light,

For light is life, and life is light,
To those who follow all the way,
And stand at last upon the brink,
Of changing scenes of day.

And, as I pass his sepulchre,
I will review the course he ran,
Within my heart, if not with lip,
I'll say here lies a man,

Who, on his journey through this world,
With words of counsel and of cheer,
To music of fraternal love,
Made happier those still here.

And as the western sky obscures
The setting of life's sun,
May he rest secure in hallowed peace,
For his life's work is done.

ALFRED KEPLER DIES

Well-known Citizen of Franklin Township and DeKalb County.

Alfred Kepler, a life-long resident of DeKalb county, died at his late home in Waterloo at about 12:00 o'clock last Saturday noon, October 29th after an illness of several months. Although he did not give up until about six weeks ago at which time he took his bed. Mr. Kepler consulted with doctors early in the year and there seemed to be no help for him. As time went his case seemed more aggravated and it was diagnosed as an ulcer of the stomach. His last illness dated back about two months ago, and from that time on he has gradually failed, and all the skill and loving hands could do was of no avail. At the time of his death he was 81 years, 11 months and 21 days of age. With the exception of less than four years that he spent at various times in western states, he lived in DeKalb county, and for the past sixteen years had been a resident of Waterloo.

Mr. Kepler was a man who was devoted to his home and family, and was an honorable citizen, clinging very close to the highest ideals in life, lived a life of usefulness and his character was unimpeachable. He was kind as a neighbor, loving as a husband and father, and was steadfast in all that he thought was right and honorable.

Mr. Kepler was a native of Franklin township, this county, and was born Nov. 8, 1839. He was a son of Daniel Kepler, who was a native of Pennsylvania, and moved when a child with his parents to Stark county, Ohio, and in the fall of 1837 to DeKalb county, Ind., where he settled on Section 27, in Franklin township, and later moving to Smithfield township.

He was united in marriage to Lovina Meese, daughter of Isaac Meese, Aug. 18, 1860. Two children were born to this union, both dying later. Mr. Kepler died July 24, 1863. Following her death in January 1864 Mr. Kepler went to Montana where he spent nearly two years, working in mines. In December, 1865 he returned to DeKalb county, Ind., and again began to farm and engage in stock raising.

On Sept. 9, 1867, he was married to Mary M. Headley, daughter of Samuel Headley, a pioneer of DeKalb county. To this union was born five daughters. Maude M. wife of O. H. Blossom, of Indianapolis. Minnie M., wife of George M. Henderson, of New York City. Lola L., wife of S. T. Jackson, of Gary, Ind. Cora C., wife of Solomon Fisher, of Waterloo, and Bertha B., wife of Lester Haverstock, of Butler.

The funeral was held from the U. B. church on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. W. A. Settle officiating and he was assisted by Rev. M. R. Pierce. The service was largely attended.

OBITUARY

Sarah, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Dunn was born near Strausburg, Tusarowas County, Ohio, August 7, 1840—died at her home in Butler, Indiana November 4, 1921, aged 81 years 2 months and 27 days.

At the age of 11 years she came with her parents to Indiana, locating four and one-half miles north-east of Butler in Franklin Township.

At that time this part of the Country was but little more than a wilderness. The subject of this sketch was united in marriage with Gabriel Miller December 9, 1866, soon after he returned home from the Civil War.

Her entire life has been spent in Butler and vicinity with the exception of two years she with her husband and son, George W. Geddes resided in Springfield, Noble County, Indiana. In the early part of her married life she united with the Christian Church and when extreme age and failing health made her attendance impossible she with her husband joined the Home Department of the Sunday School. She was also an interested member of the Women's Relief Corps.

Mrs. Miller enjoyed the fellowship in all these associations.

She was a kind and generous hearted woman abounding in the spirit characteristic of the early days when hospitality was the crowning virtue. In the days of health and strength nothing delighted her more than to entertain her many friends. In these days she was at her best in her own home.

For fifty-five years the deceased and her aged companion walked together the highway of life. They are few who are thus blessed. At the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of this couple the Woman's Relief Corps together with the G. A. R. gave a banquet in honor of this event that revived sacred memories of olden days and reminded them of the many friends ready and willing to smooth for them life's rugged pathway.

AN AGED CITIZEN OF THIS COUNTY DIES

Samuel Wolfe, son of Daniel and May Wolfe, was born January 1, 1857 in Franklin Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, and departed this life at his home in Butler, December 9, 1921, aged 64 years, 11 months, and 9 days.

He was united in marriage to Harriett Crowl, May 30, 1883.

To this union was born 6 children, 5 daughters and 1 son. An infant daughter and one grandson precede him to the better world. He leaves to mourn his departure his wife and companion, four daughters, and one son, Mrs. Edna King of Butler, Mrs. Mabel Spake, on the home farm near Waterloo, Mrs. Hazel Kauffman of Hamilton, Miss Alta and Charles at home, two grandchildren, three sisters and two brothers and a host of relatives and friends.

He was the kindest of husbands, the most loving and affectionate of fathers and obliging neighbor. He united with the U. B. church in 1893 and later with the Christian church, near his farm home which faith he held to the last. He has been a great sufferer for the last year, but bore his suffering with patience, never complaining.

"A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled."

The funeral services were held in the Christian church at Hamilton on Monday December 12, Rev. A. F. McCloe officiating. Interment in Hamilton cemetery.

SELTENRIGHT

Fred A. Seltenright, son of Alexander and Catherine Seltenright, was born at Butler, Ind., October 4, 1886 and departed this life near Butler, Tuesday night, December 13, 1921, at the age of 35 years, two months and nine days.

He was married to Miss Cara Elizabeth Riser, January 1, 1909. To this union two children were born, Allen Frederick and Miss Hellen Evelene Seltenright. Besides the companion and children, he leaves to mourn their loss, his mother, Mrs. Seltenright, Harry Seltenright of New Mexico, Frank Seltenright of Butler, Ind., Elba Seltenright of Butler and Hazel Carpenter of St. Joe, Ind., also two half brothers, Clyde Seltenright of San Francisco, Cal., Wm. Seltenright of Australia and one half sister, Miss Nora Selfenright of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

He was industrious in his life, home loving, and kind to all, a good and faithful companion, neighbor and friend.

His sickness was of short duration but exceedingly severe, his death a shock and loss to us all. All was done that could possibly be done to aid him in regaining health but of no avail.

Funeral services were held Dec. 15, at the U. B. Church at Butler. Interment in the Butler cemetery, Rev. B. F. Chambers officiating.

Dec 30, 1921 FRIDAY

Mrs. Abigail L. Varner died December 20, 1921, aged 86 years, 5 months and 24 days.

She passed away after an illness of five weeks. She was born at Moores, N. Y., June 26, 1835, and was the eldest daughter of Dennis and Nancy Stowe. She moved with her parents to Walkerton, Indiana, where she was united in marriage to William Dare in 1850. To this union was born eight children, four of whom are still living. Mr. Dare died November 8, 1868. She was again united in marriage to Mr. William Keek in 1870. To this couple were born three children. Mr. Keek died November 25, 1881. She was again united in marriage to Mr. Reuben Varner in 1882. Mr. Varner died in 1905. Since his death she made her home with one of her daughters, Mrs. Swihart until the time of her departure.

Mrs. Varner was happily converted to Christ when a young girl and has held steadfast to the faith ever since. During the last years she got much comfort from her Lord. Her chief delight was to testify how the Lord had saved her and often heard and answered her prayers. As she faced the end of this life she had the peaceful evidence in her own soul that she was prepared to meet her Lord and Savior whom she so much loved.

She leaves to mourn her departure seven children, 38 grandchildren, 18 great grand children, 5 great great grandchildren, and many other relatives and friends.

FRIDAY

Paul John Skelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Skelton was born near Butler, Ind., January 22, 1917, departed this life December 21, 1921, aged 4 years, 10 months and 29 days.

Last Wednesday morning the community was shocked when word was received that Paul had passed away. His previous health had been good and health was written in his face. However, Monday evening he complained of having a headache, but it seemed only a small matter as it soon passed away and Tuesday all day and late in the afternoon he played as usual, in fact his case did not excite alarm until Wednesday morning about 3:30 when a physician was called and medical aid administered, but to no avail and at 5 o'clock he departed to be with the angels.

Paul was baptized two years ago and since he has been old enough to appreciate the Sunday School he has been enthusiastic about his work in the beginners department.

He was taught at home and at church to believe in and honor Jesus Christ and when asked who was the best person on earth, he would say "Jesus." He was to have had an active part in the Christmas program but he is now in a land where the Christmas spirit rules eternally.

He leaves a mother, a father, a brother, four grandparents and many relatives with a host of friends to mourn his demise.

Dec. 30, 1921 FRIDAY

OBITUARY OF MRS JOHN F. CASEBERE

Harriet Amelia Weitz eldest daughter of Adam and Elizabeth (Yeager) Weitz was born in Maumee City, Ohio, on the third day of June, 1844 and on the fourth day of January, 1922, she departed this life, in Edgerton, Ohio, at the age of seventy seven years seven months and one day.

She was the third child in a family of eleven children, seven boys and four girls, of whom four brothers and three sisters still survive.

In May 1845, her parents with their family of three small children moved from Maumee City to Williams county and settled in the forest of St. Joseph Township in a piece of land which they transformed into the Weitz farm four and one-half miles northwest of what subsequently became the village of Edgerton. This region at the time was a vast wilderness, requiring untold energy, courage and determination to conquer. Harriet with her parents and brothers and sisters, passed through and endured all the rigors and vicissitudes of pioneer life and by the discipline of the hardships and energetic activity incident to the environment was developed that innate strength of character and sturdy and helpful womanhood for which she was well known.

On the twenty-second day of August, 1866, she was united in marriage to John F. Casebere and moved with her husband to the Casebere farm in St. Joe Township Ohio on the Indiana line. In March 1867 they moved to their farm on the state line in Troy township, Indiana, where they resided until 1908 and reared their family of seven children to manhood and womanhood. Two of her children, Lula the eldest, and Stanley, the youngest with their father preceded her to the great beyond to welcome her to her eternal home. Five remain to mourn the loss of their mother: Curtis of Artie Ind., Howard and Frances Williams of Edgerton, Ohio, Daniel of Butler, Ind., and Hattie Fouts of Hamilton, Ind.

In November 1908 she with her husband left the farm and moved to Edgerton where she resided until her death, her husband having departed this life on the twenty seventh day of June 1913.

In 1856, when twelve years of age, she united with the M. E. Church, of which her parents were members, and remained a devoted communicant of that denomination for the remaining sixty six years of her life. She was always active in the work of the church and loyal not only in its support but in all Christian movements and worthy moral causes. For many years after preaching service was discontinued in the country place known as the "Weitz" M. E. Church, of which "class" she was originally a member, she maintained and superintended a Sunday school until the time of her removal to Edgerton. Since that time it is sad to note the church has fallen into disuse and the building is rapidly deteriorating.

On the third day of July she was stricken with apoplexy and while conscious most of the time she was deprived of the power of speech and helpless and could make her wants known only by very uncertain signs. Only for a very short period was she able to frame single words or very brief sentences. We can but feel that she came to look upon death as her kindest friend and entered the unknown without a fear. For her may it most appropriately be said:

"Thank God for Death: Bright thing with dreary name. We wrong with mournful flowers her pure still brow."

The funeral was held in the M. E. church, January 7th, conducted by Rev. Hodge of the M. E. church assisted by the Rev. Dr. Campbell of the Presbyterian Church. The discourse was simple but impressive from the appropriate words of the Savior: "She hath done what she could."

The body was laid to rest beside her husband in the Edgerton cemetery.

WM. REED KILLED

Wm. Reed, 63 years old, living one-half mile north of Moore's Station between Auburn and Butler on the P. C. C. & St. L. railroad, was instantly killed at 1:40 last Thursday afternoon by a P. C. C. & St. L. freight train, east bound.

Mr. Reed was driving north across the tracks when the engine struck him. The horse had cleared the crossing but the engine struck the buggy with full force.

When the victim of the accident was found, his head was crushed into an unrecognizable mass and severed from the body.

Mr. Reed was 63 years of age. He is survived by a wife and 13-year-old daughter.

The engineer of the freight train stated to spectators that he saw the horse and buggy crossing the tracks, and that he signalled for the crossing, but that, in all probability, Mr. Reed did not hear the whistle or see the train.

The engineer applied the emergency brake just as the engine struck Reed.

SUICIDE AT GARRETT

The body of Earnest C. Stiles of Garrett, was found in the B. & O. sand house, just north of the round house, in Garrett, last Thursday morning at 12:45 o'clock.

Stiles was lying on his side and near his body was a revolver that contained one empty shell. A bullet had pierced the left side of his head and death was no doubt instantaneous.

The body was found by John Nagu, an engine hostler. He had been at the sand house at 12:45 o'clock and Stiles was there, apparently stopping in order to get warm. He complained that his feet were cold. When the hostler returned about fifteen minutes later he found the body.

Stiles was about fifty-four years of age and was well known to railroad employes. He left no word giving his reason for committing suicide, but his acquaintances think he was despondent. He borrowed money to go to Fort Wayne Wednesday and he returned on the last interurban car. He had 29 cents in his pocket when he was found.

JAN. 19, 1922 Thurs.

George Washburn of Attica, Ind., died suddenly while attending the funeral of his brother-in-law Mr. Frank Richardson of Detroit, Monday afternoon. Mr. Washburn was a Wabash engineer at Attica and was well known in railroad circles ere.

EDITOR RAKESTRAW DEAD

O. F. Rakestraw, aged 72, senior editor of the Steuben Republican, and affiliated with the institution for over forty years, died at his home in Angola at 8 o'clock last Tuesday morning after an illness of six weeks.

Mr. Rakestraw was the oldest active newspaper in point of service in this section of the country and well known in editorial and business circles in the state. He was an ardent supporter of church and community service work, having given generously of his time and means for many years.

So far as we know this leaves the Record Editor as the oldest in point of editorial work in this section. We began Sept. 4, 1894, over 27 years ago. It hardly seems that long.

Feb. 2, 1922

L. F. W. Telschow and daughter Florence attended the funeral of Edward Smart at Hicksville Sunday. Mr. Smart was a member of the Rainbow Division, and was killed in France about three years ago.

Feb. 2, 1922

Gus Harman was instantly killed at the crossing at Edgerton Monday night when "16" hit his car. Mrs. Harman was with her husband, but jumped just in time to save her life. Mr. Harman was unable to stop the car on account of the brakes not working.

BOWDEN

Calista C. Coll, youngest daughter of Seneca and Calista Pinchon Coll (pioneer settlers of Troy twp.) was born at the Coll homestead on April 22, 1845 and passed into everlasting rest on Feb. 4, 1922 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Editha Harrison aged 76 years, nine months and six days, after an illness of less than a week. Her mother dying at her birth gave her to her brother A. F. Pinchon and wife with whom she made her home until the death of her aunt when she was ten years old after which she was taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Aldrich (parents of Mrs. Pinchon) where she was reared to womanhood. Born of the sturdy old French and English stock who made the early history of this country, she early longed for an education. She began teaching in 1866 and for more than twenty years continued her vocation. It was her greatest pride that her record as a teacher was one of success. Many of the middle aged people of Troy and Franklin twp. were her pupils. In 1871, in company with her oldest sister, Mrs. Harriet Shoemaker and family she made an overland trip to central Missouri. This trip covered a period of twenty-eight days and can now be made in as many hours. While in Missouri she resumed teaching.

Soon she met Forest S. Bowden to whom she was married in April 1873. To this union was born one daughter, now Mrs. Editha Harrison. Left a widow in December 1876 she again began teaching. In May 1880 she was married to John B. Bedell, of Bedford, Mo. One child was born to this union, Lizzie M. who died at the age of three. Mr. Bedell had five small children all of whom she raised and educated to a successful maturity. One of her greatest beliefs was that work was a blessing and she lived her belief. She had the true pioneer spirit, going to Kansas and homesteading two years after she was sixty years old. She was an earnest consecrated Christian whose trust was in Christ. Was a member of the Christian Church. She chose her funeral text (Mark 14:8) more than thirty years ago and her life exemplified it. Her greatest joy was in extending a helping hand where it was needed.

She was the youngest child of a family of seven all of whom preceded but one sister, Mrs. Elinor Haverstock of Butler. She leaves to mourn, her daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, one grandson, Charles Forest Harrison, her aged sister, Mrs. Elinor Haverstock and many other relatives and friends.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

Funeral services were held at Jerusalem Church at 1:30 P. M. Monday Feb. 6, conducted by Rev. Eberly assisted by Rev. Couch and interment was made at Eddy's cemetery by the side of her husband.

SELTENRIGHT

Pearl Elora Seltenright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Eckles, was born in Detroit, Mich., June 15, 1889. After two years of intense suffering she passed away at her home on W. Oak St., Butler, Ind., at the age of 32 years, 7 months and 16 days.

She was married to Mr. Frank Seltenright June 24, 1914. To this union one son was born, Harold Arthur Seltenright. Besides the husband and son she leaves a twin sister, Mrs. Delbert Bowman of Waterloo, Ind., other relatives and a host of friends to mourn the loss. Her father and mother and only brother preceded her in death.

In early life she was converted to Christ and joined the United Brethren Church at Waterloo, Ind. She lived a good Christian life until the end. She was a member of the Pythian Sister Lodge at Butler, Ind.

She was employed for several years before her marriage as deputy in the Waterloo post office and was a favorite among her friends.

Her suffering toward the close of life became increasingly severe but the end of life was filled with eternal peace. All was done possible during her sickness to restore her to health but all was in vain and she quietly slept out of this world of pain into the land of everlasting peace.

The funeral services were held in the U. B. Church at Butler, Friday at 2:00 p. m., Rev. B. E. Chambers officiating. Interment in the Butler cemetery.

BUNGARD

George Henry, infant son of Oliver and Effie Bungard was born in Butler, Ind., October 5, 1921, died January 30, 1922, aged 3 months and 25 days.

Bungard cont.

He is survived by father, mother, sister Laura, two brothers, Willis and Lynn, grandparents and many relatives. One little brother, Francis preceded him in death about one year ago.

Tender Shepherd Thou hast stilled
Now Thy little lamb's brief weeping,

Oh how peaceful pale and mild
In its narrow bed 'tis sleeping.
And no sigh of anguish sore,
Heaves that little bosom more.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Thursday at 2 o'clock, conducted by pastor, E. P. Couch.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors for their kindness and assistance during the sickness and death of our Darling Baby. Also for their beautiful floral offerings.

John J. Wagner son of Elizabeth and Jacob Wagner was born October 8, 1842 in Bavaria province of Germany, in the town of Shuff. Departed this life February 18, 1922. Aged 79 years, 4 months, and 10 days.

He was one of eight children who have preceded him to the better land. He was reared and educated in his native land during his early childhood. The family came to America when he was twelve years old, settling in Stark county, Ohio, and later moved to Indiana.

On January 12, 1869 he was married to Kathryn Anthony in Stark county, Ohio, who preceded him in death by twenty years. To this union were born eight children. Two being deceased, Julian died in infancy and Clarence died September 3, 1918. He is survived by four daughters, two sons nineteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mr. Wagner was confirmed in the Lutheran church in 1855. Deceased has been a kind and loving father, a good husband and neighbor. His greatest enjoyment was helping the poor and giving to charitable institutions.

" 'Tis hard to break the tender cord

When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words:

"We must forever part."

Dearest loved one, we must lay thee

In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Mrs. Henry Wilson

Anna Magdeline Wagner was born at Clinton, Ohio, July 5, 1852 and departed this life March 2, 1922 at the age of 69 years, 7 months and 27 days. When but a child, she came with her parents to Franklin township. In the year 1869 she was married to Calvin Thurstin to which union were born four children; Chas, Thurstin of Clyde, Ohio, Burt Thurstin of Toledo, Ohio, Mrs. Maude Skelton of Butler, and Jay Thurstin who is deceased.

In the year 1905 she was united in marriage to Henry Wilson of Butler. A little later they moved to the farm just north of town where they resided for about seven years, after which they moved to town where they have made their home ever since. Mrs. Wilson was a woman of many noble traits of character. Her consistent Christian example will live as a glorious benediction and her zeal for Christ and the church will be an inspiration to those who follow.

When but a girl she gave her heart to God and united with the church, and during the years her aim was to please her Master.

For some weeks past she had not been in vigorous health, but the nearness of the end was not anticipated, until within a few hours of her death. The end came without a struggle and her spirit took its flight and today she is with those who have gone on before. Her life has been well lived; she has fought a good fight; she has finished her course; hence the crown which was prepared for her is now her own.

In her demise, the church has lost a faithful member; the community a loyal citizen and the family a devoted wife and mother. She leaves a husband; three children above mentioned, six grandchildren, a brother, Chas. Wagoner of this city and many friends to mourn her departure. Two brothers and one sister preceded her in death.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF DANIEL J. EBERLY

Daniel J. Eberly, son of Jonas and Rebecca Eberly, was born near Greencastle, Franklin Co., Pa., January 26, 1832. Died at his home near Butler, Ind., March 14, 1922, aged 90 years, one month and 18 days.

He came with his parents to Navarre, Stark Co., Ohio in the year of 1842. From which place he came with his parents to DeKalb county, Ind., in the year 1852, being a young man at that time of twenty years of age.

He was united in marriage with Julia Ann Summerlott, January 8, 1856, who departed this life February 18, 1915. To them were born 10 children, five sons and five daughters, one son and two daughters having preceded him to the better country. Those who have departed are as follows, Henrietta, who died February 28, 1864, and an infant daughter who died August 1875 and Cyrus M. who died February 10, 1907.

Those remaining to mourn the loss of a father are Rev. Cassius M. of Butler, Ind.; Joshua, of Auburn, Ind.; Mrs. Josephine Pugsley at whose home he died, south east of Butler, Ind.; Theodore of Waterloo, Ind.; Walter R. of Hudson, Mich.; Mrs. C. A. Husseman of Butler, and Mrs. Esther Fulk of Waterloo, Ind. Nettie Summerlott was taken by them and cared for as one of their own children. She is now Mrs. Nettie Kane of Kalamazoo, Mich.

After coming to Indiana he spent all the remaining days of his life as a resident of DeKalb County, living on a farm, which he cleared up two and one-half miles south east of Waterloo until 1898 when he moved to the farm southeast of Butler where he died.

He was a man of more than ordinary strength of body and mind. He always took an active interest in the affairs of the community and was for many years a director of the district schools in the community where he lived. He always took an interest in the political affairs of the country and was a great reader, not only of the political and industrial affairs of the country, but of the Bible as well.

He was a member of Waterloo Lodge, No. 221, I. O. O. F. and was always found to have a keen interest in the work of the order.

In the year 1885 he became a member of the Presbyterian church of Waterloo, Ind., and has remained in that connection until this time. In his dealings with his fellowmen he was upright and honorable and had a high sense of moral uprightness and nobility of life. He expressed his faith in God many times during his last years and asked God many times to take him to his rest above. He was extremely patient in his last illness. We all feel that it is well with his soul.

He was a hard working, honorable, upright, conscientious Christian gentleman, citizen, neighbor and father.

CLARK WHETSEL DIES

Home of His Son

Clark P. Whetsel, died suddenly Sunday about noon at the home of his son, Bruce Whetsel, on Route No. 3 from Auburn. Apoplexy was the immediate cause of death. Mr. Whetsel had been feeling unusually well, and remarked the morning of his death that he had not felt so well in years. His appetite was good and he looked perfectly well.

At noon when his son Bruce went to look for him, he found him in the barn dead, the presumption being that he had attended to some chores and as he was about to step through the door of the barn, was seized with an apoplectic stroke and died within a few minutes.

Mr. Whetsel was born near Wilmington Center, in Wilmington township, and since the death of Mrs. Whetsel four years ago in February he has made his home with his children, of whom there are four: Ross, living on Brown street in Auburn, Bruce, living on route 3, Auburn, Paul, residing three miles northwest of Waterloo, and Mrs. Hazel Damon whose home is in Ft. Wayne.

A brother, Will lives in Butler as do also three sisters, Rose and Almema Whetsel and Mrs. Willis Tarbox, resides at Montgomery, Michigan.

Mr. Whetsel was a member of the Methodist church affiliating with the Norris Chapel congregation. He also was a member of the Gleaners.

Mr. Whetsel was 59 years, 9 months and 25 days old at the time of his death.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at 10:30 from the First M. E. Church in Auburn.

FIFER

Simon Franklin, son of Adam and Elizabeth (Deller) Fifer was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, October 3, 1850. Died at his home in Hamilton March 29, 1922, aged seventy-one years, five months and twenty-six days.

At the age of thirteen years he came with his parents and settled on a farm near Pleasant Lake where he grew to manhood. In 1869 he went to Kansas where he spent three years. In April 1870 he was united in marriage to Lucinda Beigh. To this union three children were born. February 6, 1884, he was again married to Ella Cummins. Four daughters came to them.

June 6, 1881 while helping raise the frame of a farm barn near his home he received an injury to his back, from which he never recovered. From that time till the day of his death he was very seldom free from pain. April 21, 1921, he took his bed. For more than eleven months of his illness he was never known to be out of patience, or make any complaint. Everything that was done for him he said was right.

He leaves a wife, seven children, Fred of Angola, Freeman of Butler, Mrs. Edith Hodges of Metz, Mrs. Loretta Rose of Hamilton, Mrs. Olive Bowles of Metz, Mrs. Mabel Rose of Hamilton and Mrs. Anna Ford of Angola, eighteen grand children, one brother, three sisters and numerous other relatives.

At the age of nineteen he became converted at a revival at the Mt. Zion U. B. Church near Pleasant Lake. When he moved to DeKalb county he transferred his membership to the U. B. Church at Jerusalem. When he moved to Hamilton in 1909 he brought a letter from that church and with his wife united with the M. E. Church where when his health would permit he was found in the service of his Master. He felt ready and willing to go. The last words he

Body Found Hanging by a Rope
in His Granary.

The community was startled and saddened last Friday forenoon by the news that Frank W. Nimmons had hanged himself.

Mr. Nimmons was staying alone on his farm while his wife, who has been ill for some time, was staying with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Western, in Auburn, where she had gone to visit and was taken worse and was taking chiropractic treatment we understand from Dr. Woods of Angola.

Mr. Nimmons left his glasses lying in the open Bible upon a note that read as follows:

"Dear Allie: Christ died that I might live. Sell everything and get well. I can't stand the burden.
 Frank."

Mr. Nimmons was greatly worried about his affairs. He thought of running for county office and gave that up to become a candidate for township trustee which he thought he could handle better under the circumstances.

On the morning of the lamentable affair, Paul Smith who lives in a tenant house on the farm, went to the barn about 7:45 to finish the morning chores and found Mr. Nimmons hanging to a windlass which he used for drawing machinery to the second floor in a building used for a granary and tool house.

His son, Dr. Rista Nimmons, of Kamloops, B. C., was notified and the funeral was postponed until he could get here.

The funeral was held at the Butler M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon and interment was made in Woodlawn cemetery at Auburn. Rev. Simons, formerly of the U. B. Circuit was called to preach the funeral.

Obituary will be published next week.

KILLED AT WATERLOO

Father Dies and Son Seriously Injured.

Santford Jolly, of Waterloo, was instantly killed Tuesday morning at 6:20 o'clock when an automobile he was driving was struck by the Twentieth Century Limited on the Main street crossing of the New York Central at Waterloo.

Mr. Jolly's son, Earlin, age twenty years was seriously hurt and he was taken to the hospital at Elkhart.

Mr. Jolly and his son were in a Ford touring car going south on Main street. The passenger train, traveling at a high rate of speed, was west bound. The crossing watchman does not go on duty until 7 o'clock.

The exact cause of the accident is unknown, but it is probable that when Mr. Jolly saw the train coming he made a frantic effort to get his car over the crossing and "killed" the engine. The locomotive struck the rear of the automobile and demolished the machine. The occupants were thrown about fifty feet away, alighting on the south side of the track.

Mr. Jolly's head was crushed and he was dead when he was reached. The train stopped, but proceeded in a few minutes. The second section of the Twentieth Century arrived a short time later and it was stopped and the young man taken on it to the hospital at Elkhart. He was accompanied by Dr. J. E. Showalter, of Waterloo. His mother left on the next train to be at his bedside. He was badly crushed about the shoulders and chest.

Mr. Jolly came from Coldwater, Mich., to Waterloo last fall to become superintendent of the Clyde Walb dredge used in the construction of the Matson drain, east of Waterloo. There is one other child in the family, a girl of five years. The son was employed with his father on the dredge and they were on their way to their work when the tragedy took place. Mr. Jolly was about forty-five years of age.

Mark, together with the above named children and husband and a large circle of neighbors and friends to mourn her demise.

Funeral was held at the home Friday afternoon at 1:30, Rev. Burns officiating. Burial at Hamilton cemetery.

Blessed is the sleep that holds you
In the arms of Jesus dear,
Angel voices waft you onward
To the realms so bright and clear.

Oh, how often we will miss you,
When the shades of evening fall,
And with longing ears will listen
For your dear, familiar call.

But that voice is hushed forever,
And we listen all in vain
For we never more shall hear it,
Till the Savior comes again.

Friendship, industry and kindness see obit for the rest

JENNINGS

William Jennings was born in Carroll Co., Ohio, October 14, 1835 and departed this life April 25, 1922, aged 86 years, 6 months and eleven days. He was the son of Peter and Catherine Jennings who were among the early settlers in the community.

In 1843 he came with his parents to DeKalb Co. and was here reared and educated.

He assisted his father in the pioneer work of that early day, which consisted of felling the trees, clearing up the land and then in the cultivation of the soil.

He also served an apprenticeship at the carpenter trade and has since worked at it in connection to farming.

In 1860 he settled on the farm on which he spent the remainder of his life, some 62 years.

May 4, 1859 he was married to Miss Anna McCord. The fruits of this union were six children, three sons and three daughters, one son and one daughter have preceded him in death.

On April 25, 1918 his wife with whom he had been permitted to live for 59 years, more than a half century, departed this life, preceding him in death by four years to the day. Father Jennings was a quiet, industrious man, a kind father, good neighbor and most highly esteemed by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn their loss, two sons and two daughters, Hiram, Olive, Eldora McClellan and Jacob, also one grandchild, Glen B. and one brother Abraham with other relatives and friends by whom he will be greatly missed. The burial services were conducted by Rev. Estell of Lagrange.

REV. MARKLEY DEAD

Rev. I. W. Markley, pastor of the Butler Church of God, died at his home in Columbia City last Sunday, at the age of 68 years, lacking four days.

Markley cont.

Rev. Markley has been pastor of the Church of God at various times for 40 years. He helped to organize the church here when he was a young man. He was pastor when the present church building was erected and were it not for his untiring efforts the church would have been without a pastor much more of the time than it was.

The funeral was held at his home Tuesday afternoon and was attended by people from many nearby towns. Several Church of God ministres were present and took part in the service.

Miss Laura Maxwell

Laura, the daughter of Joseph and Sarah Maxwell was born January 20, 1860 and died May 1, 1922, aged 62 years 3 months and 11 days.

With the exception of seven years spent in Minnesota the subject of this sketch lived her entire life in or near Butler, Ind.

She belonged to a family of five daughters, three of whom preceded her in death. Of those who survive her one brother resides in Canada, one brother and one sister in Washington, one sister near Butler, and one sister in Butler.

Sister Maxwell united with the Christian Church when quite young and lived an exemplary Christian life and took great interest in the activities of the church, attending its every service until failing health made it impossible to do so.

While sister Maxwell was never strong in body, yet she was blessed with sufficient strength to keep up until a few weeks before the end came and passed quietly away without experiencing prolonged suffering. She is now at rest in the Lord.

Leta May Geddes

Leta May, daughter of George and Margaret Geddes was born in Butler, Indiana, March 4, 1884 and departed this life at the home of her parents May 6, 1922.

Thus death has again entered our midst—into the home of our friends and neighbors. Once more the family circle has been broken in this case for the first time and a dearly loved only child removed from the home. This is always peculiarly sad, drawing the deepest sympathy from all, since there remains such a complete vacancy in the home life. If others are left to fill in a measure, the hearts' aching void the grief may not be so keen and poignant.

Leta possessed many qualities of mind and heart which endeared her to the bereaved father and mother and her many friends.

The loving companionship, thoughtful interests and sunny disposition will linger as a benediction to the grief.

We'll miss thee a thousand times along life's weary track,

Not a sorrow or a joy but we shall long to call thee back;

Yearn for thy true and tender heart long for thy bright smile to see,

For many dear and true are left but none are quite like thee.

Miss Leta was especially fond of children and the little ones of the neighborhood were always sure of her sympathy in their childish troubles and all found in her a cheerful and loyal comrade.

Geddes cont.

The pleasant smile and kindly word of greeting will be long remembered by those who met her on the street or in the father's place of business. The beautiful floral offerings bear silent testimony to the large place she had won in the affections of her many friends and also the heart-felt sympathy experienced by our entire community for Mr. and Mrs. Geddes in this greatest sorrow.

Sunset and evening star

And one clear call for me!

And may there be no moaning of the bar

When I put out to sea!

But such a tide as morning seems asleep,

Too full for sound and foam

When that which drew from out the boundless deep

Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,

And after that the dark!

And may there be no sadness of farewell

When I embark.

For tho' from out our boruñe of of time and place

The flood may bear me far,

I hope to see my Pilot face to face

When I have crossed the bar.

Services were conducted at the home by Elder Couch and Rev. Burns and appropriate and beautiful music was rendered by Mr. George and Dean Sturgis and Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Stage, Mrs. Sturgis presiding at the piano after which the body was tenderly laid to rest in the Butler cemetery.

OBITUARY RECORD

ROBINETT

Mrs. Caroline Wallace Robinett was born in DeKalb County, Indiana, May 30, 1868 and departed this life May 9, 1922, aged 53 yrs. 11 mo. and 9 days.

On May 14, 1887 she was united in marriage with Sherman Robinett. To this union four children were born, three daughters and one son.

She was of a kind and affectionate disposition. Ever caring lovingly for those around her. For years she was a great sufferer but stood it all uncomplainingly as loving hands administered to her ever trusting. She was baptized when quite young into the Christian faith in which she ever remained faithful and true. She united with the Christian Church in Butler a number of years ago. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors and the Pythian Sisters lodges, and of the Golden Hour Club.

She leaves to mourn their loss a devoted husband, and one daughter, Fern, three children and one sister having preceded her in death.

The funeral was held at the Christian Church on Thursday at 2:00 p. m., Rev. E. P. Couch officiating. Interment in Butler cemetery.

OBITUARY NOTICE OF WILLIAM DEEMS

Another one of our Civil War veterans, William Deems, son of George and Hanah Deems and a life long resident of DeKalb county suddenly and unexpectedly departed this life at the home of his nephew William Deems two miles west of Butler, Ind., May 17, 1922, at the ripe age of 79 years, 6 months and 14 days.

Mr. Deems belonged to a family of six children, five sons and one daughter and was the last one to go.

For 57 years he made his home with his nephew, William Deems and parents and thus spent practically his entire life in the home where he died.

On the 20th day of August 1862 he answered his country's call enlisted in company H of the 88th Regiment Indiana volunteers and bravely continued in the ranks, closing his soldier career by marching with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea, and was therefore among the last to be mustered out of service.

He was a devoted member of the G.A.R. and had a deep interest in all of the activities of the order that associated him still with his comrades in arms.

While he made no profession of religion yet he was upright and honest in all his dealings with his fellow men. He had a heart that responded quickly and liberally to distress of any kind and because of this quality of mind and heart he was universally liked and will be sadly missed by a host of people who admire a man of broad sympathies and generous disposition.

Services were conducted at the home by Elder E. P. Couch and beautiful and appropriate music rendered by Mrs. Stage and Mrs. Swift, the G. A. R. Post performing the last sad rite and the body laid away in the Mausoleum of the Butler Cemetery.

OBITUARY

Mr. John J. Oberlin, son of Abraham and Mary Oberlin was born in Summit Co., O., May 4, 1847. He departed this life May 17, 1922 at the age of 75 years and 13 days.

He was united in marriage to Miss Katherine Beerer, December 12, 1869. To this union eight children were born. One daughter Miss Grace Oberlin preceded him in death six years ago and his wife Mrs. Katherine preceded him in death two years ago May 11. Those remaining to mourn their loss are Mrs. C. W. Beard, Mr. Charles, Jesse, Clyde, Lloyd, and Roy Oberlin all of Butler, Ind., and Mr. Lawrence Oberlin of Cincinnati, O. He also leaves eleven grandchildren and two brothers and three sisters.

He moved from Summit county Ohio in 1873 and located in DeKalb county, Ind. After a short time he moved to Marshall county, Ind., where he was engaged in farming for six years and then returned to DeKalb county, Ind., where he spent the remainder of his life.

He was engaged in different occupations and was successful in all as farmer, grocery man, County Commissioner, a position he held for four years, as postmaster during Cleveland's last administration and County Treasurer of DeKalb county for two terms.

After his term as county treasurer closed he retired from the more active business life and lived a peaceful citizen among us. He was a successful business man, a good citizen and neighbor, friend and father. His absence from us will be greatly felt.

He became a member of the United Brethren church while living in Marshall County, Ind. When he moved to Butler he with his wife transferred their membership to the First U. B. Church at Butler and has been a support-

SILAS NUGEN DEAD

One of DeKalb County's Foremost Citizens Suddenly Called.

Word of the sudden death last Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, of Silas Nugen, president of the Auburn Commercial club, and the Fall Fair association, and one of the most prominent citizens of DeKalb county, came as a shock to the people of DeKalb county.

Mr. Nugen had been driving in his automobile and returned to his home in Auburn for supper. While awaiting the preparation of the evening meal, he remarked to members of his family that he had a pain in his chest. The suggestion was made that he consult a physician and when he sat down to supper, Mr. Nugen again spoke of the pain.

Supper over, Mr. Nugen went out on the front porch and sat down on the porch swing. C. W. Fell, chief of the Auburn fire department, passing the house at this time spoke to Mr. Nugen and noticing him sitting in an unnatural position went to his side. He was dead, the result of an attack of heart trouble.

DROWNED IN GRAVEL PIT

Within less than a half hour after Guy Strong of Auburn, entered the water at the Hodge gravel pit, north of Auburn, to swim across with a guy rope with which to make a fastening to a post in the pit, he was laid on the sand bank of the pit dead—a victim of drowning.

Mr. Strong had not stopped his work to eat his lunch at noon. At about 1 o'clock he started from the south bank of the gravel pit, towing a rope as he swam across to the opposite shore. When within perhaps thirty feet from the spot where he intended to fasten the rope which is used to guide a boat, Mr. Strong was seen to sink out of sight. He immediately came to the top of the water, called and sank again. Coming up to the surface a second time the drowning man again called to his fellow workmen and sank out of sight for the last time in about ten feet of water.

Two sons of Mr. Strong, Guy and Kenneth, who work with him at the pit, hastily swam to the spot where their father sank and began diving and soon brought him to the surface, swimming with him to the shore. Life, however, was extinct. The body was carried to the bank where it was laid on a raft and towed to the south shore to await the arrival of physicians and an undertaker.

The theory of the drowning advanced by Mr. Strong's fellow workmen was that he was seized with cramps. He was a strong swimmer, knew the pit thoroughly and was in the water daily.

McDONALD

Nella May Mendenhall was born at Macy, Miami Co., Ind., March 13, 1879. She was the daughter of Isaac and Mary Isabelle Mendenhall.

Her spirit commenced the journey that lasts through eternity, at the home of her mother at Newville, Ind., June 20, 1922, while she was visiting there. Her years on earth were not many, having lived but 43 years, 3 months and 7 days, but years are not the passport to eternal life. Since childhood her ambition has been to do the Lord's work and live for Him.

How well her life's desire came true her friends and neighbors can testify. Her life was so busy and her disposition so sweet and cheerful that one not knowing the fact could scarcely realize that she was at times a great sufferer. It can truly be said of her that she went about doing the good deeds that her Master had chosen her to do and what greater success can any one attain than this.

She will be greatly missed by the Christian Sunday School and church. Also by the less fortunate of the community for she did much good to those who were in need; and she will be missed in the home she has left. Her time and strength were always available for any worthy cause.

She was united in marriage to Elmer E. McDonald, the now bereaved and broken hearted, December 22, 1902. She also leaves two sons, Levon and Earl, who will not forget the loving heart and guiding hand of a Christian mother.

She leaves a dear old mother and a step father, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, at whose home she died, one brother, two half brothers and a little nephew who was in her safe care and keeping. Her father and three brothers having preceeded her to the spirit world many years ago.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord for they shall see God and dwell with him forever.

The funeral services were held from the U. B. church Friday forenoon, Rev. Couch of the Butler Christian Church officiating, assisted by Rev. P. A. Hubbard of the Newville U. B. church. Interment was made in the Riverside cemetery.

She sleeps beneath a coverlet of flowers. The floral offerings were wonderful, from church, Sunday School and friends; one piece especially with the words, Our Teacher, in golden letters from her class and a beautiful star from the Kendallville B. H. Lodge. It would take too much space to itemize each piece, let it suffice, her casket was covered and surrounded with beautiful white lilies emblems of her pure life and many other kinds of lovely flowers, showing the high esteem in which she was held.

Capp cont.

On December 24, 1893 she was united in marriage to Wm. Capp, to which union was born two children, a son who died in infancy and Ruth who survives.

The subject of this sketch was bereft of her mother when but seventeen years of age and being the oldest of the children she naturally assumed the cares of the household and mothered her two younger sisters.

When but a child she united with the Church of God of this city. She was identified with that church until about 5 years ago when she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church of Butler with which church she was identified when death came. She had been a teacher in the Sunday School and was well versed in the Scripture. She was interested in the things of the church and faithful to its teachings. She was a woman of religious scruples and very conscientious in her practices and firm in her belief. She was a good woman and she will be missed in the church and in the home.

Her demise came at the noon time of her life. The old must die; the young may die and the middle aged fall victims of the cycle's keen blade.

In her demise she leaves a father, a step-mother, a husband, one daughter and four sisters: Mrs. Minnie Knisely, Mrs. Nora Rudd, Mrs. Caroline Frisbie of Butler and Mrs. Zelma Ginder of Ft. Wayne and a number of other relatives to mourn their loss.

A DOUBLE MURDER

James Sheffer and Wife of Auburn Shot to Death by Unknown Assailant.

As James Sheffer and wife of Auburn were driving their car into their garage at their home about 9:30 last Thursday night, an unknown assailant jumped onto the running board of the car and fired several shots into their bodies, killing Mr. Sheffer immediately and Mrs. Sheffer died Saturday morning after intense suffering.

cont.

"Jim" Sheffer, as he was popularly known, was one of the best known men in the county, and had friends everywhere. He was republican county chairman for several years and a stock-buyer and a farmer.

We hardly think it well to publish here the full details of the distressing affair as practically all of the readers of the Record have read full accounts of it in the daily papers, but for the benefit of those who have not, we will state the main facts.

It will be remembered that about 18 months ago an explosion of unknown origin wrecked the home of Mr. Sheffer, killing his son and daughter and seriously injuring Mrs. Sheffer, while he escaped with slight injury.

At this time his brother, Nie Sheffer, was arrested under suspicion, but nothing definite could be proven against him. It was finally concluded that the explosion must have resulted from gas escaping from gas pipes in the basement.

But many people thought that Nie Sheffer was connected with it in some way. This time he was arrested again and much more evidence has been found tending to show that he is the guilty party.

Nie Sheffer is a man of peculiar nature and of abnormal mental character. He has been living recently by himself in a tent near a creek. After the shooting which occurred about 9:30 the officers went to his tent about 10:30 to arrest him but he was not there. Some time after midnight the officers went back and found him in bed in the tent, and arrested him.

Cont.

They noticed that his shoes were muddy and his pants wet around the bottom.

On Saturday morning, two revolvers were found wrapped in a rag and buried in the mud in the creek near Nie Sheffer's tent. One of the revolvers is the one that Nie Sheffer had when arrested before and it is supposed that one of these revolvers was the one used to shoot Mr. and Mrs. Sheffer last Thursday evening.

Nie was a "ne'er-do-well" while his brother, Jim, was prosperous and became wealthy. It is believed that this engendered a hatred in the heart of Nie for his brother that led him to plan the destruction of the whole family, which now has been accomplished. The Ft. Wayne News gives the following explanation:

Nie Sheffer was a miserably poor farmer.

And therein may lie the cause of possible ill feeling which may have led him to crime for which he is grilled daily.

It is the old story of the weaker of the family losing his patrimony to a stronger brother with the possible attending hard feeling.

The farm of the Sheffer brothers' mother was not divided upon her death, but the children maintained undivided interests in the tract for several years following.

Nie Sheffer was farming at the time and kept slipping from a prosperous condition which he might have maintained to one of actual penury.

During his experience as a farmer in DeKalb county he was prosecuted a few years ago for inhuman treatment to farm animals. The animals were found on his farm in a starving condition and indignant neighbors had him prosecuted. He was of a cruel disposition.

Along with these misfortunes, Nie became so deeply in debt that finally his interest in the estate was sold at a sheriff's sale, and James, the brother who was slain, purchased the interest of the weaker brother at this sale.

Public sentiment was so strong against Nie Sheffer that the sheriff took him to the Allen Co. jail for safe keeping until after the funeral.

Tuesday afternoon a double funeral was held at the M. E. Church at Auburn when a large number of people paid their last respects to Mr. and Mrs. Sheffer, the last of a once happy family, probably all murdered by a half-witted man who no doubt blames his misfortunes to his brother or at least is jealous of his brother's prosperity while he lives in penury.

It is to be hoped that the authorities will keep Nie Sheffer where he can't do such a deed again until such time as it is proven without a doubt that he is not guilty. Too many of such people are left to run loose. They should be confined where they cannot do harm if they want to. They are not only of no benefit to humanity, they are both pests and dangerous to life and property.

The will of J. W. Sheffer gives $1,000 to Miss Mildred Wiley, fiancé of his son, Heber Sheffer. Mrs. Sheffer and his wife made identical wills and both provided for giving $1,000 each to their brothers and sisters and other near relatives and Miss Wiley and then the balance goes to the Eckhart Library and the Methodist church. The latter gets the bulk of the estate.

Nie Sheffer had his preliminary hearing before Justice T. C. Ford at Auburn Tuesday. More and more circumstantial evidence is being gathered to prove that he committed the murder. The details are too extensive for our space but are substantially as heretofore published. It is likely that a plea of insanity will be made if it is evident that he is guilty. It also appears that the $1,000 willed to him cannot be given to him if he is guilty of the crime. One thing is quite sure, there is evidence enough to make it advisable to keep him locked up the balance of his days.

REINHART

Augustus Reinhart was born in Kuhesen, Germany, December 25, 1849 and departed this life at his home south of Butler, July 8, 1922 at the age of 72 years 6 months and 13 days. He came to America with his parents at the age of 16 and settled in this county. He lived at his present home twenty-nine years.

He was united in marriage to Margaret Deibner, May 1876. She with one son, Arkie, preceded him in death.

He joined the United Brethren Church about the year 1887 and his faith remained with his Savior up to the time of his death. His dying testimony is known by the marking of his Bible, Ps. 28: 7-8, "Blessed be the Lord because he hath heard the voice of my supplications. The Lord is my strength and my shield, my heart trusted in him and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him."

He leaves to mourn their loss, two sons, Ira and Almond, eight grandchildren, one brother, Jacob Reinhart of Ashley and many friends. He was a good citizen and neighbor and a kind father and will be missed in the home and community. He lived in his home by the side of the road and was a friend of man.

REX

Pauline Gladys, second daughter of Fred and Elizabeth Rex was born in Butler, Indiana, June 9, 1908, departed her young life at Sacred Heart Hospital at Garrett July 9, 1922, aged 14 years and one month. As the glorious sun rose on the Sabbath day her soul took its flight to dwell with the Father who doeth all things well. She was a patient endurer, always grateful for every favor, cheerful with her associates and class mates.

She was promoted to the eighth grade in the Butler City school, a faithful and interested attendant of the Sunday School of the Christian Church, cherished by her parents, grandparents, sisters, brothers and every relative and friend. She being of a self-sacrificing patient and sunny disposition to know her was to love her; even during her last illness she thought of the comforts of others and as the shadows of her earthly day closed in around her she bade her parents, sisters, brothers good-by, repeated her prayer and passed peacefully away to await the coming of her loved ones and standing near the gates afar to greet the dear ones who mourn their great loss here.

Dearest friends are soonest parted,

EVISTON

Minerva Christina Burnett Eviston was born in Fayette County, Ohio, August 25, 1855 and departed this life July 16, 1922, age 66 years, 10 months, 21 days.

When but a girl she came to Indiana in which state she has resided ever since. In the year 1874 she was united in marriage to James Eviston to which union were born six children, Ora Charles, Jim, Frank, Albert and Harry the latter having preceded his mother in death.

In the death of Mrs. Eviston Butler has been robbed of one of her most loyal citizens. She was a woman who possessed a kind heart another ambition was to always lend a helping hand when needed. She loved her friends and her friends loved her. She loved her church and her church regarded her very highly. She was faithful to all the services and her faith was firm. From the very apex of her mount of vision her spirit was carried to its eternal home on the wings of God's angels. Like a soft wind blown from some sun-kissed shore, in a full ripened life and with her arms full of golden sheaves for her task is done. Gentle as a breeze in summer this valiant soldier of the Cross goes to her reward and eternal home. Having learned to know the grace and power of God as revealed in His redemption and having walked in the path for many years where truth grew plain and her philosophy of life took on the ampler vision, she falls beside her task, a good woman her soul unblanched and her armor on. Her faith like a subtle charm bound her to the infinite and today her soul mounts above the storms of life and is at peace with God. In her demise she leaves the above named children and two sisters and a large circle of friends who will miss her.

HANGED HIMSELF

The Hicksville News says:

"Tuesday morning about 9:30 the Hicksville community was greatly startled and shocked when the word was passed that our well known citizen, Frank Snyder, had hanged himself.

Some time before that he had gone to the barn at the family residence on West Edgerton street, and Mrs. Snyder heard him from time to time seemingly at work.

She went to the garden to get vegetables for the noonday meal, and finally noticed that no more evidence came from the barn as to his presence.

Finally she went into the barn and not finding him, looked in the snow and discovered him hanging from a rafter.

DROWNED AT ROME CITY

Ralph Thomas Franks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Franks of Garrett, met his death by drowning in Sylvan Lake at Rome City Sunday morning at 2 o'clock. The body was not recovered until 1:55 o'clock Sunday morning.

Ralph was manager of the orchestra at Rome City and played saxophone. After the dance Saturday night the members of the orchestra and four young ladies from Lebanon, Ind., who were attending a house party at Rome City, started to go to Jean Stratton Porter's cottage for a little party.

Some of the young people went in Ralph's motor boat and he and one of the young ladies were to make the trip in his canoe. He was very warm and stood up to take off his coat. In doing so he became overbalanced and fell overboard into the lake. He was handicapped by having his arms in his coat sleeves and he could not swim. He sank to the bottom of the lake and never came up.

In falling, Ralph took the paddle with him and the young lady was helpless to be of any aid to him or to get ashore. She screamed for help and people nearby quickly responded but they could be of no avail. Search was at once started for the body, but it was noon Sunday before it was recovered. Ralph's arms were in his coat when found just as they were when he plunged into the lake.

WICKARD

W. H. Wickard, son of David and Elizabeth Wickard was born in Stark County, near Canton, O., June 25, 1843, and departed this life in Butler, Ind., August 15, 1922, aged 79 years, one month and 20 days.

At the age of 12 years his mother died and for one year following he lived with Mrs. Hannah Haines. He then lived one year with his grandfather Wickard, then was home for one winter and then lived with strangers until August 21, 1861 at which time he enlisted in Co. H. 49th Ohio Infantry under General Gibson for the Civil War.

In his war experience he fought battles at Missionary Ridge, Stone River, Liberty Gap and Hoovers Gap. He was wounded in the right hand at Missionary Ridge which wound so crippled his hand that he was incapacitated for most kinds of labor through all the rest of his life. He was taken prisoner by the confederates during the war but had the good fortune to be released after three days. He was mustered out of the service March 3, 1865. He was a member of Meade Post G. A. R. of this city.

Mr. Wickard was married to Lovisa Ann Barber, daughter of Wesley and Jane Barber, March 10, 1870 and to this union were born four children, Charles, Elizabeth, Alice and one child who died in infancy. Of this family but two, Charles and Elizabeth, are left to mourn the departure of a kind and faithful father, the rest of the family having preceded the father in death.

Mr. Wickard was converted under Rev. Aaron Lilley at the age of 38 and lived a Christian life through all the remaining years of his life. His constant devotion to his loved ones, his steadfast faith in the great Beyond, and his consistent Christian life served to bring all who knew him

Shortly after midnight Saturday night one of the telephone linemen shot another to death in the Gawthrop Inn at Kendallville.

Hugh L. Postell, alias Hugh Davids, of Chicago, alias O'Hara, alias O'Connor, is being held for the murder and his two companions, Glenn Parkhurst, of Elkhart, and LeRoy Smith, of Cannelton, are being held at witnesses.

They had been drinking moonshine whiskey and about midnight went to their room where they got into an argument as to their ability as fighters. Finally Postell produced a revolver and said, "I don't fight with my fists anyhow, I use this." Parkhurst started to leave the room when Postell said, "Don't you dare leave the room." Then Thompson grabbed Postell and tried to take the revolver away from him, when he shot Thompson. Hearing the shot, hotel attendants forced the door open and found Thompson on the floor in a pool of blood.

Mrs. Anna Imhof, daughter of Joseph and Mary Mathews was born near Metz, Ind., February 1, 1857, and died at her home near Hamilton, Ind., August 26, 1922, aged 65 years, 6 months and 25 days.

On July 4, 1878 she was united in marriage with Charles Imhof. To this union six children were born, five sons and one daughter, Orris of Crescent City, Cal.; Burr who died Nov. 14, 1917; John of South Bend, Ind.; Emit and Ray near home and Dorothy Collins of Butler, Ind.

Mrs. Imhof spent 33 years of her life on the farm where she died and in less than 15 miles of the place of her birth.

Mrs. Imhof was rather frail of body, yet she had remarkable power of endurance and when the end came she was confined to her room but a few hours.

For a number of years she was a faithful member of the Christian Church at Hamilton. Her life was exemplary and therefore her influence for good was felt both within and without the church.

She leaves to mourn her departure, husband, five children, two grandchildren, Olen and Ruth and one sister, many relatives and a host of friends.

The grand jury will be in session next week, probably being called to convene early in the week. It will be in session several days. Its principal business will be the investigation of the assassination of James W. Sheffer and his wife, Carrie Sheffer, which took place in Auburn the night of last June 22. Nie Sheffer, brother of J. W. Sheffer, has ever since been in the county jail facing the charge of being the murderer.

If the grand jury indicts Sheffer, and a change of venue to another county is not asked, it is expected he will be tried soon after he is indicted. The course of the defense has not been indicated. So far the defendant has not retained an attorney, nor has one been appointed for him. So far as known Sheffer has no funds. The wills of James W. and Carrie Sheffer left him $1,000, but the law says that a person convicted of murder cannot share in his victim's estate. If Sheffer is found guilty he therefore would receive nothing from the estate to pay his attorney's fees. It is considered probable that Judge Dan M. Link will take judicial notice that Sheffer is a pauper and that he will therefore appoint the attorney for the poor, Willis Rhoads, to defend him.

Joseph Wilson was born in Brant Bruten, Lincolnshire, England January 24, 1839 and departed this life September 19, 1922, aged 83 years, 7 months and 25 days.

He came with his parents to the United States in 1850. They made the voyage on an old time sailing vessel, being in mid-ocean on his twelfth birthday. They settled in Wayne Co., Ohio but moved to DeKalb Co. in 1866.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Shaffer Sept. 16, 1860. To this union were born five children, one daughter and four sons, one son dying in infancy. Soon after their marriage they came to DeKalb Co., living first in Franklin Twp., but they soon settled in Stafford Twp. where they lived until the family circle was broken by the wife's death in 1903. Nine years ago the father left the old home to live with his daughter where he remained until his death.

He was converted and united with the U. B. Church at Newville in 1883. He was a devoted and consistent Christian, always prominent in church work, serving as teacher and superintendent in the Sunday School.

Mr. Wilson has been a successful farmer and business man, energetic and progressive in all his undertakings. As a citizen and neighbor he was always straightforward and honest winning the respect of all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his departure one brother, Henry Wilson, one daughter, Carrie Gunsenhouser, three sons, Willis, Chas. and Frank, five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

"A high example is stricken low, Unmoved by fashion or pomp or show

He lived his life. At his modest hearth

He talked of honor and truth and worth,

And high above, when he closed his eyes,

WOODCOX

Emma Shirts, daughter of Elizabeth and George Shirts, was born near Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio, Sept. 4, 1845. She departed this life at Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 4, 1922, age 77 years, 1 month.

When but a babe of 16 months, her parents came to Indiana, returning to Ashland, Ohio when she was four. A few years later they moved to Plymouth, Ohio, where her father died, leaving her mother with seven children, all of whom have since passed to the Great Beyond, save one sister, Mrs. Harriett Culbertson, of Auburn, Ind. After her father's death, the family made its home with grandfather Miller near Spencerville, Ind.

At the age of twelve, she was converted and united with the Christian church at Coburntown. She remained a true and devoted Christian all her life.

When 19 years of age, she was united in marriage to Byron A. Woodcox, a veteran of the Civil War. To this union were born five children, Claudia, who died in infancy; Aubrey, who passed away at the age of 10, and three who yet survive their mother; namely, Audrey Eichholtz, twin sister of Aubrey, living at Warsaw, Ind.; Cornelius A. Woodcox, of Convoy, O.; and Cadmir L. Woodcox, residing in Garrett, Ind.

The greater portion of the deceased's life was spent near Coburntown. Here her husband died Oct. 18, 1919, when poor health and old age forced her to break up her home. She spent the remaining days of her life in the homes of her children and grandson, Gray, save a few months, which, at her own request, she stayed at the Old People's Home near Avilla.

In her old age, when too feeble to walk from her own home to attend services at the Christian Church, she worshipped faithfully at the Lutheran Sunday School, where, according to her own personal testimony, she received great strength and comfort from the teachings and Bible lessons.

In addition to raising and caring for her own family, she unselfishly devoted many years of her precious life to raising her grandson, Gray Woodcox, whose mother died when he was but 3 months old.

Besides her three children she leaves to mourn her departure one sister, seven grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church, St. Joe, Oct. 6, Rev. J. O. Rose, Angola officiating, assisted by Rev. Daily, St. Joe. Interment was made at Evergreen cemetery Newville. E. R. Kinsey was the funeral director.

Oct 12, 1922 Thurs

The remains of Mrs. Milo Stafford who died last week at her home in Wisconsin were brought to Newville for interment Sunday afternoon. The funeral service was held from the Christian Church at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Dixon of Hicksville officiating. Mrs. Stafford, whose maiden name was Inez Rex, was born and raised at Newville, but for the past 16 or 18 years has lived in the West with her husband. Her father, Mr. Rex kept the only store in Newville during the time of the Civil War. Deceased leaves to mourn her demise, her husband, Milo Stafford, and one sister, Mrs. Anna McDonald of Wisconsin and many other relatives and friends. Many

JACOB STIEFEL DEAD

One of the Oldest Residents Passed Away.

Jacob Stiefel, one of the oldest residents of Butler, passed away Oct. 12, 1922.

He was born June 8, 1845 in Germany and was 77 years, 4 months and 4 days old.

He came to Butler about 1864 direct from Germany and lived for a season with Simon Stiefel.

He and Gabe Strause were in business together here for many years.

Mr. Stiefel was a good natured fellow and lived peaceably with all men.

A short funeral service was held at the home Sunday morning by the Masonic Lodge of which he was a member and the remains were taken to Ligonier for the funeral and burial.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

John H. Sutherland, a farmer living two and one-half miles south of Ashley committed suicide Sunday morning at his home by drinking a quantity of carbolic acid.

Mr. Sutherland went to Ashley between 8 and 9 o'clock in his automobile and visited the drug store of Boyd Davis, where he purchased four ounces of carbolic acid.

Returning to his home an hour later, Mr. Sutherland sat in a chair on the front porch of his residence as was his custom.

Nothing unusual was thought of his sitting there until a daughter saw him rocking violently in a chair. As she went through the door to his side his head dropped to his bosom and it was plain that something serious had happened.

Further investigation disclosed the cause of his condition, the empty bottle being mute evidence that Mr. Sutherland had taken his life by means of the poison.

He died at about twelve o'clock without regaining consciousness.

Mr. Sutherland has for some time been under great mental strain. Last week Jay Sutherland, his son, was on trial in the DeKalb county circuit court on a charge brought by Edna Sutherland, Jay's wife for fraudulent marriage.

J. E. POMEROY DIES

One of DeKalb County's Leading Attorneys Passed Away.

James E. Pomeroy, one of Auburn's most able lawyers, died Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Methodist hospital in Indianapolis. Word of his death, while not unexpected, came as a distinct shock to a large circle of acquaintances in Auburn and the surrounding country.

Mr. Pomeroy was taken ill a week ago Tuesday when he left his office for his bed. Pressure of business caused him to leave his sick bed two days later when he attended to some legal affairs for a number of his clients, and the Saturday following he was taken to Indianapolis where he entered the Methodist hospital for an examination as to his condition and for a week following X-Ray photographs were made in order to determine the cause of his sickness.

An operation was decided upon and last Friday an exploratory operation was performed. Internal hemorrhages were the immediate cause of his death.

At his side when the end came was Mrs. Pomeroy and four children who left for Indianapolis, Saturday, when Mr. Pomeroy asked that they be sent for.

The body was brought to Auburn from Indianapolis, Sunday, by traction to Fort Wayne and from that city to Auburn in the W. H. Loy ambulance.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First M. E. church, the Rev. E. E. Trippeer, the pastor in charge, and burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mr. Pomeroy taught school in Wilmington township when a young man, where he became acquainted with Miss Ella Bunge, and they were married Sept. 1, 1895.

This union was never blessed with children of their own but they have made a home for four, one, Iris Ladd is now a student in a teachers training school in Detroit and two are attending high school in Auburn.

Mr. Pomeroy was a citizen of the highest character, and was connected with every good work in church and state. He always stood firmly and ably for the right as he saw it. He was connected with nearly all the important law cases before the DeKalb County Court and practiced also in the state and federal courts.

In the death of Mr. Pomeroy DeKalb County loses one of its foremost and most highly respected citizens.

J. W. HENDERSON

DIES SUDDENLY

John W. Henderson, former recorder of DeKalb county, and one of the best known citizens of this county died suddenly Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock at his home in Spencer township from apoplexy.

Mr. Henderson and his son, William, were in Auburn in the afternoon and attended the funeral of the late James E. Pomeroy. They drove to Auburn in the son's automobile.

Mr. Henderson seemed in his usual health but complained to his son on the way home that he was tired, having been working hard sowing wheat.

As they drove along the road from Auburn, Mr. Henderson invited his son, who resides at Antwerp, Ohio, to accompany him home to supper, but the latter said that he preferred going home as it was late. The elder Mr. Henderson then said that he would get out of his son's machine at Spencerville and walk home as the Henderson farm is only a short distance from Spencerville.

While on the way from Spencerville to his home, rain fell and Mr. Henderson walked quite fast. It is believed that he over exerted himself and upon reaching the rear porch was stricken.

Mr. Henderson proceeded to Antwerp only to be given a message a short time later that his father was dead.

COMMITTED SUICIDE

U. D. Fritz Became Tired of Life and Shot Himself.

A Sunday morning tragedy shocked the citizens of Butler when they learned of the suicide at 6:45 of U. D. Fritz, a Civil War veteran, 76 years of age.

The aged man up until seven months ago, made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Hample of Walnut street, Butler, for 19 years, but seemingly through some misunderstanding he left her home and went to the home of a neighbor, where he lived until Sunday when he went to the Pennsylvania railroad track, leaned against the water tank and shot himself through the head, the bullet from a 32 calibre revolver entering just below the right ear.

Trainmen in the vicinity witnessed the rash act but were unable to prevent it.

Mr. Fritz left a note instructing those who discovered his body where a letter explaining why the act was committed could be found and this letter as far as can be learned, stated that he "could stand it no longer."

HAVERSTOCK

Passed Away Suddenly Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Jonathan Haverstock, a member of one of the pioneer families of DeKalb county, died at her home on West Main street, Monday morning.

Mrs. Haverstock, a widow who lived alone for a number of years, was called by telephone Sunday morning by Mrs. Sam King, a daughter, and when no response to the call was received, she became alarmed, and went to the Haverstock home and started a search, finding the body on the floor of the kitchen where she had fallen.

Mrs. Haverstock, who had been the victim of paralysis, was unconscious. A physician was quickly summoned but he could do nothing more than relieve her temporarily and she passed away during the morning.

It is presumed that Mrs. Haverstock went to the outside kitchen to get some fuel to start the fire as kindling had been set and ready for the coal which she was getting when stricken.

Mrs. Sam King and Mrs. John Thiel of Butler, daughters; Chas. living north of Butler and a son residing in Michigan are the surviving children.

Mrs. Haverstock would have been 80 years of age next March and had resided in Butler and vicinity for many years. The funeral was held Wednesday.

HAVERSTOCK

Eleanor Renew Haverstock, daughter of Seneca and Calista Pinchon Coll (pioneer settlers of Troy township) was born at the Coll homestead March 9, 1843. She suffered a stroke of paralysis Sunday morning, her sickness being but a few hours, all having been done to restore her to health but in vain. She quietly slept out of this world of pain into that everlasting peace, at her late home in Butler, Ind., Dec. 11, 1922, at the age of 79 years, 9 months and 2 days.

She was united in marriage to Johnathan Haverstock August 1, 1869, he having passed away July 16, 1911. To this union were born six children, three sons and three daughters, one son and one daughter dying in infancy, Phoebe L. Thiel, Charlie H. Haverstock, Odessa B. King, Butler, Ind., Alcid D. Haverstock, Grand Rapids, Mich., and one step son, S. G. Haverstock, Toledo, O.

In youth she was converted to Christ and in later years united with the M. E. Church at Memorial Chapel, leading a good Christian life and always willing to lend a helping hand in time of need.

She was of a family of seven children her mother dying when she was but two years of age and her father dying later in life. She is the last survival of the family, her brothers and sisters, also four grandchildren having preceded her. She leaves to mourn two sons, two daughters, one stepson, thirteen grandchildren and one great grandchild, with a host of

ANOTHER VICTIM

Loses His Life at the Fatal Reynolds Crossing east of Butler.

About one o'clock last Saturday noon, another life was snuffed out at the fatal Reynolds crossing of the New York Central Ry. east of Butler.

Oscar Welly, 18-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Welly, residing north of Edgerton, was driving a truck loaded with milk cans on his return trip home from the Butler Milk Condensory and as he crossed the tracks he was struck by a New York Central freight going east.

The truck was demolished and he was thrown a distance of about 100 feet. The body was badly mangled, and his head was about all gone.

The remains were cared for by H. E. Johnson & Son and taken to Edgerton Sunday where the funeral was held Tuesday.

Henry and Andrew Grube saw the accident as they were coming to Butler.

The young man was in the employ of Annie Kimpel of Edgerton on a milk route for the Butler Milk Condensory.

NIE SHEFFER GUILTY

Sent to Prison for Life for the Murder of His Brother.

Nie Sheffer is guilty of the murder of James W. Sheffer of Auburn, his brother. A jury in the Steuben circuit court at Angola returned this verdict at 2:12 Sunday afternoon.

Only four ballots were taken. The jury stood 10 to 2 for conviction on the first ballot. The jury decided on a life sentence and Judge Endicott passed sentence on the prisoner immediately after the jury's verdict was returned.

Ten jurors favored the death penalty but a compromise was finally reached finding Sheffer guilty of second degree murder with the penalty at life sentence.

Nie was trembling with emotion after the sentence was passed. He said that he didn't want a new trial. He was brought to Auburn Monday morning and was taken to Michigan City Wednesday to start his life term.

Nie wept bitterly and requested that he be allowed to see his father before being taken to Michigan City, also to visit the garage in which J. W. Sheffer and wife were shot and the Sheffer farm.

Nie Sheffer, the defendant, was extremely nervous all day. He slept well Saturday night, however, and ate a hearty breakfast Sunday morning. When the jury failed to return a verdict Sunday morning he became extremely nervous. At 10 o'clock the jury called for additional instructions and Nie was taken to the court room. His nervousness became more apparent after being returned to the cell and he rattled his cell door and walked back and forth in his cell.

Cont.

Sheffer cont.

The large majority of the people approve the verdict. It would have been too bad to execute on circumstantial evidence though it was about as strong as such could be.

But the only safe way is to lock him up for life or until it is certainly established that he is innocent.

A new trial is not asked for, but if it were, it would be wrong to allow it. More public money has been spent on him now than he or a hundred of his kind will ever be worth to society.

BRIGGS

Allison S., son of Jesse and Virginia Briggs was born in Whitley County, Indiana, March 12, 1842, and died at his home in Butler, Ind., Dec. 22, 1922, aged 80 years, 9 months and 10 days.

When his country was in that mighty conflict of the Sixties, although but a boy of 19 years of age he offered his services and enlisted in Co. B, 74 Regiment of Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He proved to be a valient soldier. He, however, was not long in the service until he met with a serious injury which rendered active service impossible and on the 5th day of February 1863, he was granted an honorable discharge from the service.

This misfortune was ever afterwards a handicap to him and he was never entirely without pain.

Great sorrow came to him in his home. He buried three life companions, but fortunately the last one was spared to him to minister to him during his last illness and do all in her power to cheer him in the closing hours of his life.

Services were conducted at the home by E. P. Couch and body laid away in the Churubusco cemetery.

CROUSE

John Henry Crouse, son of John and Elizabeth Crouse was born in Hagerstown, Wayne Co., Ohio, 1847. In 1851 he came with his parents to Stafford township, DeKalb Co. Ind.

When 16 years of age he enlisted in the Civil War, November 1, 1863 and served in Co. F. 129 Regiment Indiana. He was honorably discharged on the 13th of September 1865 at Indianapolis. He went through the Atlantic campaign, was in the battle of Franklin and Nashville, Tennessee, Nise's Fork, North Carolina besides many skirmishes.

He was united in marriage to Harriet Hughes Feb. 21, 1867, in Paulding Co., Ohio. To this union was born three sons and six daughters. The sons are I. L. Crouse of near Fort Wayne, Ind., Harley Crouse deceased and W. T. Crouse of Kissimee, Florida. The daughters are Mrs. J. D. Brosy of Elkhart, Ind., Mrs. E. M. Krafft of Spencerville, Ind., Mrs. W. L. Rickey of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Arthur Kester of Butler, Ind., Mrs. Mary Everetts of Billings, Montana and Mrs. R. H. Walterspaugh of South Bend, Ind.

About 43 years ago Rev. J. H. Crouse entered the gospel ministry in the U. B. Church and about 30 years ago he transferred his membership to the Synod of Northern Indiana now the Michigan Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America. He served very successfully several pastorates. His ministry was blessed with large gatherings into the church and he always left the church better than he found it.

After his wife's health failed he gave up the regular pastorate and located in Butler where his wife departed this life on January 21, 1919.

He was united in marriage to Mrs. Ruth McClintic of Orville, Ohio, Sept. 1, 1919. This happy union came to a close on December 20, 1922, at the age of 75 years.

He leaves to survive him the above named sons, and daughters 18 grand children, one great grandchild, Maxine Elanor Brosy, of Elkhart, Ind., and his faithful and untiring wife who ministered to every want to make his life comfortable. She is worthy of praise and appreciation for this splendid service.

Rev. Crouse's life may be summed up in the following sentence: He was a true patriot and citizen of his country, a fine Christian gentleman, a good and devoted husband and father. Family worship was one of the established things in his home. He was a fearless preacher of the Word; as a preacher and a man he always commanded the respect and good will in the community in which he lived.

At the time of his death he was a member of St. Marks' Lutheran Church, Butler, Ind., a regular minister of the Synod of Michigan and a member of Meade Post G. A. R., Butler, Ind. Thus comes to a close a good and faithful life which has always stood for the best things.

THE HERRICK WILL

The will of the late Henry J. Herrick has been probated in the DeKalb circuit court. It was executed February 11, 1922, with Henry E. Johnson and W. P. Endicott as witnesses.

Mr. Herrick bequeathed $200 to his nephew, Lyle Herrick. The remainder of the estate is left to Elmer E. Traxler and his wife, Ida M. Traxler. Mr. Herrick set out in the will that this bequest was in recognition of the many acts of kindness shown him by Mr. and Mrs. Traxler and as partial recompense for their care of him during his declining years. He made his home with the Traxler's at Newville.

Mr. Herrick added a clause stating that he made no bequests to his relatives for the reason that they are all able financially to take care of themselves.

HENRY MAGGINIS DIES

Henry Magginis, of Newville, father of Mrs. Grace Lowe of Butler, died at St. Petersburg, Fla., last week.

He had gone to Florida to spend the winter with his sister, Mrs. Maggie Reed. Heart trouble is said to be the cause. He has been a well-known citizen of the county for some years.

The remains were brought to Newville for interment.

MAGGINIS

Henry W. Magginis, son of Daniel and Caroline E. Magginis, was born Sept. 6, 1861, on a farm east of Auburn, and departed this life on January 8, 1923, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Maragret J. Reed of St. Petersburg, Fla., aged 61 years, 4 months, 2 days.

On March 25, 1883, he was united in marriage to Maragret E. Owens and located on a farm near Auburn where he lived until the year 1896, when he moved near Newville. Here he made his home until about 7 years ago. Since that time he has lived most of the time in Florida. Mrs. Magginis preceded him in death on Dec. 7, 1904, and a daughter Mrs. Inez F. Omo, on Jan. 30, 1918.

At an early age, he united with the United Brethren Church, living a consistent Christian life to the end.

For a number of years the deceased has been in failing health, but he bore his affliction with great fortitude, always patient and cheerful.

He is survived by a son, Willis D. Magginis of Rock Hill, South Carolina, a daughter, Mrs. Grace Lowe of Butler, Ind., a sister, Mrs. Maragret J. Reed, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and a brother Wm. G. Magginis, of Auburn, Ind., two grandchildren, Mary Amelia Magginis and Francena Lowe and a step mother, Mrs. Caroline Magginis, of Auburn.

The funeral was held Saturday at the U. B. Church at Newville, Rev. Wertenbeger officiating. Interment was made in the Riverside cemetery at Newville.

F. M. MERICA

The death of Francis M. Merica, for many years prominently identified with the public schools of DeKalb county and other activities of a public nature, took place Monday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock at his home in Garrett.

Mr. Merica's death was not unexpected, although the attack that had a fatal termination was of very short duration. He had eaten dinner and thoroughly enjoyed it. While still sitting at the dining table he was stricken with apoplexy. In a moment or two he was unconscious and within five minutes he had expired.

Mr. Merica had suffered from heart attacks for twenty years, and they became more pronounced nine years ago. Two years ago, while county superintendent of schools, he had a severe attack in his office in the court house and since that time he had steadily failed. In March, 1921, he was stricken with almost complete blindness. His eyes improved to some extent later, so that he was able to distinguish objects. On August 23, 1921, he had a stroke of paralysis. He recovered sufficiently from this to walk but last November 8 he had another stroke. He was in a critical condition most of the time since.

MOUGHLER

Martha Jane Smith, daughter of Eliza and Jacob Smith was born at Milford Center, Defiance Co., Ohio, January 25, 1859, and departed from this mortal plain of life, at her home at Butler, Ind., where she has practically resided a quarter of a century.

She was united in marriage to David Moughler April 20, 1876. This union was blessed with six children, Roy Wilson, Fredrick Walter, Charles Lewis and Ida Bell May, all of whom reside at Butler, Maud and Lola May in infancy, preceded her to the spirit world.

In her early life she accepted Christ as her personal Savior and always amid the vicissitudes of life she proved faithful unto him. As a neighbor she has proven herself in word and deed and has been exclusively a devoted mother in the home.

She leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, three sons, one daughter, six grandsons, one granddaughter, four sisters and three brothers and many relatives and friends.

Dearest Mother, thou has left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He will all our sorrows heal.
Mother we bid you bood-bye, but in that brighter clime, will bid you good mornning.

Services were held at the Church of God at Butler Sunday, Feb. 11, Rev. B. E. Chambers, officiating. Interement at Butler cemetery.

WISE

Franklin Wise was born in Ashland Co., Ohio March 17, 1865. With his parents he came to Troy township, DeKalb Co. Indiana, December 12, 1866, where he spent the remainder of his life.

His opportunities for an education were limited to the district school of his local township.

As he grew up to manhood and engaged in the public interests of the township and county he commanded the respect of those with whom he mingled, and was selected for county councilman in which capacity he served acceptably for four years and was later elected and served for one term as trustee of the township.

Under the labors of Rev. Burton Baldwin, he was converted to Christ and joined the church at about the age of seventeen years and has been a constant and acceptable member ever since; having filled nearly every office of the local church at some time during his membership; occupying the offices of church trustee, church treasurer and class leader at the time of his decease.

On March 16, 1907 he was united in marriage with Miss Susanna Rickard who with two brothers, William of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Benjamin of Hamilton, Ind., survive him, one sister having preceded him in death.

About ten years ago, at the request of Brother Wise, Rev. J. W. Lilly, of Hicksville, Ohio, promised that if living at the time of his decease, he would officiate at his funeral which promise was redeemed at this time.

Brother Wise was highly esteemed as a citizen of the local community, a loyal and dependable Christian in the church and a devoted husband in the home.

Who can estimate the measure of the influence of such a life in any community. In a quiet, unpretentious way he stands for all that is pure and good and true, the things that make life worth living.

In the early morning of February 9, 1923 he transferred to his home above at the age of fifty-seven years, ten months and twenty-two days. We trust that our lives have been made the richer for having known Brother Wise even for a brief time.

FARNHAM

Eli Aseph Farnham, son of Dan'l and Caroline Farnham, was born on the old Farnham farm, three miles N. W. of Edgerton, March 28, 1847. This was twelve years before the railroad went through this section. Eli was the second in age of eleven children, three of whom still live, Ella, Elnora and Inez V.

His boyhood and young manhood was spent upon the old home place when he assisted his father in his store which at that time was located on the farm.

Here he lived until the outbreak of the Civil War. When eighteen years of age he answered the call for Volunteers and enlisted in Co. K., 68th Ohio Vol. Inf. In this command he answered all the demands made upon him, seeing service at Shiloh and Ft. Donaldson, until at the close of the first year he was mustered out on account of physical disability.

Returning to Edgerton a slight emaciated figure of scarce 70 lbs. with his native pluck and tenacity he went to Hillsdale College for a business course then again entered the merchandising and banking business with his father.

In March, 1878, he united in marriage with Miss Emma Rathbun, at Lodi, Wis. They began their home life in Edgerton, into which home six children were born: Harry R., Waldo C., Irma, who died in infancy, Eli A. Jr., Emma, who passed away in young womanhood, and Dana U.

Continuing as a pioneer business man in the community of his birth he won the confidence of a host of friends and business associates. He carried on a banking business through the years. The Farmer's Nat'l Bank of Bryan elected him to its vice-presidency.

In 1912 he transferred his place of banking to Butler in which place he merited the approval of the community.

During the past seven years Mr. Farnham has been battling with a series of attacks of the illness that finally in spite of his courageous struggle caused him to take his bed five weeks ago at the home of his son Harry in South Bend. Gradually his vitality ebbed away. With all the old tenacity of will and purpose he responded to the attention of his sons who attended him. But the struggle did not avail and on Saturday morning, March 3, he quietly passed on in to the larger life, having lived to within 25 days of his eightieth birthday.

Mr. Farnham was a charter member of the Edgerton K. of P. lodge and a comrade of the Walter A. Slaughter Post of the G. A. R.

The funeral was held at the home in Butler, Ind., Tuesday, March 6, 1923 and burial was at Edgerton, O. The services were conducted by Rev. Ryce Price Jones of Franklin, Ind., who was a very close friend of Mr. Farnham during their common residence in Edgerton, O. Rev Jones was assisted by Rev. R. J. Burns, of Butler.

INHOFE

Julia Ann Cotrill, daughter of John and Maria Cotrill, was born in Hancock County, Ohio, November 11, 1850, and came with her parents to DeKalb County, Indiana, when six years of age, residing on a farm in Wilmington township, where she spent her girlhood days.

November 11, 1873 she was united in marriage to Hollis B. Akins. This union was blessed with three children—two daughters and one son.

At the age of 20 she was converted and baptized under the ministry of Rev. Harris, and united with the Christian Church at Newville, Ind., where she has held membership ever since, being a faithful, loyal, earnest worker for the Master's cause. She was broad-minded in her religious views, giving generously of her time, talents and money to whatever church or Sunday School she attended, regardless of denomination or creed. For several years she was a teacher in the U. B. Sunday School having charge of the Young People's Class.

For many years she was a teacher in the public schools of DeKalb County, Ind., and Defiance County, Ohio, teaching eleven years at one place, accomplishing the unprecedented record of teaching 53 school weeks in one year, by teaching on Saturdays.

She was a charter member of Newville Chapter Order of Eastern Stars, No. 402, occupying the chair of Esther for a number of years.

After the death of her husband in 1908, she made her home with her children, being in Centralia, Washington one winter, a part of the time in Newville, and a part of the time on the farm near Newville Center.

April 6, 1911, she was united in marriage to Elijah Inhofe. They resided in Newville township until about three years ago when

Those tired hands have gone to rest,

They'll ne'er pass the shuttle through again,
For they are folded on her breast.

We seem to see that dear old form
We seem to hear the shuttle glide,
As with those hands all toil-worn
She passed it through from side to side.

Farewell mother, thou art called home,
And over yonder where the waters glide

We have lain thy clay in the silent tomb,

Mrs. Letitia C. Potter.

(By the Warren Tribune.)

Mrs. Letitia Coats Potter, widow of the late Henry A. Potter, passed away at her home, 509 Garden street, Warren, O., Thursday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock. Death was due to complications from which she had suffered recently. Word of the death of Mrs. Potter comes as a distinct shock to her host of friends here. She had not been in good health for some time but she was able to be about her home until last Sunday. Her condition was not considered serious until Tuesday night.

Mrs. Potter had been a resident of Warren for over twenty years and during that time had won her way into the hearts and deep affections of a large number of people. Her true Christian character, her pleasant manners, her genial disposition and her ever willingness to aid all made for her a legion of staunch friends.

Mrs. Potter was a native of Butler, Ind. In her early life she was a school teacher in her native state and she enjoyed a reputation of maintaining a high standard in her schools. In her school life, she endeared herself to her pupils, as was often proven by the many letters she received in afterlife from those whose early training had been received at her hand.

On June 23, 1886, she was united in marriage at Detroit, to Henry A. Potter of this city. They lived in Butler, Ind., and Cleveland before moving to Warren.

Mrs. Potter was a woman of strong Christian faith. At an early age she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and as long as she was able always took an active interest in the church work. Her home life was beautiful and her home was her chief delight. She was a kind neighbor always ready and willing to aid wherever possible. As a friend Mrs. Potter was true, loyal and honest.

Many years ago she united with the Order of the Eastern Stars at Butler, Ind., and had always kept her membership in that chapter. She was a member of the Book club of this city and when her health permitted took an active interest in its work.

Surviving are one brother, Worth Coats of St. Louis, Mo., several nephews and nieces residing in the west and a step-daughter, Miss Franc Potter of this city.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is essential for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. The second part outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It mentions the use of surveys, interviews, and focus groups to gather information from stakeholders. Additionally, it discusses the application of statistical analysis to interpret the collected data.

3. The third part describes the process of identifying key trends and patterns in the data. It highlights the need for a systematic approach to data analysis, involving the identification of relevant variables and the use of appropriate statistical techniques.

4. The fourth part focuses on the communication of findings to the relevant stakeholders. It stresses the importance of presenting the results in a clear and concise manner, using visual aids such as charts and graphs to enhance understanding.

5. The fifth part discusses the implications of the findings for the organization's strategy and decision-making. It suggests that the insights gained from the analysis should be used to inform the development of new initiatives and the refinement of existing ones.

6. The sixth part provides a summary of the key points discussed in the document. It reiterates the importance of data-driven decision-making and the role of the research team in supporting the organization's goals.

7. The seventh part includes a list of references to the sources used in the research. It cites various academic journals, books, and reports that provide a theoretical foundation for the study.

8. The eighth part contains a list of appendices, which include additional data, tables, and figures that support the main findings of the study.

9. The ninth part is a concluding statement that expresses the research team's commitment to ongoing research and improvement. It states that the findings of this study will be used to guide future research and to ensure the organization's continued success.

10. The tenth part is a final note of appreciation to the organization's leadership and staff for their support and cooperation throughout the research process.

TWO NEGROES ARE DEAD

Trouble over a woman led two negroes to fight a duel to the death in Altona Sunday morning. The dead:

Will Ingram, 26, and James Thomas, 38. The woman in the case was Ingram's wife.

The fight took place about 10:30 o'clock on the front porch and in the front yard of Tom Loving's home, which is a cottage located on the south side of the main street of the town. Thomas had just arrived a few hours before from LaPorte, perhaps with the intention of killing Ingram. The indications are that when Ingram learned Thomas was in town he determined at once to wreak vengeance upon him for breaking up his home. He stole a revolver and hunted up Thomas. Ingram fired the first shot, but Thomas was ready for a battle. Within a few seconds both were dead.

Ingram's weapon was a 38 calibre U. S. revolver containing five lead bullets. Thomas had a 32 calibre Savage automatic loaded with ten steel-jacketed bullets. Thomas died with two bullets in his chest, one of which entered his heart. Ingram's body contained nine perforations made by eight bullets. One went into his head, two into his chest and five into his back. His heart also was pierced.

Mrs. Fred Countryman.

Martha Griest Countryman was born near Spencerville, Ind., Aug. 1, 1860 and departed this life June 1, 1923.

She was united in marriage to Fred Countryman March 11, 1881. Her father and mother preceded her to the Great Beyond. She leaves to mourn their loss the husband, one brother and numerous relatives and friends. In her youth she found Christ and united with the Christian Church at Newville, Ind. She has fought a good fight, she has finished her course, has kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for her a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give her at that day.

While the Saviour was on earth he went about administering to the wants of other. He healed the sick, opened the eyes of the blind and was at all times and places doing something for others. So in the life of Mat (as she was called by all) she not only lived for herself and husband but for others—that practical Christian life that counts in this life and the life beyond. We will all do well to follow this splendid ex-

Mr. Keller again united in marriage in 1889 to Miss Mary Krafft and to this union five children were born, two of these children Misses Mary and Jane died in infancy.

There remains to mourn the loss the wife and six children, Charley, Marion, Edna, McKinley Keller and Audrie Souder, all reside near Butler, Ind., and Milton Keller who lives at Waterloo, Ind. With these their twelve grandchildren and one brother Wm. of Reading, Mich, two sisters, Mrs. Pifer of Butler and Lucinda Huth of Alliance, Ohio, join the children in their sorrow. He also leaves other relatives and friends.

Shortly after the death of his first companion Mr. Keller moved from Stark Co., Ohio, to a farm near Butler, Ind., and made his home on a farm until about two years ago when he moved to Butler where he resided until called by death.

He was an industrious man and prosperous farmer and will be greatly missed among us.

Samuel Lowe.

To all appearances, Samuel Lowe "fell asleep" Monday about noon in his home.

Mrs. Lowe had gone to Elkhart to visit her daughter Grace, and Mr. Lowe was at home alone. He has been supplying some neighbors with milk and in the evening he failed to deliver the milk and about 7:30 they called to find out why. They knocked on the door but got no reply so they opened the door and turned on the lights and found him lying on the couch apparently as comfortable as though asleep, but the body was cold and stiff so that it is supposed that he died about noon, while taking a nap.

Surviving are the wife, a son, Earl Lowe of near Butler; a daughter, Mrs. Hile of Elkhart; a brother, John of Butler; a sister, Mrs. Samuel Noragon and a niece, Mrs. Wm. Brown of Auburn.

The funeral will be held at the residence at 1:30 p. m. on Thursday.

And thus will pass away another of Butler's best citizens. Mr. Lowe has always stood for the best things in the community.

two children, Levon and Letha.

Prior to moving to Butler he had lived at Edgerton, Ohio and Ashley, Ind. For the past eight years he had lived in Butler. For a time he was engaged as traveling salesman for the Butler Co. and later he represented the Morman Stock Food Co. Mr. Mavis was an honorable citizen, a good neighbor and a kind and loving husband and father. He loved his family and no sacrifice was too great for him to make for their comfort. He will be missed in the home and community.

He began feeling badly last November and with the passing of time his illness took on a more serious form and last Saturday morning he went away. In his going he leaves a wife, one son, and one daughter; also a mother and two brothers, together with a host of friends and relatives to mourn his departure.

James Samuel Lowe

James Samuel Lowe, the son of John and Sarah Summers Lowe, was born in Fayette Co. Ind., near Connersville, Sept. 10, 1856. He died at his residence in Butler, Ind., June 11, 1923, age 66 years, 9 months and 1 day.

Feb. 24, 1881, he was united in marriage to Hanna Elizabeth Kepler. His wife and a daughter, Mrs. Wm. B. Hile of Elkhart and a son Earl J. of near Butler, five grandchildren; one brother and five sisters together with a great circle of friends and relatives deeply mourn his sudden and untimely demise.

Mr. Lowe was the third child in a family of five brothers and six sisters all of whom grew to maturity and were married before the family was broken into by death.

At the age of four years he came to DeKalb Co. in a covered wagon with his parents who settled on a farm north of Center school house Franklin Twp. At that time their dwelling was a log cabin with a puncheon floor.

Despite the privations of pioneer life Samuel grew into strong vigorous manhood, attaining exceptional physical strength, health and energy. Comparatively few men are naturally equipped for the battles of life better than he was.

His early education at public school was very limited but in the hard school of experience he was an apt pupil. There he acquired all the primary qualifications for success and useful citizenship. In the prime of life he took an active and sometimes leading part in social, fraternal, political and religious life of his community. He admired men of clean habits, industrious temperament, strong moral convictions and great courage. He had a strong sense of public duty. In times of necessity no task was too hard to be undertaken, no danger too great to be feared and no public or family need for which he would not sacrifice self. In fact Mr. Lowe's magnanimous sense of duty was too great, for it was partly to blame at least for the undermining of his health. He should have lived twenty years more, however though a comparatively young man at his death he has achieved most of the essential things for which men strive in this life. He had a comfortable and happy home: he had placed his children in position to take advantage of the best educational facilities. He had acquired a competency for possible old age or sickness and then in the end was granted his life long desire to pass out peacefully, quietly and quickly. Though not an active member of any church he contributed to their support and while not a participant in the formalities of religion his whole trust was in the Savior of men.

HARRY DERROW DROWNED

In a Gravel Pit Near Auburn.

Harry F. Derrow, a young man of eighteen years, residing near Norris Chapel, in Wilmington township, was accidentally drowned Sunday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock in a gravel pit located near his home.

The young man with a companion by the name of Harry Badman left the Derrow home at 1:30 to go to the gravel pit.

The deceased was not able to swim and devoted his time to wading in what he thought was shallow water. He suddenly stepped into a hole about twenty feet deep and he went down. His friend went to his rescue and endeavored to swim with him to a safe landing but the frightened boy fought desperately with his rescuer. Three times the hold was broken and Badman nearly lost his life in his endeavor to save him.

Harry disappeared under the water and help was summoned. It was not long until many willing hands assisted in the work of rescue. Frank Meese of St. Joe, succeeded at about 4 o'clock in getting hold of the drowned boy with a pole and the body was taken from the water.

Harry was born March 26, 1905 in Union township on the Joseph Springer farm and with his parents moved the last day of January to Wilmington township. He was the only son and is survived by two sisters, Orla May and Thelma Irene, and his parents.

Eleanor Bell.

Eleanor Bell, oldest child of W. H. and Mattie Bell, was born in Wabash county, Illinois, July 27, 1900. She departed this life at the family home near Butler, Indiana, June 23, 1923, aged twenty-two years, ten months and twenty-seven days.

It was her cherished ambition to become a teacher and to this end she did faithfully and with credit and the highest praise of her teachers the twelve years school work required to finish the grades and an accredited high school course which she completed at Harlan, Indiana in the year 1920, with more than the required credits. She had done high school work in two of the best high schools in Illinois, ranking in grades with the best students. Had health permitted she would have further prepared for her life's work by faithfully and diligently doing years of college study necessary to place her at the head of her chosen profession.

At about 12 years of age Eleanor united with the Church of Christ and until her death lived a faithful and consistent member. Until her health failed she was always a regular and constant attendant upon the church's services and worship and was particularly active in Bible school and Christian Endeavor work, never allowing her studies to so occupy her mind as to cause her to forget the Master's church. For with her all preparation was but a means to the end of saving her own and the souls of others.

She was a favorite with the girls and stood high in the esteem of all who knew her.

Dear Eleanor, you have gone to be with Jesus and the heavenly Father where sickness can not be and where life's developments and usefulness continue throughout all eternity.

Our prayer is that in God's gracious providence we may so live as to be permitted to be with you about His great white throne and watch in you that beautiful character growth which had its beginning here on earth and knows no ending there.

H. A. Hinklin of Garrett, coroner of DeKalb county, filed a report of his inquest in the death of Sonny Taylor, Garrett colored youth, in the office of E. A. McClintock, clerk of the DeKalb circuit court, Thursday.

The lad's body was picked up from the cinder pit at the B. & O. shops in Garrett by a crane Tuesday. He was one of a family of twenty-one children.

Sonny was seventeen years old and was employed in cleaning flues. No one saw the accident in which he lost his life. From the information obtained by Coroner Hinklin, no one else was about the pit at the time he disappeared, which was between 1:30 and 4 p. m. It was at first considered probable that he met with foul play, but after an exhaustive in-

DEATH ROLL

John Wesley Shafer

John Wesley Shafer, son of Henry and Alice Shafer, was born near Holgate, Henry County, Ohio, July 16, 1887, and came to Indiana with his parents in January, 1923, residing on a farm in Stafford Township, DeKalb County.

December 31, 1906 he was united in marriage to Miss Bethel Rhoads. This union was blessed with two sons—Carl K. and Russell A.

For 2½ years they lived in Peoria, Illinois, since which time they have resided on his father's farm a mile north of Newville.

June 25, he was stricken with appendicitis and taken to Sacred Heart Hospital in Garrett, where he underwent an operation. From the very start, his condition was considered critical and when peritonitis developed, all hope was lost. The death angel claimed him July 5, 1923 at the age of 35 years, 11 months, 19 days.

He was an energetic, ambitious young man, well liked by young and old. He was an obedient son, a good husband and a kind father. The entire community regrets the loss of such a good citizen. Truly his sun hath gone down while it was yet day.

He is survived by the widow and two sons, also the father, mother, one sister and one brother.

"No one heard the door that opened,

When he passed beyond our call,
Soft as loosened leaves of roses,
One by one our loved ones fall."

Death occurred within a half hour after his removal from the scene of the accident to the hospital. His injuries consisted, according to Dr. U. G. Souder, of a crushed skull, broken right arm, fractured chest and pelvic arch. He was unconscious from the moment of the accident to the time of his death.

Mr. Wyatt was employed in the tube vulcanizing department of the factory. It was his duty to wrap tubes, place them in the steam vulcanizer and take them out after being cured. It was while employed in this manner Wednesday morning that the head of a steam vulcanizer blew off as he was walking in front of it to shut off the steam, struck him and hurled him about 35 feet across the room where he landed near a post. Here his body was found after the steam, which filled the portion of the room where he had been working had sufficiently cleared away, to disclose where he lay.

J. J. EAKRIGHT

Passed Away Last Thursday After Short Illness.

John J. Eakright, one of the most widely known men of DeKalb county, and resident of Auburn, died at his home in Auburn Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock after an illness of less than a week from intestinal obstruction. Mr. Eakright was about his usual avocation as late as Monday. He had been drawing a plat for George Abel for a new circular cemetery, when he went to his home complaining of not feeling well. He grew worse from that time and the news of his death Thursday evening came as a shock to his many friends.

The deceased was an active member of the St. Mark's Lutheran church and the teacher of the Mission class of the Sunday School which is composed of ladies. He was also the moving spirit in the Lexington Martial band of this city and acted as leader. For many years Mr. Eakright has been prominent at the Old Settlers' Day celebrations and many people will recall with what enthusiasm he entered into the musical part of the yearly program.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the St. Mark's Lutheran church, the Rev. S. E. Slater, the pastor officiating. Burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

John Joel Eakright was born March 15, 1852, in Wilmington township about two miles south of Butler and was the son of Abraham and Susannah (Miller) Eakright. Abraham Eakright was a descendant of English parentage, the father, Samuel Eakright coming to the United States in 1811. He soon after enlisted in the service of the United States in the war of 1812 and in the year 1836 moved to DeKalb County and settled in Wilmington township. When the family first moved to DeKalb county, their only neighbors were Indians and it was eighteen months before Mrs. Eakright saw a white woman. The trading point of the family was Fort Wayne which was reached by pirogue boating on the St. Joe river.

The Eakright family took a prominent place in the early life of this locality and Samuel Eakright built the first bridge across the St. Joe river at Newville, where the new bridge now stands. He was also the first road commissioner of DeKalb county.

John J. Eakright was reared on his father's farm and received his education in Butler and the high school at Auburn. In the fall of 1873 he began teaching school and continued this vocation successfully until 1885, when he compiled a history of DeKalb county. Resuming his pedagogical work then, he continued it until he had taught twenty-five years, of which period eighteen years was in his home district, and in later years he taught many children of former pupils, and in these children he plainly observed traits of character that had been noticeable in their parents. He had a good influence over these children winning them and then stimulating them by kindness and argument rather than by force. Because of the personal interest he manifested in his pupils and the close touch that has been maintained between him and them during subsequent years, he received many letters of grateful appreciation from them.

In 1884 Mr. Eakright was elected justice of the peace for a term of four years, and in 1895 he was elected trustee of Wilmington township, serving the regular term and the extension period because of legislative enactment, amounting to a total of five years and three months. In 1905 he was elected county surveyor, serving two terms with eminent satisfaction to all concerned, and was subsequently elected city engineer of Butler, but, owing to an injury received in a runaway accident, which disabled him after about a month of official service, he gave up the position and returned to Auburn, where he resided until death. During the administration of Mayor Eli Walker in Auburn, Mr. Eakright acted as engineer for the City of Auburn.

Politically, Mr. Eakright was a Republican and took a keen interest in the success of his party, as well as in local public affairs, giving his support to every movement which promised in any way to advance the local welfare.

On October 28, 1874, Mr. Eakright married Acelia Treman, who was born in Wilmington township about two miles west of Butler, the daughter of Edgas and Laura (Spencer) Treman.

The deceased was a man of marked ability, and has written a number of poems which have been published in current magazines and periodicals and which have received many commendatory words of praise. His poems are varied in character, pathetic, humorous and other styles and all are very readable and of high literary merit.

The deceased is survived by a widow, two sisters, Mrs. William Hoagland of West Ninth street, Auburn, Mrs. Lewis Manrow of near Camden, Mich., and one brother, Ellsworth A. Eakright, recently appointed postmaster at Butler. A son, Orton Edgar, is dead and a brother, Edward W.

WM. YATES KILLED

Struck by a New York Central Train and Badly Crushed.

Esquire Wm. Yates, was struck by a New York Central train about 2:30 p. m. Tuesday while driving his auto over the tracks at the Countryman crossing east of Butler, and instantly killed. The mangled body was found between the tracks about 100 feet east of the crossing.

Mr. Yates was on his way out to call on his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Mutfeld and it seems that his car stalled on the track. It is said that the train men say the car was standing still on the crossing when they saw it.

H. E. Johnson & Son were called and brought the remains to their undertaking establishment where the body was prepared for burial.

The burial will take place at Fostoria, Ohio after a funeral service here.

Mr. Yates was a man past 80 years old and has been a resident of Butler and vicinity for many years. He narrowly escaped death about 30 years ago when Sam Deeters attempted to shoot him. He was a soldier of the Rebellion. Further particulars will be published in an obituary next week.

William Lee Yates.

William Lee Yates, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Yates was born in Wyandotte County, Ohio, April 6, 1941. Departed this life July 31, 1923 at the age of 82 years.

In April 1861 he enlisted at the first call of the President for 75,000 men immediately after the firing on Fort Sumpter but the company could not be accepted because of the lack of equipment. He again enlisted and was mustered in with company H, 49th Ohio Infantry at Tiffin, Ohio on August 15, 1861 with two brothers, John W. and Daniel M. Yates.

He was with his company in the battle of Shiloh. He also participated in the battles of Corinth, Mississippi, Stone River, Liberty Gap, Chickamauga and Missionary Ridge and in February 1864 re-enlisted for the war.

He was with his company every day for 96 days in the campaign to Atlanta, Georgia where in one single engagement the company lost one-half their men.

After the capture of Atlanta his regiment returned to Nashville, Tenn., under General Thomas and he participated in the battles of Franklin and Nashville, Tenn., where his brother John was killed by his side while leading the company in the last charge made in that memorable battle.

He was three times slightly wounded but never seriously enough to be disabled. He was finally discharged at Columbus, Ohio in December, 1865.

After returning to his home in Wood county, Ohio he was converted and joined the Methodist Protestant church in February 1866. In 1867 he was licensed to preach the gospel and employed as assistant pastor on the home circuit for 18 months when he joined the Muskingum conference of the Methodist Protestant church and was ordained a minister and accepted an appointment in Muskingum county, O. After six years service in the conference and having had the privilege of receiving more than three hundred members into the church because of an affection of the throat he was compelled to abandon the regular work of the ministry.

In November 1869 he was married to Phoebe Jane Feasel of Wood county, Ohio who departed this life the 9th day of June 1885. There were born to this union four children, all of whom survive him. They are Mrs. J. V. Smurr and Mrs. Charles Mutzfeld of Butler, Ind., Mrs. J. A. Topping of Detroit, Mich., and Frank Yates of Toledo, O.

After the death of his first wife which occurred while the children were all small, he was again united in marriage to Sarah McCormick on the third day of May 1886. In 1889 Mr. Yates and his family moved to Butler where they have resided continuously since that time.

He was a member of the Methodist church of Butler and affiliated with the G. A. R. Post. He spent all her life as a resident of DeKalb Co., and was one of the oldest and best known citizens in the county. She was a woman of high ideals, religiously, socially, and in fact in every way that pertained to good citizenship. From early childhood she was identified with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was intensely interested in the welfare of Christ's Kingdom. During the last few years her health would not always permit her to attend in person the services of the church, yet her ardent spirit of Christian devotion grew stronger with the years. While the passing of the years had a tendency to add physical infirmities yet the path that leads to the city of God grew brighter and brighter. She was a good woman. We shall miss her but her sacred memory shall linger with us. In her departure she leaves, together with the above mentioned children, 3 brothers, Casper of Little Rock, Ark.; William of Iona, Mich., and Frank of Syracuse, Kans.; 22 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

MARY BRATTON ESTATE

The will of the late Mary Bratton, who died at Butler Sept. 7, has been probated in the office of County Clerk E. A. McClintock.

The will was executed Oct. 14, 1921, with C. W. Campbell and W. Endicott as witnesses.

To her niece, Della Porter, and Mrs. Porter's husband, Melville C. Porter, Mrs. Bratton left all of her property. She stated that her brothers and other relatives are left no part of the estate "for the reason that my niece and her husband have cared for me and otherwise treated me kindly and are best entitled to my property at the time of my death."

Mr. Porter was nominated in the will to be executor, but he and his wife waived this right and nominated Charles W. Campbell to serve as administrator. Mr. Campbell qualified by filing bond of $1,000, with Jesse Oberlin as surety.

The estate is estimated to be worth $2,500, including $500 in personal property and $2,000 in real estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter reside in Toledo.

THE HARRIET HANES WILL

The will of the late Harriet E. Hanes of Wilmington township, has been probated in the DeKalb circuit court. The will was made July 24, 1918, with Wm. P. Endicott and Nellie D. Endicott as witnesses.

Samuel Lowe of Butler, was named in the will to be executor, but he afterward died and on June 14, 1923, a codicil was added nominating Cameron R. Hanes, Harry Altenberg Hanes and George Carlton Hanes to act jointly as executors. The codicil was witnessed by O. S. Fisher and H. C. Springer.

Mrs. Hanes stated that her clothing should be divided among her children as they may mutually agree. The executors are to sell the remainder of her property. Then the sum of $750 is to be paid to a daughter, Clara L. McCague of Butler, and a like amount to a son, George Carlton Hanes of Butler. Four other children, Harry Altenberg Hanes of Waterloo, Ella Gardner of St. Francis, Wis., Laura Wilametta Wagner of Goshen, and Sarah Heffelfinger of Chicago, are to receive $500 each. No provision is made for another son, Cameron R. Hanes of Chicago, for the reason that she had previously deeded five acres of land to him, which she considered of the value of $500.

The residue of the estate is to be divided equally among the seven children.

Cameron R. Hanes, Harry Altenberg Hanes and George Carlton Hanes waived their right to serve as executors of the will and the seven children nominated John A. Shafer of Butler, to be made administrator. Mr. Shafer qualified by filing $2,500 bond, with Henry Gunsenhouser and Daniel Brown as sureties.

The estate is valued at $15,200, of which $1,200 is personal property and $14,000 is real estate.

JUDGE BRATTON IS DEAD

Passed Away Last Tuesday Morning from Cancer of Liver.

The death of Emmett A. Bratton, a former judge of the DeKalb circuit court and one of north-eastern Indian's prominent citizens, took place at his home in Angola Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Judge Bratton had been in poor health for a dozen years. In 1914 his condition became serious and he went to the Mayo Bros. sanitarium at Rochester, Minn., for treatment. He gradually improved and resumed his law practice, although he was far from being in good health. Last January he submitted to an operation for liver trouble, performed at his home. He recovered from the operation to a considerable extent and again practiced law. In July he went to the Mayo Bros. hospital and took treatments for two weeks. He was afterward able to do some work, but was in court at Angola for the last time on September 10. The cause of his death was cancer of the liver.

Born in Williams county, Ohio, Judge Bratton was sixty-eight years of age at the time of his death. After graduating from Michigan university at Ann Arbor, he entered the practice of law at Angola forty-five years ago and he had resided there ever since. He took part in republican politics and a number of years ago he served two terms as prosecuting attorney for Steuben and DeKalb counties. In 1908 he was elected to the bench and served as judge for the two counties for a term of six years. When his term expired he resumed the practice of law. He and Dudley W. Gleason were in partnership for the last three years.

Judge Bratton's first wife died

COMMITTED SUICIDE

Auburn Woman Throws Herself in Front of Train and is Horribly Mangled.

Mrs. Charles A. Gillett of Auburn Junction, met death in a horrible manner last Wednesday morning about 11 o'clock, when she threw herself across the rails in front of west bound B. & O. passenger train No. 7, just east of the Auburn-Fort Wayne road crossing in South Auburn.

Portions of the body were strewn along the track for a distance of between three and four hundred feet and what remained of the mangled body was found a few rods east of the crossing.

The husband of the unfortunate woman was in Fort Wayne at the time of the tragedy but identification was made by Forest Beaty of South Wayne street, and Arthur Guilford, an employe of Mr. Gillett, from portions of her clothing strewn along the tracks.

Mrs. Beaty and Mrs. Ernest Webb were in the first house north of the railroad on Wayne street and saw a woman walking east along the right-of-way. She went perhaps four hundred feet and waited on the north side of the track until the approach of the train and then deliberately threw herself in front of the engine. Just before the train struck, Mrs. Webb turned her head away from the scene but Mrs. Beaty witnessed the suicide.

Mrs. Gillett, according to her husband, has made several attempts on her life. Not long ago she was missed one night and was found sitting on the rails of the B. & O. tracks near Auburn Junction waiting for a train, and at another time she had an ice pick in her hands while hiding in the factory. It was necessary to take the pick away from her.

MURDER AT GARRETT

Colored Woman Shot by a Jealous Suitor.

Mrs. Irene Bruno, colored, wife of Joe Bruno, white, was shot and instantly killed by Ernest Fields, also colored, Sunday night at 8 o'clock in the Busy Bee restaurant on North Peters street, within a few feet of the Baltimore & Ohio roundhouse.

Fields then disappeared and the officers have been unable to locate him.

The motive for the crime was jealousy, in the opinion of the police.

Mrs. Bruno was twenty-three years old and was the proprietor of the restaurant where the tragedy was enacted. Fields, who was employed as a janitor at the Baltimore & Ohio station, was in the place and ate an order of doughnuts and drank a cup of coffee. He was waited upon by Mrs. Bruno's mother, Mrs. Charity Ann Thompson. Mrs. Bruno and her four year old daughter, Edith Marie, were in the kitchen at the time. Mrs. Bruno was eating her supper.

A few minutes after Fields went out the front door there was a knock at the rear door, within a few feet of where Mrs. Bruno was eating. Mrs. Bruno asked her mother to open the door. Mrs. Thompson complied and she found Fields at the door. She asked him what he wanted. At that instant Mrs. Bruno walked to the door. Fields seized her by the arm and slapped her. Mrs. Thompson stepped between her daughter and Fields to shield Mrs. Bruno. Fields pushed Mrs. Thompson to one side, whipped out a revolver and fired three shots at Mrs. Bruno in quick succession.

Fields then backed out the doorway and vanished in the darkness. Mrs. Bruno gasped and stumbled through the door of the restaurant and fell dead within ten feet of where she was standing when she was shot.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, it has pleased the all-wise Father in his Divine Providence to remove from our midst, and from the membership of our lodge, Brother William Chambers, therefore be it resolved: First, that in the death of Brother Chambers, the Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 21 of Butler, loses a worthy and honored member, whose example together with his faithful service to the lodge will be sadly missed.

Second, That we bow in submission to the dispensation which has removed our Brother from us, and that we as a lodge shall ever cherish his memory and endeavor to emulate his noble example in the faithful performance of the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Butler weekly papers, and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of the lodge.

BRINK

Frank A. Brink, the dean of the DeKalb County Bar, passed on to that Highest of all Courts at 6:15 P. M. Sunday, November 11, 1923. His passing was as peaceful and serene as his life had been. He was beloved of all and the friend of all who knew him.

He was born and raised on a farm near Plymouth, Richland County, Ohio, March 2, 1855, receiving the best of education in the schools at Plymouth, O., where he graduated with honors in 1876. He was admitted to the Bar in 1879, opening an office in Butler, Ind., where he has practiced more or less continuously ever since, with marked success and honor.

In 1882 he was united in marriage to Jennie Baxter, residing near Butler. Of this union one son, John Brink, now living in Cleveland, O., remains, sorrow having entered their home in 1886 taking their young son George; and again the Grim Reaper, who is always harvesting, garnered in Jennie Baxter Brink and took her to her eternal home in 1888.

He was principal of the schools here in Butler, and also at Newville for some years, initiating many of the modern methods of teaching, which have since then become standard in most schools.

In 1892, he was married to Alverda M. Estry at Newville, Ind., moving back to Butler the next year, where he has resided ever since. He was city clerk of Butler several terms, having been elected and reelected by the citizens of his home town, who insisted on his representing them, term after term. Just prior to his last sickness, he was appointed city attorney, which office his sickness compelled him to resign.

He was always a "booster" for all, and many a young man and woman was helped along their way by the council and advice, he freely gave to all.

He leaves a widow, one son, John Brink, two daughters, Mrs. Chas. Oberlin and Mrs. Cleve Grube, one granddaughter, Madeline Grube to

CREAGER

Geneva Birdeen Creager was born February 4, 1905, at her home on the farm two miles north east of Butler, Indiana, and on Oct. 31, 1923, at the age of 18 years, 8 months and 27 days, she left the old home, and her parents and brothers for her eternal home in the Celestial City, where sickness and death are unknown.

About the age of 11 years she was stricken with disease which left her in delicate health, and handicapped her young life very much she having to give up her school and much of her active work.

Regardless of her affliction she was of a cheerful disposition, bringing sunshine and comfort into the home and to her friends and associates.

She united with the United Brethren church at Big Run when quite young and was very devoted to her Sunday school and religious duties, and whenever her health would permit, regardless of the weather, she was always found in her place.

Her disposition conformed with the Divine word, which told her that all things work together for good to those who do the will of the Father in Heaven. Her last and parting words to her mother meant more than words can express, when she looked into her face, and with a smile said, "I am so happy," repeating it twice, then peacefully slipped away.

Nov. 15, 1923 Thurs.

No mines of earth could have yielded her dear ones a greater treasure than those few words which assured them of her title to her mansion already prepared in Heaven.

One infant brother preceded her to the home beyond.

She leaves to mourn their loss a father, mother and two brothers, and a host of relatives and friends.

Let us all so live that when that hour comes to us we can look our friends in the face as she did, and say we are happy in the hope of eternal life.

Dear Geneva how we'll miss you, but really 'tis only—

"Passing out of the shadows,
Into the clearer day—
Why do we call it dying
This sweet going away?"

Funeral services were held at the home Friday, Nov. 2, at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. C. M. Eberly, of Waterloo, her former pastor. Interment in Butler cemetery.

John F. Greenawald

John F. Greenawald, son of John S. and Mary F. Greenawald was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, October 11, 1862, died at his late residence on North Pearl Street, Butler, Indiana, November 24, 1923.

He was married to Clara Garber on April 30, 1885. To this union two children were born, Bessie O. Craun on January 25, 1886, and Audra May Carey February 19, 1893. The last named child preceded her father in death on July 16, 1916, having been killed in a railroad accident.

He lived for a number of years in Stafford Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, and was a member of the West Milford U. B. Church, having joined the church under the pastorate of Rev. Chas. E. Kriebel. He leaves to mourn his death, his faithful wife, one daughter, four grandchildren, two sisters, Mary Miller of Butler and Jennie Casebere of Ft. Wayne, two brothers, Charles Greenawald of Grand Rapids, Michigan, Grant Greenawald of West Milford Center, Ohio, and a host of friends and neighbors.

John, as he was known to his friends, was an upright citizen, and always foremost in doing right, a consistent Christian, a kind husband and a loving father. He suffered from an incurable disease for a number of years, yet he was always patient and often said he was ready to go. His last words were "Lord Jesus have mercy."

"I can not say and I will not say That he is dead—he is just away. With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown And he left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be, since he lingers there."

TWO GIRLS INSTANTLY KILLED

While in the act of playing a joke on their boy companions, Estella May Bailey, better known as Betty Bailey, and Mary Duguid, two young Auburn girls, drove an automobile in front of a New York Central passenger train at the Wayne street crossing in Waterloo at 9:45 o'clock last Thursday night and were instantly killed.

The young men, Carl Grimm and Oscar Longbrake of Garrett, had taken the girls out for a ride in Carl's Ford touring car. After reaching Waterloo they stopped at the Grimm restaurant just north of the railroad crossing. The restaurant is owned by Carl's uncle. The boys went into the restaurant to get some candy, leaving the girls in the machine. A few minutes later the boys heard the car being started and while they do not know the girls' purpose it is believed they intended to drive a short distance to play a joke on the boys and then return.

An instant after they started there was a crash. West-bound train No. 43, traveling at high speed, struck the automobile squarely, throwing it about 100 feet. Betty was found lying about ten feet south of the automobile. She had a fracture at the base of the skull, both lower limbs were terribly crushed and she had scalp and face wounds. Mary was found forty feet west of the automobile. Her neck was broken and her left leg was fractured below the hip. Both girls were dead when found.

Miss Bailey was 15 years of age and was a daughter of Virgil B. Bailey and wife of East Ninth street, Auburn. Miss Duguid was aged 16 and was an adopted daughter of W. H. Duguid and wife of West Ninth street, Auburn. Carl Grimm is an employe of the Garrett postoffice and Oscar Longbrake resides with his parents on South Harrison street in Garrett, and is employed in the Baltimore & Ohio power plant. Both are about twenty years of age.

TWO MORE GIRLS KILLED

On N. Y. Central Railroad Crossing at Kendallville.

Last Friday night at 11:30, two more Auburn girls were killed in an auto accident, this time on the N. Y. Central crossing at Kendallville.

A party of six girls and one man attended the Auburn-Kendallville basket ball game and the young man, Aaron H. Satovsky, was to take his girl home to Kendallville when a party of five others asked to go along for the ride. As they were returning south on Riley street and approaching the New York Central crossing, it seems that they were going so fast that they could not stop when they discovered a freight train passing on the crossing. Mr. Satovsky tried to turn his car to one side when the rear of the car slid around into the train and two of the girls in the rear seat were killed. Miss Irene Diehl, aged 17, died at once and Miss Lucile Miller died later. Others were injured more or less.

When will young people learn the dangers of such driving. The young man had recently been arrested for fast driving but had been acquitted.

York to Ransom, Co., Hillsdale, Mich., where she grew to young womanhood. She was united in marriage to Mr. Adam H. Fullmer Sept. 27, 1873. Three children were born to this union, two daughters and one son. One daughter and son preceded her in death. They moved from Michigan to Blakeslee, Ohio in 1890 and in 1896 located in Butler, Ind., where she lived ever since. Mr. Fullmer died Sept. 29, 1914.

She was united in marriage to Warren E. Scoville Dec. 26, 1918. With him she resided on the farm six miles south of Butler until a few weeks ago when on account of failing health she was brought to her daughters, Mrs. F. Stage, where she died.

Surviving are the daughter, Mrs. Stage, one step-daughter whom she reared from childhood. Mrs. Myrtle Lozier of Ransom, Mich., one grand daughter and three great grandchildren and the much bereaved husband, W. E. Scoville and one brother Delose Grosvenor of Alma, Mich.

She became a Christian at an early age of 13 years and shortly after joined the U. B. Church. She was faithful to her church but after her marriage to Mr. Scoville she changed her membership to the Disciple Church at Newville where she belonged at the time of her death.

She was a faithful companion, kind and loving mother, good neighbor, consistent Christian. Her hope of the Eternal brightened and her prospects of Heaven became more real as the end approached.

Her sickness was of long duration the end not unexpected. All was done for her possible by her loved ones. She has gone from us but will not be forgotten.

SPEEDER ACCIDENT

On N. Y. Central Results in Death of Joe Bovlick.

A railroad crossing accident in which three section men were injured and a Ford car was smashed occurred Monday Morning on a grade crossing of the New York Central railroad, west of Butler.

Clint Oberlin, Joe Bovlick and John Conkle, section men, residing in Butler, were riding on a railway motor speeder when the Ford, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Haven Ross of near Butler, drove across the tracks in front of the speeder. The three men were thrown from the speeder when it struck the Ford and each sustained cuts about the head when they struck the stone ballast on the railroad right-of-way. The front end of the Ford was smashed but the occupants were not injured.

Mr. Conkle's neck was sprained and the top of his head was cut so that six stitches were necessary to close the wound. Mr. Oberlin was badly cut on the face and four stitches were necessary to close a cut on his chin. The extent of the injury on the forehead and nose have not been found out on account of the swelling. As we go to press the swelling is leaving the face so that Mr. Oberlin is able to partly open one eye. Both eyes have been swollen shut since the accident.

Mr. Conkle has not been able to lie down since the accident.

Mr. Bovlick was the most seriously hurt and had to be brought home on a stretcher. The east bound passenger train due here at 7:30 A. M. stopped and brought the four men to Butler. Freeman Zents though badly shaken was only slightly injured.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Bovlick was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital at Garrett where an operation was immediately performed. Mr. Bovlick lived about two hours after the operation and passed away at 11:30 P. M. and the body was brought to the Johnson morgue at 3 A. M., where the body was prepared for burial before being taken to his home on Walnut street. Mr. Bovlick never regained consciousness after the accident.

Mr. Bovlick was born at Austria, Germany 61 years ago and came to the U. S. at the age of 4 years. He leaves a wife, four children, two sisters, one half sister, one brother and three grandchildren. Funeral will be held Thursday at 1:30 P. M. at the Christian Church. Burial in Butler cemetery.

BAD WRECK ON

N. Y. CENTRAL

One Man Killed and Much Damage Done Last Friday Night.

What might have been a very serious wreck occurred when one man was instantly killed Friday night at 9:55 in a wreck on the New York Central railroad three miles east of Waterloo, when fast mail and express train No. 43, westbound, crashed into the rear of a westbound freight No. 61.

The caboose was reduced to kindling wood and a car of coal on the freight and the engine, tender and babbage car of the mail train were derailed. The track was torn up for nearly a hundred rods suspending traffic on both east and west bound tracks until Saturday noon.

Four men were in the caboose of the freight train just before the oncoming train crashed into it. Three escaped injury by jumping but H. E. Young, a brakeman whose residence was in Elkhart, was instantly killed when he went back into the caboose to get his coat. He was crushed under the wreckage and his body was badly mutilated. His watch stopped at 9:55 indicating the exact time of the collision.

Officials gave as a reason for the crash, the failure of the crew on the passenger engine to see signals through the frosted windows of the cab. It is said the engine passed two caution and one stop signal before hitting the freight train.

loaded car of coal, just ahead of the caboose, which broke the force of the west bound mail train the wreck would probably have been more serious. Coal was scattered all over the tracks and the splintered caboose was used to make a huge bon fire by which railroad employes kept warm while clearing away the wreckage.

The wrecking train from Elkhart was called and started clearing away the debris which obstructed the parallel tracks. At 1:30 Saturday afternoon the first east bound train was routed over the westbound track. Other traffic was detoured through Auburn over the New York Central and the P. C. C. & St. L. railroads Friday night and Saturday morning. The cars on the mail and express train were backed to Butler and re routed.

Coroner H. A. Hinklin of Garrett, who was called to the scene of the wreck, gave permission for the removal of the dead brakeman and he was taken to Butler by A. E. Phelps, the undertaker, where his body was prepared for burial. Relatives were notified and left Elkhart for Butler Saturday. The body was taken to Bryan, Ohio, to the home of his father-in-law and burial will be at Edgerton, Ohio, the former home of the widow. Mr. Young was the father of three children. Coroner Hinklin held an inquest at Waterloo at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

BENJAMIN HAYNES DEAD
Pioneer Resident of DeKalb Co.
Passed Away Last Thursday.

Benjamin Haynes, aged eighty-three years, and a pioneer resident of DeKalb County passed away last Thursday at his home three miles northwest of Garrett in Richland township, death being due to a complication of diseases.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon from Union Church, Rev. J. H. Urey officiating. Interment in Union cemetery.

Mr. Haynes was born January 18, 1841, in Putnam county, Ohio. When he was a child the family came to DeKalb county. On April 15, 1863, Mr. Haynes and Miss Susanna Eisenberg were married. They lived for a time in Noble county, but they spent most of their married life in DeKalb county on the farm where Mr. Haynes died.

Of eight children, five are living: E. F. Haynes, of Garrett, Mrs. Ellen Freed, six miles northwest of Garrett, Mrs. Roselda Hoover, of Iowa City, Ia., Mrs. Della Smith, of near Hudson, and Mrs. Sarah Yontz, of Topeka, Ind. Mr. Haynes also leaves one brother, Egbert Haynes, of Garrett, and one sister, Mrs. Chloe Drake, of Ligonier. Mr. Haynes was a member of the Church of the Brethren.

The sickness of Mr. Haynes extended over a period of twenty-six months and he was bedfast most of the time for the last month. Death was caused by a complication of diseases.

Sarah E. Rohrbaugh.

Sarah E. Rohrbaugh, daughter of Charles and Sarah A. Rohrbaugh was born in DeKalb Co., Ind., Nov. 17, 1857, departed this life Friday, January 25, 1924, age 68 years 2 months and 8 days.

She had made her home in the community all her life, having remained at the family home until death broke the chains that bound the family together, then she felt it her duty to go here and there wherever her services were needed. She was always anxious to assist those who needed her help. She found comfort in helping others who were sick and in distress. At the time of her illness she was at the home of her brother in Ft. Wayne. Her illness was of such character as to require the service of a surgeon and she was removed to the Methodist hospital where she died last Friday.

She leaves four brothers, Christopher of Shawnee, Okla., Benjamin F., of Edgerton, Solomon Z. of Lincoln, Neb., and John M., of Fort Wayne. These with a number of relatives and friends remain.

Wm. H. Wolcott Goes to Rest

William H. Wolcott was born near Rochester, Monroe county, N. Y., Aug. 25th, 1844. He was of an old New England family—the first Wolcott came from Tolland, England, in 1630 and settled in Windsor, Conn. At the age of 10 years he went with his parents and other relatives to Steuben county, Ind., where they took up their residence in the midst of pioneer conditions. He was the eldest of eight children. At the beginning of the Civil war his father enlisted in defense of the Union, serving in Co. A., 29th Ind., V. V. I., leaving he eldest son in care of the family. It was a time when patriotism flamed high and when the call came for recruits, the oldest son, the subject of this sketch, enlisted in the same company and regiment with his father, but before he reached the front the battle of Chicamau-ga was fought, his father was captured and never seen again by his family.

Soon afterwards the mother died and the family was scattered. After serving his country until the close of the war he returned to Steuben county, where he was united in marriage to Sarah Myers. To this union was born one child, George H., at whose home in Maumee, he passed away the evening of February 1, 1924, aged 79 years, 5 months and 6 days.

He was a life long member of the United Brethren church. He was a member of the F. & A. M., and the Grand Army of the Republic, in which order he was active and much interested.

His life on earth full of years and service is closed. In him was fulfilled the ancient and Divine promise "Thou shalt come to thy grave in full age like as a shock of corn cometh in its season." We owe a debt of gratitude to these heroes of other days who cleared the wilderness, stood in defense of the Union and made possible the many blessings that we enjoy today.

He leaves to mourn, his aged wife, one son, five grandchildren five great grandchildren, one brother, one sister, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the home of Rev. G. H. Wolcott, Sunday at 3 p. m., conducted by Rev. E. S. Weaver, superintend-

Mrs. Elizabeth Potter.

Mrs Elizabeth Potter, daughter of William and Catherine King, was born in Franklin township DeKalb Co. Ind., April 30, 1847, and departed this life Feb. 22, 1924 at the age of 76 years, 9 months and 22 days. She is the daughter of a family of 8 children, four boys and four girls.

On Feb. 7, 1867, she was united in marriage to Mr. Edwin Potter and since that time they have lived in and around this community. To this union was born five children, two girls and three boys. The girls, Nellie and Mary have preceded the mother in death. The boys, Charles, John and William are living to mourn their loss besides a companion, who will feel the loss very probably more than any other, seven grandchildren, six great grandchildren, a brother and a host of friends.

A very important fact in the life of the deceased was her membership in the Church of Jesus Christ from her early childhood days. However by her moving from one place to another she, desirous of being a member of the church where she could attend took her membership with her. Hence, she was a member of different churches but at her death was a member of the Methodist church of Butler, Ind.

The funeral service was held at the Jerusalem U. B. church Monday at 1:30 P. M., Rev. Hubart of Butler officiating. She was laid to rest in the Hamilton cemetery.

A SAD ACCIDENT

"June" Farnham Had the Misfortune to Run Over and Kill an Auburn Boy.

About noon Tuesday, June Farnham, cashier of the First National Bank of Butler, was driving south on Main street in Auburn, when a ten-year-old lad suddenly darted into the street in front of his car and was knocked down and run over before Mr. Farnham could stop his car. The Auburn Star relates the story as follows:

Joseph Atkinson, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Atkinson of East Sixteenth street, died at 3:15 Tuesday afternoon at the Souder hospital in Auburn from concussion of the brain, the result of being struck by an automobile on South Main street at 11:30 when he started to cross the street near the Sixteenth street intersection toward his home.

Joseph had just said, "So long, Joe," to his friend, Joe Sprott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Sprott of South Main street a moment before an Auburn automobile which was being driven by E. A. Farnham, Jr., cashier of the first National bank of Butler, struck him, and those were his last words.

The two lads, chums, were pupils in the fifth grade at the Harrison building. School was dismissed for the noon hour and they were going home to lunch. Near the residence of Mrs. Nan P. West of South Main street near Sixteenth street, the boys had some conversation, near the curbing. Joe Atkinson was standing with his back to the street when he said "so long" to his friend. As he turned to cross the street, the Auburn turing car with Mr. Farnham at the wheel and Jacob Gunsenhouser of Butler, at his side, was going south. The car struck Joe, knocking him to the left of the machine. The left fender or lamp struck the back of his head in such a manner as to hurl him to the pavement. When Mr. Farnham stopped his car, Joe was prostrate near the rear wheels.

Mr. Farnham picked the limp form from the street and carried it to the office of Dr. J. A. Sanders nearby where a preliminary examination was made and the Dilgard ambulance was called to take the boy to the Souder hospital.

Mr. Gunsenhouser explained to Mrs. Atkinson at the hospital details of the accident. He said Mr. Farnham was driving south on Main street at a low rate because of the heavy traffic at the noon hour when Main street is filled with automobiles. They saw the two boys talking and then Joe stepped out into the street. Mr. Farnham, he said could not turn to the east because of the number of automobiles going north and he tried to make a short turn to the west curbing to avoid hitting Joe. The automobile struck him he thought and hurled him around the front to the left side. From the appearance of the left light on the car which was pushed back out of line, it is presumed that this is what struck him in the back of the head.

Mr. Farnham was prostrate with grief and was unconscious a good part of the afternoon, so that he could not give an intelligent account of the affair.

James B. Bryan.

James B. Bryan, son of George and Armelia Bryan was born in Franklin Twp., DeKalb Co., Ind., in the year 1850 and died at his home in Butler, Ind. Feb. 29, 1924, age 74 years and 12 days. His boyhood days were spent on the old homestead north and east of Waterloo.

Having received a common school education, at the age of 15 he enlisted in Co. H. 152 Reg. of Infantry March 7, 1865. Was mustered out August 30, of the same year. After coming home from the war he had a desire to continue his education and entered high school at Butler and was graduated in the spring of 1872. He taught school in Wilmington township one year. In the spring of 1873 he left for the west spending three years at Sydney, Neb., where he was employed by J. W. Dear as clerk for the Red Cloud agency. In 1876 he went to South Dakota where he was employed in the gold mining business in the Black Hills.

As the years passed his health failed and he suffered the loss of his eyesight and on Sept. 14, 1922 he came to Butler to make his future home. He was of a happy disposition, kind and thoughtful of others and bore his affliction without complaining.

In his demise he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mary Meek of St. Joe, Mrs. Henry Snyder of Waterloo and one brother, Wm. Bryan of Butler; a stepmother of Traverse City, Mich., two step sisters, Mrs. Sam Crowl of Alden, Mich., and Mrs. Wm. Everett of Elkhart. and others to mourn their loss.

CHARLEY MASON SUICIDES

Charles E. Mason, 42 years old of Goshen, formerly of Butler, and a traveling salesman for a Chicago firm, hanged himself in his room at the Bearss Hotel at Peru, Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

A maid found the body about noon Sunday. Mr. Mason had tied a rope around his neck, attached it to a hot water pipe near the ceiling and jumped off a table.

The rope broke but it had drawn so tight about his neck that strangulation resulted. A doctor was called but he said the man had been dead several hours.

Mr. Mason had registered at the hotel on Thursday. His family at Goshen was notified and the body was taken to that city Monday.

Julia Gaff

Julia Gaff, daughter of Jacob and Mary Christoffel, was born in Stafford Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, on the 18th day of January 1857, being the youngest of a family of eight children, only one of which survive her. She fell asleep March 14th, 1924, aged 67 years, 1 month, 26 days.

On January 24, 1878 she was united in marriage to Frank Gaff. To this union were born four children, three daughters and one son: They are Mrs. Dora Olds of Butler; Clyde Gaff who resides on the old homestead; Mary who departed this life at the age of two years; and Mrs. Alma Clevenger of Garrett.

For two years after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Gaff resided with Mr. Gaff's parents, after which they moved on the farm where they toiled together for the next forty years. Feeling the need of giving up the hard work of the farm, they moved to Butler five years ago where they have since been living.

Mrs. Gaff leaves to mourn their great loss, her husband; three children; two grandchildren, Beverly and Allen Gaff; one sister, Mrs. Libbie Strole, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

She was a loving wife and mother, her home and the welfare of her children being her first concern. Neighbors found in her a willing helper in times of need and trouble. Her home was always open to friend and stranger alike, and her interest in the work and welfare of the community never waned. She was a member of the Butler Temple No. 126 of the Pythian Sisters.

During the last two years she has been failing in health. On Sunday February the third she sustained injuries in an automobile accident, since which time

There she has been confined to her bed much of the time. On Monday last she became unconscious. All that loving hands and medical aid could do availed nothing to stay the grim reaper and toward the close of this bright spring-like day, symbolical of her unselfish and useful life, she quietly "Wrapped the drapery of her couch about her and lay down to pleasant dreams."

"Fare thee well, Mother; now thou art gone, Thou hast left us in sorrow and sadness to mourn,
The tomb will inclose thee, thy spirit is free
But memories sweet are left us of thee.

Thy sorrow and trouble and toils are all o'er,
And angels have borne thee to Canaan's blest shore;
Thou hast joined all the dear ones for whom thou didst mourn,
When they in their turn to the tomb have been borne.

We know thou art waiting, dear heart and will stand,
And welcome us each, with fair
beckoning hand,
At the sunset of life, when the fair gates unbar,
And each in his turn will go where you are.

We loved thee dear Mother, we'll try not repine
For thou are ascended to Heaven's fair shrine,
O peaceful thy slumbers, and sweet be thy rest,
Till thou shalt be called to arise from the dust. B. E. K.

Miss Cora Stratton was born June 15, 1874 at Summit, Indiana, was married to Frank Stratton Sept. 22, 1894 to which union were born three children, Glen, Fern and Paul all of whom survive. They moved to Toledo, Ohio in 1910. Having been reared under Christian influences in a Methodist home, she united with the Central Church here under the pastorate of Rev. Yeisley and although not an active member on account of ill health she was ever ready to do what she could for the Master.

Besides the children who mourn her loss she leaves her mother Mrs. Hattie Penick of Butler, Ind., four sisters, Mrs. Emma Swager of Angola, Ind., Mrs. Maud Teeters of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Erma Gengrich of Butler, Ind., and Mrs. Dessie Werle of Manly, Iowa, also four brothers, Bert Penick of Ashley, Ind., Albie Penick of Pleasant Lake, Ind., Carl Penick of Williamsport, Ind., and Orlo Penick of Fargo, North Dakota, besides friends and neighbors. We who really knew this mother, this sister, this friend, found her ever ready to help us at all times in doubt and discouragement, in anxiety and sorrow as well as when life moved hopefully on. We too have learned and understood as never before one of life's virtues, patience, as we watched her silent suffering and peacefully passing away. Our loss is truly her gain.

Yes God knoweth best

His ways we cannot tell

He hides them deep like the hidden sleep

Of her we loved so well.

MARY ANN DEETERS INSANE

Incident Recalls the Murder of Amos and Laura Bechtol By Her Brother Thirty Years Ago

A statement alleging the insanity of Mary Ann Deeters of Grant township, has been filed in the office of County Clerk E. A. McClintock by Justice of the Peace C. E. Montavon of Waterloo, who conducted the inquest.

Miss Deeters' nurse gave Miss Deeters' age as sixty-nine years. She testified that beginning a number of years ago Miss Deeters gave uncivil answers to questions.

She imagines she is being pursued and persecuted and she is untruthful and destructive, although in good health she was kind hearted, cheerful, industrious and religious. She has suffered no mental strain excepting when, thirty years ago, her brother shot and killed two of his neighbors. She has required restraint for the last few months. She is melancholy, restless, violent and destructive at times, homicidal, suicidal, and hysterical.

Dr. J. E. Showalter, Miss Deeters' physician, stated he was called in October, 1923, to attend her for apoplectic paralysis of the right side. She is now better physically, but is irritable, nervous, violent and destructive at times. She is untrustworthy and threatens bodily violence to those around her. Her temper is erratic and at times uncontrollable, added Dr. Showalter.

Drs. J. C. Fretz and E. A. Ish found Miss Deeters to be feeble-minded, that she is suffering from paralysis, and that she has changed from a peaceable, religious and trustworthy woman to one who is subject to attacks of violence, making unreasonable demands, destroying property, burning clothing and attacking her care-

Many of our older readers will remember when this woman's brother, Sammy Deeters, in a fit of unfounded rage, shot and killed Amos Bechtol and his daughter Laura Lowe and attempted to shoot Williams Yates.

Deeters was tried and sent to prison for life. The insanity plea was made for him, but it did not work. So far as we know he never developed insanity afterward though there seems to have been some hereditary tendencies along that line.

LEVI ANTHONY KILLED

The body of Levi Anthony, aged 64, janitor, his skull fractured, was found in an upper room of the Noble county bank at Kendallville, early Monday morning. It was believed the fatal injury had been suffered when the man fell from the ladder to the marble floor of the bank Sunday evening while doing his janitorial work. The coroner returned a verdict of accidental death.

Anthony was known to have gone to the bank at 5 o'clock Sunday evening. It is supposed he placed a short ladder against a

Jasper Ocker

Jasper Ocker, son of Silas and Frances Ocker was born within a mile of Butler, on May 16, 1854. And has resided in and near Butler all his life.

There were four sons in his father's family, two of whom preceded him by death. Alonzo, in 1909 and Frank in Dec. of 1923. One brother, Budd of Froid, Montana, still living, and Mrs. Carrie Detwiler of Butler at present today who with the wife has tenderly and faithfully shared in the care of him during the seven weeks of his final illness.

In early manhood Bro. Ocker confessed his faith in Christ and has lived a faithful and consistent life. Always attendant upon the interests of the Church whenever health permitted.

He has been in failing health for several years and much of the time a great sufferer; but bore his suffering with patience and uncomplaining.

In 1883 he was married to Miss Lena Fetter, but after 16 years was separated by death. In 1901 he was again married to Miss Emma Tomlinson, who survives him. Less than one hour before his passing he said to her, that he was sorry to leave her, but that if it must be so, that he was ready. He passed away quietly and peacefully at eleven o'clock Wednesday, May 28, 1924. Aged 70 years and 12 days.

Words of eulogy are useless, his life has been an open book, and speaks for itself. The church loses a faithful worker. He was always quiet and unassuming, but stood firmly for what he believed to be right. A true Christian. What more need be said.

He was also a member of Castle

SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT

Geo. Sisson Dead and His Brother Injured.

George Sisson, 38, of Cleveland, Ohio, is dead, and his brother, Glenn, 32, of that city, is suffering bad cuts and bruises as a result of an automobile accident which occurred on the Toledo-Chicago pike, one and one-half miles east of Butler at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The two men were enroute from Nebraska to Cleveland, where the dead man had been employed during the winter as a carpenter and had proceeded a short distance from Butler when the accident occurred. Due to the heavy rains of the past few days, it is thought the ground along the high embankment at this point in the road had become soft and as the Buick car was turned to the side of the road, the loose gravel gave way, throwing the car, with its two occupants, down an eight foot embankment. The fields on each side of the road were covered with water and in its descent the car turned completely over, landing in three feet of water.

George Sisson, who was at the wheel, was unable to extricate himself from the car, and drowned. The younger brother suffered cuts and bruises about his entire body and is also suffering from nervous shock. The body was taken to Butler and prepared for burial. The automobile, a Buick open car, was hauled to a Butler garage for repairs.

WATERLOO BOY DROWNS IN CREEK

John Robinson, two year old son of Mrs. Phoebe Robinson of Waterloo, was drowned in Cedar Creek shortly after 10 o'clock Monday morning.

John and Joseph, his twin brother, wandered away from the Robinson home about 10 o'clock. The mother was engaged in washing. Mrs. Robinson and children live almost on the bank of the creek. Mrs. Robinson heard Joseph scream and she rushed to his side and asked where John was. "He's in the water," the boy declared.

Mrs. Robinson at once gave the alarm that her son had drowned. Three boys, Wayne Crooks, Gerald Griffin and Paul Wing, all of Waterloo, were fishing near by but they did not see the lad in the water. They started search for the body, wading down the creek. The current was strong.

due to the heavy rain Sunday evening. The Wing boy found the body a half mile south of the spot where the boy had entered the water, near the Arthur Farrington home.

The three boys took off their shirts and made a stretcher, carrying the little body to the Farrington home. Dr. J. C. Fretz of Waterloo, was called but life was extinct. The boy's body was taken home in the Robinson automobile.

John was two years old last December 8. His father died before he and his twin brother, Joseph were born. Mrs. Robinson is overcome with grief as a result of the tragic death of her son and is in a serious nervous condition.

It is believed from meager details of the drowning, given by the twin brother, that the unfortunate boy slipped off the bank into the water.

DUWAYNE WEBSTER

LEGALLY DEAD

DuWayne Webster has been declared legally dead by Judge Endicott and his brother, Eugene D. Webster, has been appointed administrator of his estate.

DuWayne Webster was a son of the late Henry Webster, a Stafford township farmer. He disappeared mysteriously many years ago and has never been heard from since. When his father died a few years ago, there was due DuWayne $459.69 as his share of the estate. This was deposited with the clerk of the court to give DuWayne time to make a claim for it, but he has not appeared and it will now be divided among his brothers and sisters, who are Eugene and Clark H. Webster of Stafford township, Stanley Webster of Peoria, Ill., Herbert, of Chicago, and Nellie Webster Hook, whose address is Edgerton, Ohio.

The administrator filed $1,500 bond, with Clark Webster as surety.

THREE ARE KILLED

At Nodine Crossing West of Butler

Three persons met instant death, when an automobile in which they were riding, was struck by the crack New York Central's Twentieth Century Limited at Nodine's crossing, three miles west of Butler, at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The car was completely demolished and the victims badly mangled.

The dead are:

Charles Platt, aged 52, Montpelier, Ohio.

Mrs. Charles Platt, aged 52, Montpelier, Ohio.

Louis Tringler, aged 60, Montpelier, Ohio.

The party was driving northwest at the crossing and apparently did not see or hear the east-bound flyer bearing down upon them at a high rate of speed. The car when struck broke the pilot of the engine and opened the air-brake line, making it necessary for a freight engine to pull the limited to the next station.

The mangled condition of the bodies delayed identification at the Butler morgue for an hour. The three victims had been visiting relatives at Kendallville and were returning home when the tragedy occurred.

HUGH CULBERTSON DEAD

The death of Hugh R. Culbertson, president of the Culbertson Hardware company and former mayor of Auburn at 1:35 Friday morning, came as a shock to a wide circle of acquaintances in Auburn and DeKalb county.

Mr. Culbertson was stricken Thursday about noon with apoplexy and failed rapidly until the end. He was taken sick Wednesday evening about the supper hour. At the time it was thought his illness was only a slight indisposition but Thursday morning his condition became serious and at noon he suffered the stroke which caused his death. Mr. Culbertson had not been in good health for the past year.

Since 1907 he and his family have been spending the winters in St. Petersburg, Florida. The first of May he and his wife returned to Auburn.

Mr. Culbertson was one of the best known men in this section of the state. His participation in politics, fraternal affairs, the DeKalb County Old Settler's association and Auburn Commercial club made him a familiar figure everywhere and he commanded the respect of a host of friends.

HUGH CULBERTSON ESTATE

The will of the late Hugh R. Culbertson of Auburn, was probated Wednesday in the DeKalb circuit court. It disposes of an estate estimated to be worth $20,000 divided equally between real estate and personal property.

Mr. Culbertson left $50 to the trustees of Evergreen cemetery, the income of the fund to be used in maintaining the burial lot of his father and mother. The trustees of Woodlawn cemetery are given $100 to maintain the graves of himself and family. The executor of the will is directed to provide a monument for his family burial lot to cost not exceeding $500.

The widow, Harriett R. Culbertson, is bequeathed all of the estate remaining after the payment of debts and the bequests for the cemeteries, for her use during her natural life, and she is given the privilege of expending not only

Hubartt

Mildred Lucile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almon Rinehart was born near St. Joe, Ind., Jan. 2, 1904 and on Sept. 17, 1924 was called to her eternal home to meet her God, whom she loved and worshiped and whose book was her constant companion and comfort during her illness, at the early age of 20 years, 8 months and 15 days.

Mildred never enjoyed the vigor of health as many others but lovingly and patiently she bore the weakness of the flesh till death came to relieve her spirit and permit it to go to its eternal rest.

At the age of 12 she united with the Lutheran church of St. Joe, Ind. Later she united with the U. B. church of Newville, Ind., where she remained a faithful and active member until death, always doing her part in the church and Sunday school when close enough and well enough to attend.

On Nov. 18, 1923 she was married to Glenn Hubartt. They rented rooms in Auburn where the husband was employed and for a few weeks occupied these rooms. On April 7, 1924 they rented a house in the same town and began housekeeping with their own furniture. This was of brief duration as they were permitted to stay one short week when Mildred was stricken down with the disease that wasted away her life.

Immediately they came to the home of her parents where she received the care from warm and loving hearts and tender and helpful hands.

She was the oldest of 7 children one of whom, a brother preceded her in death.

There are left to mourn their

EMMA BELLE SHARITT

Emma Belle Yarlet was born in DeKalb county, Ind., March 4th, 1862 and died August 27th, 1924, aged 62 years, 5 months and 27 days. She was married to J. L. Sharitt, September 17th, 1890. To them was born one child, Lucile Y. Sharitt, who with her father, survives. Two sisters, Mrs. F. A. Treman of Butler, Ind., and Mrs. Allie Nimmons of Auburn, Ind., one brother, John A. Yarlet of Butler, Ind., four nephews, Ray Treman, Carl Nimmons and Ross Yarlet all of Butler, Dr. George Rista Nimmons of Kamloops, Canada, and two nieces, Mrs. Ethel Western of Auburn, Ind., and Mrs. Beulah Warner of Waterloo, Ind., also survive.

For twelve years Mrs. Sharitt, before her marriage was a teacher in the common schools of DeKalb county, Ind., a delightful experience to which she loved to refer. She was always interested in the problems of the teachers and the advancement of our public schools.

She attended college at the Tri-State Normal at Angola. It was here she met Mr. Sharitt. After their marriage both attended Bethany College, Bethany, West Virginia, and finished at Drake University, Des Moines, Ia., June, 1894.

She loved her relatives and friends. In them she saw no enduring faults. She was a home woman. She feared the night. When the shadows fell, every member of the family must be accounted for before rest and sleep came on.

She united with the United Brethren church in Wilmington township, DeKalb county, Ind., and afterwards with the Downey Avenue Christian Church, Indianapolis, Ind.

DIES SUDDENLY

James Stonebraker, 79 Years of Age, Suffered from Cardiac Dropsy

Coroner H. A. Hinklin Monday filed in the office of County Clerk E. A. McClintock a report of his inquest into the death of the late James Stonebraker, who died suddenly at Butler Saturday.

T. M. Long, proprietor of the Long & Son Garage, stated at the inquest that Mr. Stonebraker and two ladies drove in front of the garage about 3:30 p. m. and inquired for Lester Haverstock's residence. Mr. Long gave them the directions. Mr. Stonebraker left the automobile and went into the garage and the two ladies drove away. Mr. Stonebraker proceeded to a closet in the rear of the garage. The ladies returned about thirty minutes later and a search resulted in finding Mr. Stonebraker in the closet, sitting and leaning forward. Mr. Long called Dr. Fanning and he pronounced Mr. Stonebraker dead.

Dr. Fanning stated there was no indication of foul play. Dr. Nelson J. Shook of Corunna testified he had treated Mr. Stonebraker for the last five years and that he was suffering from a cardiac dropsy caused by a valvular lesion of the heart. Dr. Shook said this was the cause of Mr. Stonebraker's sudden death. Mr. Stonebraker was seventy-nine years of age.

O. P. BROWN, DEAD

Oliver P. Brown, a life long resident of Hamilton, passed away Friday night at 9 o'clock at his home in Hamilton following sickness, the result of a stroke of paralysis six months ago. The probable immediate cause of his death was a severe cold contracted during the Angola fair. Mr. Brown insisted on attending the fair though he was in no condition to withstand the cold. It had been the first time since he was stricken that he had been away from home and he had such a good time that, instead of going one day, he went three days to the fair. The cold centered upon his lungs and he failed rapidly.

Mr. Brown, a retired business man of Hamilton, was 67 years of age and is survived by his widow, two sons, Grover C. and Cleland Brown of Hamilton, his brother, Charles, of Auburn, and two sisters, Mrs. O. M. Gilmore and Mrs. J. P. McCool of Angola.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Geneva Creager who passed away Oct. 31, 1923.

One year ago today in the calm of the morning, God's messenger came, and quietly relieved our dear one of pain. The heavenly gates were opened and a loving voice said, come to the mansion I've prepared for you.

Now that your work on earth is done,

Deep in our hearts she is fondly remembered,

Sweet happy memories still cling round her name,

True hearts that loved her in deepest affection

Always will love her in death just the same.

No more will the smile of her dear face brighten

The long, dreary days of those left behind,

For all who loved her could never forget her,

Her ways were so loving, so gentle, so kind.

Sadly missed in the home.

Mrs. Watson

Mary Coffin Watson was born in Saint Field, Ontario, Canada, June 9, 1848, and departed this life at Auburn, Indiana, October 31, 1924.

She was married to Alexander A. Watson in Greenbank, Ontario, Canada in the year 1867, and moved to Butler, Indiana, in the year 1874. She lived in her home in Butler until the death of her husband in 1919, after which the greater part of her time was spent in the homes of her daughters.

To this union were born six children: Mrs. Elizabeth Goodwin, Mrs. Jemima Glover, John Watson, Mrs. Mayme Tomlinson, Robert Watson, and Mrs. Ida Baker, all of whom remain to mourn her departure. She also leaves a beloved sister, Mrs. Nancy McMurray, two grandchildren, Gertrude and Ruth Goodwin, and one niece, Mrs. J. L. Griffin, and a host of friends.

In her younger years she affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church of Greenbank, and has been faithful to her Christian belief all the years.

A short prayer service was held at the home of her daughter, at Auburn, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Tripeere, after which the removal was made to her old home in Butler. The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Newcomer of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. Burial was made in the Butler cemetery.

Hamman

Little Mary Jane Hamman entered into this life October 28, 1924 and died November 1, 1924. So sweet the flower God gave to us

So short the time she had to stay,
Our home will be a dearer place
Because she came—and went away.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our good neighbors and friends for their sympathy and kindness during the loss of our little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamman and family.

Rosenberry

Bennie Lester Rosenberry son of George and Sadie Rosenberry was born Sept. 9, 1906, one and one half miles west of Butler. He lived with his parents in Butler four years when he and his mother moved to her parents' home four miles north of Butler where he resided until death which was a sad one.

On the morning of Nov. 12 he was moving a tree with a team on a farm near Concord when a branch struck him a fatal blow on the head. He lived only a few minutes. He was 18 years 2 months and three days old, and has always been an industrious boy and fell at a post of duty.

Neighbors and friends who knew him all his life have only the best words for him. He was very much devoted to his mother and was the pride of her heart.

He leaves to mourn the loss a devoted mother who will miss him most, a father George Rosenberry, two grandfathers, Ben Myers with whom he and his mother lived, Oliver Rosenberry, one grandmother, Mrs. Oliver Rosenberry, one great grandmother, Mrs. Clem Rosenberry and several uncles and aunts and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the Jerusalem church last Friday afternoon Nov. 14. P. H. Hubbard officiating. Interment at the Hamilton cemetery.

MELROY.

D. D. Melroy was born in Melmore, Ohio, Seneca County on June the 29th, 1857 and departed this life at Defiance, Ohio, at the home of Dr. Nedrey Nov. 29th 1924 at the age of 67 years and 5 mo.

He lost his first wife Ida Melroy in 1915, and on Sept. the 16th, 1919 he was married to Mrs. Hattie Cole of Pittsburg, Pa. where he has since resided. Mr. Melroy was for many years an active citizen of this city, and was well known here to many of his old friends. He was very active in the fancy poultry business, having taken his flocks to many of the large poultry shows and taking his share of the premiums. By trade he was a painter and paper hanger, and in this trade he was well skilled, and was always busy.

Mr. Melroy has been in poor health for many months, but he bore his affliction cheerfully.

He left his home at Pittsburg, for a visit with the old home friends, and got as far as Defiance when he was taken sick, and on Sat. morning he was found dead in his chair at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. Nedrey.

He was prepared for burial and his wife came from Pittsburg, and brought the remains to Butler, the services were held at the M. E. Church Rev. J. S. Newcombe officiating, and he was laid to rest beside his first wife in the Butler cemetery, by the members of the M. W. of A. of Butler of which he was a member.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, who was to him a faithful companion in his remaining days, five step-children one sister and a host of friends.

ELMER COX DIED

From Wounds Inflicted by Hungarian Onion Raiser

Elmer Cox of near Columbia City, who was shot and beaten by Elgi "Mike" Molener, a Hungarian, and his son, Joe, near Pleasant Lake last Tuesday, died at the Sacred Heart hospital in Garrett Sunday.

The body was removed to Howard A. Hinklin's morgue, where a post-mortem examination was made by Drs. John W. Thomson and W. K. Templeton. They found that the mortal wound had been made by a bullet that went through the liver and lodged in the back. Another went through the left arm, entered the chest in a glancing fashion and lodged under the skin. Another bullet, pierced the back, followed a course just under the skin and emerged again entered the back on the opposite side of the spine, made a small wound and emerged. Another similar wound was made in the back by another bullet, making a total of four times the man was shot.

Cox was also severely beaten with a club. There were deep gashes on his head and the side of his face and his left arm was broken by a blow.

The body was removed Monday to the Cox home on a farm four miles south of Columbia City, where Cox was born and where he had always lived. The funeral will be held at a time not yet fixed and the burial will be made in ~~Eberhard Lutheran cemetery.~~

Capt. H. C. Springer, prosecuting attorney, was in Garrett Sunday night and when he learned of Cox's death he telephoned Sheriff Frank Adams of Steuben county to call the grand jury into session at Angola Tuesday morning. The prosecutor intends to have Molener indicted for first degree murder,

Capt. Springer has not yet decided what steps to follow in the case of the boy, Joe, whose age is give from thirteen to fifteen years. Because of the boy's age and the fact that he beat Cox upon orders of his father, it is deemed impossible to convict him of murder. It is probable that he will be charged with incorrigibility in the juvenile court and upon conviction sentenced to the boys' reform school at Plainfield, where he would remain until he is twenty-one years of age.

There were no eye-witnesses to the murder, but Cox signed a deathbed statement in which he gave his version of the affair. He said that he and Molener were unable to agree on a settlement as a result of their partnership in the onion business. Molener and his son approached him as he was hauling the crates from the onion field and as he turned to pick up up some crates Molener whipped out an automatic revolver and commenced to shoot at him. He thought Molener shot three times, but the wounds prove that four shots took effect. Cox went to the onion crib and Molener followed. Cox gripped Molener and the latter told his son to take a club and kill him. The boy hit Cox over the head, although Cox coaxed him to let him alone. They then went outside the crib. Cox asked the boy to give him a crate to sit upon and the lad complied with the request. Cox had his hands on his head and the boy ordered him to take them off. "Mike" Molener then hit him again. Cox staggered around the tractor begging for mercy, but "Mike" hit him again and he fell. When he revived he climbed into his wagon and drove to Pleasant Lake, where he was attended by Dr. Lake. The latter had him removed in an ambulance to the Garrett hospital.
